

Local and Personal

Many Medford and valley families plan to motor up to Crater National park today to see the lake in its winter surroundings. Cars can only go as far as the road to the lodge has been cleared of snow, some distance above government camp, from which point all visitors must hike up the hill then and over the snow to the rim of the lake.

Get a Roxanne porch frock, special at Adrienne's, 87. Principal D. H. Conkle, of the senior high school was scheduled to leave today for Palo Alto, Cal. to attend the Stanford university summer school, where he will continue study for his master's degree.

Fancy apricots for canning, 5 1/2 c. Johnson's Market. Deep sea fishing on the Pacific ocean is included on the vacation program of Mr. and Mrs. E. Conner who will leave today for a week's trip to Crescent City where they will visit V. E. Conner, formerly of Medford. From there they expect to drive down to Marshfield for a few days. We have something choice in tree progs. Do not fail to see them. Big Pines Lbr. Co. 787*

In His Thirty Years Ago news reproductions several days ago the Ashland Tidings published the following: Jacksonville, Mr. Geo. R. Lindley, whose term as county treasurer has just expired, made 533 trips from his home beyond Medford to his office in Jacksonville during his term. The distance from Jacksonville to his place is six miles.

Fancy apricots for canning, 5 1/2 c. Johnson's Market. Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan were visitors last week in Portland to witness the beginning of the big golf tournament there, and while he looked after some business matters. The Crosley Ice-Ball, cheapest mechanical refrigerator sold, Tel. 433.

E. J. Warren, Pendleton high school faculty member, who was elected head of the schools at Weston, has resigned and will teach music and algebra at Yreka, Cal.

Have your furniture repaired by A. N. Thibault, Phone 959-R, 92 Sallor Jack Wood, accompanied by Mrs. Wood, and Jack Miller, big 220-pound heavyweight wrestler, motored to Grants Pass yesterday to complete arrangements for the William Sandahl roller match to be staged in Grants Pass in a short time. The match will be held on the evening of the finish of the Indian marathon race from San Francisco to the Climate City and is attracting considerable interest already.

Warehouse for rent or lease, Call during the day, Phone 223, 80

Mrs. Grace Hawkins, accompanied by her daughters, Lavent of Woodland, Calif. are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Buckley of the Independent Electric company.

Fancy apricots for canning, 5 1/2 c. Johnson's Market. Will G. Steele of Eugene, the U. S. commissioner for Crater National park, has been at the park for almost two weeks, having gone to that location via the Cascade route of the Southern Pacific to Klamath Falls and Chiloquin, where John Mahen, caretaker of the lodge, met him and they went on together to the park.

Have special bargain in brand new grand piano shipped to Medford in error. Factory has authorized 25% reduction for quick sale. Terms may be arranged. Palmer Music House, 88*

Miss Mildred Knight of the California Oregon Power company went to Portland last Friday to spend a week's vacation visiting friends. Get a Roxanne porch frock, special at Adrienne's, 87. A letter received in Medford from Phillip Lounsbury, who is driving the J. A. Curle family to New York state, indicated that the party would arrive at their destination June 22. The letter was written from Iowa and said that the trip was progressing very satisfactorily. Upon his arrival in New York, he will board a steamship for New Orleans and return to Medford by rail.

Grace Lammers formerly with the Hub Shop of Eugene for the past five years, is taking the place of Ruby Phillips at the Emma Clinic Shop, 81. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. V. Spilner of Medford, who have been visiting relatives in Chicago for several months, are now at Los Angeles on the way home according to word received here yesterday.

During the Oregon Federated Women's club convention to be held at Klamath Falls last week in June, Dr. Aurelia Rinehart, president of Mills college and recognized as a speaker of international reputation, will address the convention. Gladhill blooms. Gladhill Gardens, 298 Clark. Phone 754-X. Mrs. H. M. Samuelson, 96 Riley N. Potter, Joe Blackford and A. Street employed on the crew of men who are constructing a retaining wall of dry masonry near Big Rock lodge on Rogue river, are spending the week-end here. Ladies wishing California perfume products call 290-Y for appointment. 88. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coker, who were called here by the death of the former's father, E. F. Coker, have returned to their home at Day Point. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. F. Coker, who will visit relatives in Grants Pass for a few days. Mrs. Coker and sons, Verne and Wayne, will make their home at Central Point, Oregon, upon her return. — Yreka News.

