EXCITING GOLF CONTESTS DUE HERE TOMORROW

It will pay local golf bugs who want to see some exciting matches to go out to the Medford club tomorrow and Sunday, when the semi-finals and finals for the H. C. Egan trophy will be played, for there certainly will be some neck-and-neck "home races."

In the first flight, Earl Tumy, several times runner-up for the club title, is tangling this afternoon with Leonard Carpenter, the 1927 champion, for the right to play the winner of the Tom Emmens-L. P. Wilcox match, to be played tomorrow.

That the handicap committee of the club has done a fine job this year is graphically shown by the close, hard-fought matches in the tournament thus far. In every case the better players have won, but without exception the players with large handicaps have had good fighting chances.

The Emmens-Wilcox match will be youthful brilliance against veteran steadiness, with the result a toss-up. If Tommy Emmens, in spite of his youth and lack of tournament experience, can play the golf against Wilcox he has been playing all week, he should win. Wilcox, however, is one of the coolest golfers in the club, and most dangerous when hard pressed. He shot an 81 yesterday in disposing of R. W. Ruhl, in spite of taking a seven on No. 14 and his ball hanging on the edge of the cup repeatedly to miss birdies.

The Carpenter-Tumy match is even more difficult to dope. Both are shooting around 80, with Tumy having a slight edge, but he has to give a stroke, and Carpenter is regarded as one of the better tournament players in the club.

In the second flight Don Clark tackles Biddle, and Bert Orr a new "dark horse" in Vic Beckman. Clark and Orr should win, but here again the gallery may be furnished a few surprises.

That golf enthusiasm is growing by leaps and bounds is shown by the increased interest in this year's handicap tournament, and a big crowd is expected to follow the finals on Sunday.

OWEN ORE TEAM JOINS S. OREGON BALL LEAGUE

At a meeting held last night by Manager Court Hall of the Medford Merchants and the Owen-Oregon Lumber company, it was decided to accept the Owen-Oregon Lumber company as a member of the Southern Oregon and Northern California Baseball league. The new team will give the league four members again, Klamath having dropped out last week.

A meeting will be held here Sunday to make further arrangements and work out minor details.

The Owen-Oregon team, which has been playing the smaller valley baseball clubs, has not lost a game this season and is made up of a strong lineup. Due to the fact that a considerable number of baseball players are coming through or are in Medford from other cities and town, the lumber team will find but little trouble in strengthening its lineup.

The other three teams of the league will lend whatever assistance possible in order to further baseball interest for the coming season. If the league is successful for the present season it will mean the assurance of having baseball here for a number of years to come.

With the Owen-Oregon in the league, Medford fans will have the opportunity o, seeing a game in Medford every Sunday.

JACK ROLLER READY FOR TERRIBLE TURK

Jack Roller, the big 226-pound German heavyweight wrestler, is continuing to go through heavy workouts for his match next Friday night with Hassan Mohammed "The Terrible Turk," who will probably arrive here during the early part of next week. Several good preliminary bouts have been arranged and the evening's entertainment should be one of the best of the season.

The match has been attracting more than ordinary interest and Matchmaker Jack Wood is planning on an attendance from all parts of southern Oregon and possibly northern California. He spent yesterday circulating posters in all sections of the valley.

LOCAL LEGION TO GIVE GALA DANCE HERE JUNE 26TH

An announcement of unusual interest to dance lovers of southern Oregon was given out by the American Legion headquarters yesterday. The local legionnaires will sponsor a dance in Medford on Tuesday, June 26th, which will feature the Del Norte Beach band which will come thru Medford on that date, on a trip to the north. This dance band which is acknowledged to be an exceptional organization has just completed a very successful season at the southern resort and is now touring through the northern states.

The legionnaires feel that they are exceptionally fortunate in securing this aggregation and hope to make the affair a gala event, and the success that has attended prior Legion dances almost assures a record breaking attendance. Special features and other details will be announced later by the committee in charge.

