MRS. HORN, GOLF TITLE HOLDER, IS A GREAT SMOKER

(By BRIAN BELLI, Associated Press Sports Writer.)

KANSAS CITY, June 19.—(AP)—Mrs. Miriam Bruce Horn, national women's golf champion, does not expect to be recoiled. She has no fault to find with the position of title holder, but thinks it's not in the cards for her to repeat. "I fear it's too much to hope to win again," she said. "Of course I will try my best and would be thrilled to hold onto the championship, but the other girls will be trying, too, and I cannot fool myself by thinking my chances are even as good as fair."

"Right now I am thinking more of the trans-Mississippi championship than the national. The trans-Mississippi, to be played at the Minikahda club, Minneapolis, is only a few days away, while the national at Hot Springs, Va., does not call for serious thought for three months yet."

The champion has never played either the Minikahda or the Hot Springs layout. "I know I will like them both," she said, "for I am told they are full of hills. We girls from the west are used to hills."

Mrs. Horn is playing with an impressive bagful of new clubs, a gift from her home club, the Millburn Golf club, when she won the title. "Surely you have not thrown away that little saved-off mid-iron?" a reference to a club that had as much to do with her title-winning performance as any other one agency, brought a quick response.

"No, indeed. I use it all around the green and sometimes on it. It was my first midiron," she said. "When I started playing at 14, it was my favorite club. Ten years later (Mrs. Horn does not mind revealing her age) it is 19 inches shorter than it was then, but it is still my favorite."

Mrs. Horn was asked for her views on smoking and its possible effect, good or bad, on a woman golfer.

"I don't think it has hurt me," she said. "In fact, I find it helps me relax. My smoking, however, has been somewhat overemphasized in the newspapers."

golf course I followed suit. I did not intend to shock anybody when I smoked between holes in the championship, but some of the newspapers made quite a sensation of it. I remember one paper said 'Maureen Orestt (the runner-up in the championship) had to play in clouds of smoke blown from my nostrils. Of course it was never that bad. Another paper said I smoked four packs of cigarettes on one round. Fig- ure that out. Each pack has 29 cigarettes. That would be a total of 86, more than four to a hole. I never had been in the whole- sale tobacco business."

"My caddy worried a lot about my smoking. He was a fine clean high school boy and I told him I hoped my son would grow up as fine as he."

"Once he whispered to me as we went along the course: 'I believe you would do better if you didn't smoke.' He cut out the clippings about my smoking from the New York papers and gave them to me."

CARDINALS STRIKE A SNAG IN REDS

(By the Associated Press.)
After riding roughshod over all opposition for three weeks, the high-g geared advance guard of Bill McKeachpie's pennant-bound St. Louis Cardinals has struck a snag. The Cincinnati Reds, recovering from the slump that cost them first place in the National league's bitter pennant chase, took the Cardinals' measure, 3 to 2, in a thrilling 13-inning battle at Cincinnati yesterday.
Percy Malone, now pitching for Joe McCarthy the fast ball that made him strike-out king of the American association last year, just missed entry at Boston into that select circle of no-hit, no-run hurlers. After a Bunker Hill day double-header, 2 to 1, Malone pitched the Cubs to a one-hit, 12 to 9 shutout over the Braves in the nightcap.
The only other major league game of the day saw Jess Petty and the Brooklyn Dodgers turn back the revived Phillies, 4 to 3.

Vaudeville Bill At Craterian Tomorrow

When acts of a high standard are collected together on one program and set off by the presence of some of vaudeville's best artists, a small and well finished entertainment is the result. The next Association vaudeville bill is a perfect example of such a program. Comedy, dancing, singing and acrobatics make up the stage portion of next Wednesday's show at Hunt's Craterian theater.
Headlining are the Kuhn brothers, a trio of real entertainers, each endowed with extraordinary musical talent. By prefacing the word "White" to their family name, they created a trademark that not only stands for the best in musical entertainment but also gives them the right to be classed as the leading jazz harmony singers and composers of this country. Several novelty instruments are introduced in their offering, instruments of a nature peculiarly their own, and used only by this trio.
"Doubt" is a novel sketch of domestic life to be offered by Bert Kay & Co. The action throughout is swift and sure, and as to be expected with three such capable players composing the company, is handled deftly and to the best advantage for delightfully entertaining an audience.
Slyvester and Wirth, "College Athletes," perform several feats of muscular skill and gymnastic perfection.
George Wilson has no use for women. He tells why in a very funny monologue, and after his speech you will readily understand the reason.
Mimi and Pomme are dancers unique, having attained an enviable position in the field of terpsichore, not only for the originality with which each of their dances is presented, but also for their ability as whirlwind steps.

"Girl From Chicago" Is Hit At Rialto

Melodrama, good old-fashioned honest melodrama, never loses its claim on our imaginations, and in "The Girl From Chicago," starring Myrna Loy, now at the Rialto theater, true melodrama again comes to life. Here is the thrill of the subterranean haunts of a great city, the crooks, the cops, and the upright and the mean, and through it all glitters the brave girl who has come from her sheltered southern home to free her brother from the gang which has caused his sentence to execution.
Fog Delays German Girl
CURTISS FELD, N. Y., June 19.—(AP)—Fog all along the course caused Miss Thea Rasche, German stard filer, to postpone a flight to Old Orchard Beach today. At the Maine beach Miss Rasche will prepare for a trans-Atlantic flight backed by Mrs. James A. Stillman.

Nature, in its wonderful way, has done its part when it produces for Lucky Strikes the best of tobaccos that can be grown; but these tobaccos are vastly improved when toasted. It is not surprising that 20,679 doctors say that Lucky Strikes are less irritating to the throat.