The bands and orchestras of our city schools will show considerable growth by opening of the fall term. Five new students of band instruments were started this week at the Palmer Music House. Four free lessons are given with each instrument sold. Used instruments are loaned to those who are in doubt of their ability to learn. If your son or daughter would like to play a musical instrument, make arrangements to start them now. Palmer Music House, 88*

Opheya Stevens, deputy clerk, yesterday evening completed the mailing of 206 checks for members who served on election boards at the last primary election. Most of the checks will reach their destination Monday. Medford camp of the Spanish War Veterans and their families will journey to Grants Pass today to assist the Grants Pass camp in their annual observation of Flag day in Riverside park, beginning at 4 p. m. Prior to the program, a potluck dinner for all the Spanish War Veterans and their families will be held in the park. There also will be Spanish War Veterans from Klamath Falls and other southern Oregon points.

William Bowerman and Estill Phipps, local high school students, left Medford last week by motorcycle for Fossil, in eastern Oregon, where they will spend the summer working. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Isaacs with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Guay left Medford Saturday morning for a drive through the Redwoods down the coast to San Francisco and Oakland. They will spend several days visiting Mrs. Lee Swinson of Sacramento, sister of Mrs. Isaacs and a former resident of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Oliver and children arrived last week from Union county to make their home in southern Oregon and expect to obtain positions as teachers in some public school of the county. The public market yesterday morning presented a very neat appearance with new oil cloths on the counters and the general scrubbed. In addition to the market presented a busy appearance, with the majority of the booths filled and customers before each one. Marketmaster E. J. Runyard yesterday issued his invitation to the farmers of southern Oregon to take advantage of the market, the cost of which is free.

Bids for the construction of a new one-room school house at Trail are to be opened next Saturday and construction of the new building is to begin immediately following the letting of the contract in order that the school may be put in use next September. The building will take the place of one that served the needs of the Trail community for the past 30 or 40 years and which was nearly unfit for further use.

Irbyne Mahr, formerly of Roseburg Beauty Shoppe, has recently returned from Los Angeles with the latest creations in ladies' hair-cutting, and will be located at the Medford Beauty Parlor, starting June 11, 1928, 16 No. Central. Friends and previous customers will be given expert attention. 89. J. S. Williams, well known citizen of Talent has become a permanent resident of Woodburn, Ore., to which place he recently removed.

Dressmaking and remodeling, Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. 41. During his absence at Camp Clatsop, where he is taking part in the annual encampment of the Oregon National Guard, the duties of Donald Herriott as clerk at the Medford Furniture and Hardware store have been taken over by Lloyd Brock.

You don't need electricity to operate a Crosley Ice-Ball refrigerator, 48. The management of the Sparta building, corner of East Main and Riverside streets, is now in the hands of John Winterhalter, proprietor of the Cozy Nook confectionery and lunch place, located in that building, as Walter Bowne, who has had the management for several years past, plans soon to leave for New York.

Used piano for sale at a sacrifice. Easy terms. Phone 934-X. 767*

H. D. Reed returned to Gold Hill Friday evening from Louisville, Ky., where he was called by the serious injury to an aged aunt in that city. Mr. Reed visited a few days at Kansas City on his return trip with the Hunt family, formerly of this city. Tomorrow Republicans were assembling to K. C. to suit Johnny and to keep his good Democratic conscience clean he hurried back to Oregon lest some one mistake him for a champion of the G. O. P. — Gold Hills News.

Band and orchestra instruments repaired. Reduced rates for the summer months. Have your instrument ready for the coming conventions and busy school months. Palmer Music House, 88* Miss Sarah Van Meter, principal of the Roosevelt school building left yesterday for Eugene to take a special course in the six weeks' summer school of the University of Oregon.

Piano for sale, $50. Phone 1417. 87*

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to Walter Whisenand, 26, of Medford and Leona Harris, 26, of Central Point; John Junker, 23, of Scotia, Calif., and Mae Snowden, 18, of Eugene, Calif.; Thomas Cutsforth, legal, of Eugene and Margery Gilbert, legal, of Columbus, O.