JIMMY M'LARNIN ON THE TOP AGAIN

NEW YORK, June 21.—(AP)—Smiling Sammy McLarnin, who enthroned himself in the hearts of New York fight fans in his first eastern appearance by a crashing one-round knockout of Sid Terris, Manhattan's own ghost of the Ghetto, has come back to his throne. After a month spent in the shade cast by the terrific drubbing he received at the hands of the lightweight champion, Sammy Mandell, Jimmy made a success of his comeback last night by stopping Phil McGraw after only two minutes and 45 seconds of the first round.

Tackling in McGraw one of the toughest battlers in his class, one whose jaw had never been found vulnerable in over a hundred fights, Jimmy landed three times with his good right mauler, and each time scored a clean knockdown. After the fourth time the Detroit florist went to the canvas, Referee Jack Dorman led McLarnin to a neutral corner in token of a technical knockout.

LOCAL FISHERMEN SECURE SLUICEWAY

Gratifying news to southern Oregon fishermen is the fact that directors of the Grants Pass Irrigation district, in cooperation with the activity of Rogue River Fish Protective commission have provided an open sluiceway on the south side of Savage Rapids dam. This will take care of the migration down streams of small fish which at this time of year are going down in large numbers, T. E. Daniels reported this morning.

The California Oregon Power company at the suggestion of the game commission made the same improvement at the Gold Ray dam two weeks ago and the experiment has been working out successfully.

ONE INDIAN IS STILL RUNNING IN MARATHON

GRANTS PASS, Ore., June 22.—(AP)—With only one Indian still running and not in the money, the Redwood Indian marathon is near its close and six Indians are richer by $10,000, the amount of the prizes for which 30 redskin runners started from San Francisco at 10:20 a. m. June 14.

As far as the runners are concerned the marathon is over. It is unlikely that Requa Silver Wings, the seventh man and the only one still running will finish, as he was still more than 22 miles out at 8:30 this morning.

Melika, the colorful old Zuni, came in second at 6:57 last night, eight hours and 27 minutes later than Flying Cloud, winner of the event. Melika was pounding along steadily and spurted the last few blocks through the crowds that gave the old man a real ovation.

Chief Ukiah finished at 12:07 this morning. There was still quite a crowd on hand when Dan Cumahungnioma, the only Hopi to finish, came in at 1:29. He was followed closely by Red Robin, Navajo, who had gained miles on him during the last few hours of the race.

Seymour Smith, Digger, came into this morning at 5:05, with only the night watchman to greet him.

U. OF O. STAR HERE FOR DOUBLE-HEADER; A BIG CROWD IS EXPECTED

Ken Robie, University of Oregon baseball star, whose coming was long awaited by local fans and management, arrived yesterday, and practiced with the team. Robie will play shortstop in the double-header Sunday with the Weed and Dunsmuir teams. Mahoney, who has been doing a good job of shortstopping, will probably be shunted to second base and Shangle kept as utility infielder.

Cliff Best will pitch the morning game, which starts at 10:30 o'clock, against Dunsmuir. Manager Hall is thinking some of giving young Jack Hughes a chance against Weed in the afternoon game, which is scheduled to start at 2:45 o'clock. It may be that Henion will show up, and if he does, and does not want too much coin, he will go against Weed. Hughes, in spite of his inexperience, has been effective against the Weed batters.

The Sunday games promise to attract the largest crowd of the season, including many fans from Yreka, Weed and Dunsmuir and valley points.

TILDEN, HUNTER BEAT PARIS ACES

LONDON, June 22.—(AP)—Biz Bill Tilden and Frank Hunter won their way into the final round of the London tennis championships at the Queens club today.

In the doubles, Tilden and Hunter defeated Henri Cochet and René LaCoste, the brilliant French players, 6-1, 6-4.

MUTINY AT SEA WELL IN HAND

COLOMBO, Ceylon, June 22.—(AP)—The situation aboard the Australian commonwealth liner Jevis Bay, which mutineers threatened to fire, was reported well in hand today in advices by wireless from the vessel.

The wireless station here was in communication with the ship throughout the night.

The mutinous stowaways were imprisoned under the hatches.

It was announced in the legislative council that the oiler Slavol, which sailed yesterday with a party of British marines, hoped to meet the Jevis Bay tomorrow afternoon, and that the British cruiser Suffolk, which is 800 miles east of Colombo en route to China, has been ordered to turn south to render any assistance necessary.
