

Events of the Week in Pictures

RADIO BRINGS MANY PROPOSALS

Within 48 hours after Chief Kiutus Tecumseh, Indian tenor, sang over a broadcasting station at San Francisco, Cal., he received 14 proposals of marriage, included with more than 250 cash notes. The chief is 27, tall, and good looking. But he has turned 'em all down with regrets. Music is his life work, he declares.

WOMEN VOTERS SEND DELEGATES

Miss Belle Sherwin, Mrs. Geo. Gellhorn, Mrs. Herbert K. Smith, Mrs. James W. Morrison, Mrs. Roscoe Anderson, Miss Adele Clark.

The National League of Women Voters is sending special delegations to the national Republican and Democratic conventions at Kansas City, Mo., and Houston, Tex. Members are affiliated with both parties and they will direct efforts of the league to have their planks incorporated in party platforms. The delegates to the Republican convention will include Mrs. James W. Morrison, of Chicago; Mrs. George Gellhorn, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Herbert Knox Smith, of Farmington, Conn. Mrs. Roscoe Anderson, of St. Louis; Miss Adele Clark, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. LaRue Brown, of Boston, will represent the league at Houston. Miss Belle Sherwin, of Cleveland, O., president, will be an ex-officio member of each delegation.

MURDER MYSTERY PUZZLES BOSTON

Boston police have been mystified over the shooting to death of Miss Mary Mahan, 21, cabaret singer, whose bullet-riddled body was found in a sand pit on a reservation within the city limits. Search has been instituted for John Tartar, 27, left above, taxi driver, said to have driven with the girl to the spot with another driver, whom he told to "take the air." The other driver walked away from the scene and a minute later heard a dozen shots. No motive for the crime is known. Tartar fled from the sand pit in the cab. The scene of the shooting is shown below.

WOMEN AID G. O. P. CONVENTION

Women, too, have their tasks cut out as the Republican national convention opens at Kansas City, Mo. These two have mighty important jobs. They are Mrs. Florence Scott, of Kansas City, private telephone operator for the Republican national committee, shown on duty at committee headquarters, and Mrs. Josephine T. Berry, left above, in charge of the information booths established for women delegates and visitors.

Miss Marguerite Bumbaugh, confessed slayer of Walter G. Cook, Niles, Mich., manufacturer, and her former lover, snapped with her family leaving the jail at St. Joseph, Mich., for the courtroom across the street, where she is being tried for Cook's murder. Miss Bumbaugh maintains she killed Cook in self-defense when she entered his office to collect more than $3,000 in back salary which Cook owed her. Her brothers, George and Girard, who were with her at the time of the shooting, have been held with the girl on a joint charge of first degree murder. In the photo, left to right, are Mrs. Albert Bumbaugh, the mother, George, Girard and Marguerite, leaving the jail.

WINS HOOSIER DEM NOMINATION

Frank C. Dailey, Indianapolis, former U. S. district attorney, has received the Democratic nomination for governor in Indiana at the Democratic state convention at Indianapolis. Dailey, shown above with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dailey, of Fort Wayne, won the nomination by acclamation at the end of the first ballot.

Sold Fatal Pistol

Star witness for the state in the trial of Miss Marguerite Bumbaugh, at St. Joseph, Mich., for the shooting of her former lover and employer, Walter G. Cook, of Niles, Mich., Elmer Lutz, 23, above, store clerk, of Los Angeles, has testified that he sold Miss Bumbaugh a gun six days before the fatal shooting occurred, and that he taught her how to shoot it in a private shooting range. Miss Bumbaugh, spurned by Cook, has pleaded self-defense, declaring that Cook attacked her when she entered his office at Niles to collect more than $3,000 back salary he owed her.

Presented at Court

Miss Ruth Draper, American actress, is the first stage personage to be presented at Buckingham court in modern times. In England, her presentation is believed to signify the lifting of the unwritten ban against stage people.

SMITH'S YOUNGEST DAUGHTER WEDS

An exclusive photo of Miss Catherine Smith, youngest daughter of Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, in the bridal ensemble for her marriage to Francis P. Quillian, June 9, at Albany.

THEA TAKES UP SOCIETY MATRON

Pauline Thea Rasche, German aviatrix, who plans to attempt a transatlantic flight from New York to Paris, recently, during a respite from flight details, took Mrs. James A. Stillman, wife of the New York banker, for an aerial ride at Curtiss Field, L. I. Above, Mrs. Stillman and her pilot snapped just before taking off.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT WILL SEE

These folk, gathered on the steps of the general store at Brule, Wis., will be neighbors of President and Mrs. Coolidge when they arrive at Cedar Island Lodge, near there, this summer. Below, some fish taken from the Brule river, in the heart of Wisconsin's trout region, where the president will have an opportunity to indulge his love for the sport.

Defeated Rail Chief

After 19 years as president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, William G. Lee, of Cleveland, O., has failed of reelection by a margin of 24 votes. He has been made secretary-treasurer of the organization to succeed A. F. Whitney, the new president.

Socialist Candidate

Mary Donovan Haggood, wife of Powers Haggood, of Boston, has been chosen by the Socialist party of Massachusetts as its gubernatorial candidate.

READY FOR WORK OF CONVENTION

Roy O. West, of Chicago, secretary of the Republican national committee, snapped at his desk at the committee headquarters in Kansas City, Mo., preparing for the opening of the Republican national convention, June 12.