Would you like to take advantage of a credit of $142.50 on a Laffargue piano sold about a year ago for $175? You may take care of this contract over a period of 24 months. Palmer Music House, 88*

Indicating that hiking is nearing a fad among girls, four young women were in Medford Friday afternoon en route from Los Angeles, Calif., to Seattle, Wash., clothed in regular men's clothing. They reported they found traveling easy, motorists being kind in giving them lifts from place to place. Earlier last week a woman, accompanied by her three-year-old daughter, passed through Medford en route from Seattle to Los Angeles, after having hiked from Detroit, Mich., to Seattle.

All the mineral water you want for 50c from those famous Holcomb health giving springs. No car charge. 88*

Hugh Rankin, supervisor of the Crater National forest, has been spending several days in the Pelican Bay Lumber company holdings in Klamath county.

A special type of tree progs at Big Pines Lbr. Co. 787*

W. M. Barber has traded a home and lot on the corner of Granite and Nutley streets to Mrs. Nellie Power Johnson for a residence and lot on Court street in Medford-Ashland Tidings.

Get a Roxanne porch frock, special at Adrienne's, 87.

Because of their extreme youth, William Drum and Archie Rock, who were sentenced in circuit court last week to one year each for moonshine still possession in the Griffin Creek district, were paroled by Circuit Judge O. M. Corkins last Friday to their parents.

Vacation time and free lessons with every piano sold during the summer months. We will arrange for ten free lessons with the teacher you wish. If you are not acquainted we will gladly suggest a teacher for you. Palmer Music House, 88*

The third floor of the federal building seems unusually quiet since the headquarters offices of the Crater National park were moved from there last week to government camp at the park, and Superintendent C. G. Thomson and staff moved to that location, for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Carle of Rogue River are going to Redwood Park for the summer, then south for winter, probably Arizona.

We have something choice in tree progs. Do not fail to see them. Big Pines Lbr. Co. 787* C. W. Hollidge of Talent took his daughter, Lucille, to Corvallis Saturday afternoon when she will enroll in the summer session at O.S.C. which begins next week. They were accompanied by Clarence and Harry Oatman who will return this evening.

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office yesterday afternoon to Mrs. Coy Shady of Cliftonville, Fitch Motor company of Medford, Joseph Nye of Wilderville and Theo Steigwig of Roseburg.

Harold Fisk of Medford is a member of a party of 11 University of Oregon students, who, under the direction of Professor E. T. Hodge of the geology department, are making an extended investigation of the Deschutes river country, considered as one of the most important and interesting geological regions on the Pacific coast. The first two weeks will be spent in making a map of the large area.

Mrs. W. Scott, who taught last year in the Lincoln school, accompanied by her son, has gone to St. Helena, Ore., to visit a short time while en route to the eastern states.

Mrs. Cora Powell is clerking at the Hutchison drygoods store during the illness of Mrs. A. W. Mason who has been absent a few days.

Among the out of town shoppers here yesterday were Mrs. J. G. Sheridan of Plaza Garde; Mrs. Donna Grafias and Mrs. Chub Anderson of Phoenix; Mrs. Charles Walker, Eagle Point; Mrs. Lawrence Crawford, Mrs. Clarence Holmes, and Miss Velma Mason, Talent.

Mrs. J. T. Gallagher of Grants Pass, an instructor in the junior high school, was a visitor here yesterday afternoon. She expects to enroll in the Ashland Normal school this summer.

A general housecleaning is taking place in all of the school buildings here. The Howard estate site on So. Oakdale for a new junior high school there some time in the future, is being cleared. New linoleum was put on the floors at the general school offices yesterday.

Altho Arthur Moen of Superintendent C. G. Thomson's staff went up to Crater National park last Friday for the season, his family will not join him there for about two weeks yet, as the new cabin for them at headquarters camp will not be ready for occupancy until then.

J. Ludo Greve of the Prospect No. 2 power plant was a local business visitor at the Copco home offices here yesterday making final plans for the Copco Forum picnic next Saturday.

CATHOLIC THROUGH AT YEARLY MEET CENTRAL SOCIETY

SALEM, Ore., June 16.—(AP)—No less than five thousand Catholic visitors and possibly 10,000 are expected in Salem tomorrow for the annual celebration of the Oregon League of the Catholic Central society of the Catholic Veroin of America.

This was preceded today by the annual business meeting of the Catholic Central society. The meetings are being held at the state fairgrounds. Pontifical high mass will be celebrated in the automobile pavilion at the fair grounds by Archbishop Edward P. Howard of the diocese of Oregon, of Oregon City assisted by J. R. Buck of Salem.

