

REAL WINTER IN DEAD INDIAN; 3 INCHES OF SNOW

EDEN PRECINCT, June 14.—(Special.) Fred Furry and Ed Hamlin went out to Dead Indian to fix up fences on the Furry ranches, and found it snowing when they got out there on Sunday evening. It snowed three inches and the boys had a cold, wet time of it. They came back Monday.

Mrs. Bellnap of Medford was out at the Carey plant far madder plants last Thursday.

Norman Wayne Phelps, who formerly resided in Talent and ran a newspaper there, has been in Medford, accompanied by his brother, Guy Fitch Phelps, for a week past, lecturing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elby Wagoner of San Francisco were in the valley Tuesday evening on old friends. Mrs. Wagoner was formerly Miss Belle McTavish and lived near Phoenix.

Mr. Wagoner is author of a book he lately had published. The title is "Partners Three," an interesting Alaska story.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colver of Phoenix have begun the season's picking of their red raspberry crop. The berries are of the very best quality.

John Hilderbrand is staying nights over at the Coleman ranch across Bear creek from Phoenix. Since Hamlin moved into Mrs. Furry's house it leaves the Coleman ranch vacant unless Mrs. Hilderbrand is there.

Harry Morrison is marketing young porkers all the time to the different meat markets in the valley towns.

There are more turkeys being raised this year all over the valley than in the past three years. E. C. Lockwood of the White Wing Poultry farm has been hatching poulters for many of the farmers.

Noah Chandler has another wonderful oat crop, and if we are to have a county fair, samples of them should be secured now.

Mr. Bingman is finishing his painting on the little cottage which he lately purchased in North Talent.

E. M. Rease, father of Orval Rease, is improved in health enough so he can walk about the house and yard.

Mrs. Leta Furry and Mrs. M. Ross were visited by a large number of old friends who gathered in the evening last Saturday to bid them farewell. It was on the order of a surprise, but leaked out just before the evening. Delicious punch and wafers were served during the evening.

Mrs. Hunt, an old friend of Mrs. S. P. Barneburg, is spending about ten days at the Barneburg home.

Mr. Wolters, a former Phoenix resident, was at the plant farm after broccoli plants. Mr. Wolters plans to spend the summer at Butte Falls.

E. C. Lockwood is planting a large plot of late cabbage for poultry feed, and it is superior to kale for winter green feed.

Many of the women in this vicinity are out thinning fruit. Help is scarce and good thinners are hard to find. There is no excuse for neglected persons not to be employed now.

Miss Ruth Miller is home from college and is with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Miller, near Phoenix.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held an initiation last Wednesday evening instead of in the afternoon, as many of the members were out thinning and could not attend in the afternoon. It was one of the best meetings held this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fish and family were down to Central Point last Sunday visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Palmer have secured a nice new cottage on South Central avenue in Medford. They took a trip to Albany last week to bring back some of their most needed household goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Bender of North Peach street, Medford, were out to call on Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey the first of the week. They are surely in love with the Rogue River Valley.

Many who have summer homes at Lake of the Woods are making plans to spend a good part of the summer there this season, as the fishing is said to be excellent in the lake this year.

Miss Irene Standley has spent two nights this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Simpson of Medford.

"The Dove" Again at Craterian Tonight

Noah Beery's latest role is that of Senior Don Jose Maria y San-doval, who, in his own language, conspired himself "the best damn caballero in all Costa Roja." He has "it," which is not what you might think in the colorful country of Costa Roja.

LAST MEETING OF VALLEY CLUB IS HELD, BELLVIEW

BELLVIEW, June 15.—The Upper Valley Community club held their last regular meeting of this season on Wednesday at an all day meeting at one o'clock. A covered dish luncheon was served, the morning hours were spent in lamp shade making. After luncheon, the business was held and many important matters were discussed. The election of officers for the ensuing year was held at this time and the following were elected: Mrs. Wade Wallace, president; Mrs. Edwin Dunn, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Tucker, secretary-treasurer. After the business was over Miss York gave a splendid demonstration of shade making. Many ladies worked or started shades for their homes.

Mrs. Carl Lottische of Medford and Mrs. R. C. Hawley of Washington were guests at this meeting.

The Pioneer club, with Mr. Dunham, pastor of the Baptist church as president, had a picnic supper at 7 o'clock at the Gilmore farm.

The table was spread in the yard and a delicious supper was enjoyed. At 8 o'clock they were joined by the R. Y. P. U. from the Baptist church. They all journeyed down the banks of Bear creek and enjoyed a wienie roast.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Nelson have leased their place in Bellview to Mr. and Mrs. Hazelwood of California who will take possession at once. Mr. Hazelwood has a position with the Moon Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tucker of Trail were visiting relatives over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thebo and daughter Mary spent Friday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark True. The Thebos motored as far north as Eugene by way of Bend, Ore., and returned by the valley route. Mr. Thebo is a cousin of Mr. True.

Mrs. Oscar Low and son Paul and Miss Edith Chapman spent the week-end visiting with relatives in Medford.

Mrs. T. A. Merryman and daughters Wilda and Ellen spent Saturday afternoon shopping in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Homes were Medford visitors on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. C. Hawley and daughter Ruby of Lynden, Wash., arrived at the Metcalf home Friday evening to visit for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Mabel Merryman was surprised Friday afternoon with a birthday party. She was called to the home of Mrs. Jesse Nell on important business and an arriving found a party was under way. After a jolly afternoon, delicious refreshments were served in the dining room at a table beautiful with red and green as the color scheme. Mrs. Merryman received beautiful gifts from her friends.

Mrs. James Allen of California is spending some time visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Corder of East Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gottsoch of Medford were in Bellview on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chastain and Mrs. William Bryant are spending a short vacation at Crescent City. They expect to return the last of the week.

Little Helen Dunn is spending a week visiting at the home of her aunt on Applegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Evans sold their property in Bellview a few weeks ago and moved to Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich and family purchased the Evans property.

Eleven boys and girls of Jackson county left Sunday morning for O. A. C., where they will attend the summer session of school which begins Monday morning. Instruction in home economics, sewing and cooking for the girls, and agriculture and livestock for the boys will be included in the session.

R. G. Fowler will spend most of the time with the boys, while Miss Florence York, home demonstration agent, will teach two classes in sewing during the last week.

Those taking the trip from Bellview were: Beth Joy, Anna Meisner and Mollie Helms.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spence and family returned to their home in central Oregon after spending some time visiting Mr. Spence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Spence.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tucker and daughter, Mrs. Scott and son Stephen were callers in Bellview on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hessemer have leased their place in Bellview to parties from California and are moving to Klamath Falls to make their home.

YEOMAN LODGE PICNIC BUTTE FALLS SUNDAY

Members of the Yeoman lodges of Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland and their families will attend an annual all-day picnic Sunday, June 17, at the Butte Falls city park.

Initiatory services are planned for the morning and stunts, races, games and music are on the afternoon program. Each family is requested to bring a well filled basket.
