FILM STAR JURY UNABLE TO AGREE

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP) The jury failed to agree today on the question of whether Miss Gloria Swanson, the screen star, did or did not slap the face of S. Alexander Cohen when he attempted to hand her a subpoena on September 19, 1925.

Cohen sued Miss Swanson, now the Marquise de LaFalaise de La Courday, asking $25,000 for "physical pain, humiliation and detrimental publicity."

The actress did not testify. Her counsel produced two witnesses, both employees of the Park Chambers hotel where she resides. They testified that they had seen the meeting between Cohen and Miss Swanson but that there had been no slapping.

KIDNAPED GIRL REPORTED SAFE

NEW YORK, June 15.—(AP) Ten year old Grace Budd, kidnaped from her home two weeks ago, is safe and happy, stated a note from her abductor which was turned over to police today. The note which was mailed to the girl's mother, said in part:

"I have Grace. She is safe and sound. She is happy in her new home and is not at all homesick. I will see to it that Grace has proper schooling. She has been given an Angora cat and a pet canary. I will see to it in the near future that some arrangements are made so Grace will be able to visit you for a short time.

"J. F. H."

The police search continues for the mysterious "Frank Howard," who took the girl from her home on the pretext of attending a party.