It is said that not until this year have clergy and laity cooperated for a discussion of the principles of civic virtue and social reform.

A dinner will be served at noon and in the afternoon there will be athletics and a program of sports and music. Governor Patterson will be represented by his former secretary Hal E. Huss, republican candidate for secretary of state.

WILLITS, Cal., June 16.—(AP)—Flooding steadily up the northern California coast in the brilliant sunshine of an early summer day. Flying Cloud, leader in the Redwood highway Indian marathon, continued to hold his advantage at midday, while positions of those behind changed with rapidity.

Salem opens new fire station, and is building garbage incinerator.

Chiropractic Naturopathy Dr. H. P. Coleman

8th Successful Year in Medford Treatments by Appointment Medford Center Bldg. Phone 965 Electrotherapy Food Science

PHONE 51

Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM PASTEURIZED - SAFE - PURE PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

These Drug Stores are open nights this week: Jarmin & Woods James McNair Pharmacy West Side Pharmacy

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY FOR RENT—Five room house, $12.00, some furniture. Inquire 227 Edwards. 89 FOR RENT—Furnished House 204 So. Grape. 90 FOR SALE—Ford ten truck, $175. Phone 162 Jacksonville. 90*

Obituary

YARBROUGH — Jerome Yarbrough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Baker Yarbrough, passed away at the Sacred Heart hospital June 16th, 1928. Jerome was born in Butte, Montana, October 25th, 1914, and came to Oregon in 1920, with his family making their home on Griffin creek until a year ago when they moved to Medford.

Jerome attended the Medford Junior High school and was very popular among his school-mates. He will be saddened to learn of his death.

Funeral services will be held Monday and are in charge of the Perl Funeral home.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 16.—(AP)—Frank Montico, 43, Walsh station truck gardener, shot and killed himself on the John Taz-zoli ranch today after he wounded

You'll Like Our Sunday Dinner TODAY $1.00 HOTEL MEDFORD

Tazzoli fatally and mutilated the latter's wife and step-daughter with a hatchet. Tazzoli died shortly afterward.

Handicraft Shop

Phone 702 42 South Central Across from Craterian Theatre

Specials for Friday and Saturday

Kiddies' Voile Dresses in dainty colors. Sizes up to 6 years. 1/2 PRICE

Bloomer dresses of English prints and printed lawns; $2.25 values. Friday and Saturday $1.49

All Organdie Bonnets 1/4 OFF

Check with a Checking Account

The bills come in about the first; then remittances are made, but this always should be done by check. That gives you a definite record of payment—no come back to force you to pay those bills over. You'll like the service that goes with our Checking Accounts.

Partners in Community Development

Your Favorite Jeweler Since 1918 Silver Its purchase is made easy by our superb collection that embraces the finest in original designs, exact site workmanship in solid or plated ware. YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918 Larry Schade THE JEWELER NEXT TO CRATERIAN THEATRE

Hags wanted at the Mail Tribune office. Must be clean

NEW MODEL RADIOS ARE HERE!

NOTE NEW LOW PRICES

The new radios for this year are HERE. Seven tubes, completely shielded. Two 171-power tubes connected in push-pull in the power output stage. Dynamic Power Speaker, single dial control—all electric power unit.

Beautiful closed walnut console, complete with tubes, $213.00	Walnut open console. Complete with tubes, $175.50	Walnut set with spinet leg stand, complete with tubes, $137.50
--	--	---

These sets mark a new low price, have the new improvements, and the demand is enormous.

MAJESTIC RADIOS

Exclusively Represented by

Palmer Music House

By Far Medford's Leading Radio Store

Earn 7 Per Cent WITH SAFETY

An investment in Preferred Stock in this association is PROFITABLE—paying regular dividends of 7 percent. It is SAFE, too, backed by 19 years of successful business in Medford and the earnings of over a million dollars.

A Home Institution

The Jackson County Building & Loan Association is a home enterprise, owned and managed by Jackson County people. It is good business to invest in a successful, home institution.

Jackson County Building & Loan Association

The Place to Invest Your Savings

Over 19 Years in Medford—Not One of Our Stockholders Has Lost a Penny

SAVE AND HAVE

SAVE AND HAVE