FIRST ROLL CALL SMITH VICTORY

HOUSTON, Tex., June 25.—(AP)—On its first roll call vote, the democratic national committee today voted, 78 to 14, to place on the temporary roll of the national convention six Smith pledged delegates from the Canal Zone, headed by Mrs. L. O. Keen, the national committeewoman from that district.

In so doing it turned down a slate of unpledged delegates headed by National Committeeman Frank T. Hahn, who was generally considered for Ford for president.

The committee decided that the Keen delegation had been legally chosen.

The committee also placed on the temporary roll six Smith pledged delegates from the District of Columbia, headed by National Committeeman Costello, as well as three Philadelphia delegates who were elected on the regular Pennsylvania convention ticket.

LOVE TRIANGLE AT SPOKANE RESULTS IN HOTEL AFFRAY

SPOKANE, June 25.—(AP)—Mark Heacock, about 48, jeweler, is dead and Harry Mosler, 35, an attorney, is in a serious condition at a local hospital and Mrs. Heacock is being held by the police as the result of a shooting by Heacock in the Holiday hotel last night. All came from Tekoa.

Mosler came here Friday and obtained room No. 606. Mrs. Heacock came Thursday and got room 619. Mr. Heacock came at 9:45 p. m. accompanied by a young woman supposed to be his daughter. He got the numbers of the rooms occupied by his wife and Mosler. The young woman left abruptly after being present a few minutes. While responding to a call, Clyde Lewis, a bellboy heard Heacock say: "This has gone too far." Lewis was about to enter the room with ice water in response to the call when he heard four shots.

Mrs. Heacock told the police she had come to Spokane to get a divorce. Only one revolver was found. Heacock, the evidence disclosed, put two bullets into Mosler and two into himself.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON GIVEN IDAHO'S JUNIOR SEAT OF HONOR SENATOR, DIES

Widow of Late President Is Honored at Dedication of Convention Hall and Is First to Sign Register—Mrs. Al Smith Arrives. After Long Illness Borah's Teammate Succumbs in Little Town That Bears His Name—Attack of Influenza Proves Fatal.

By MARTHA DALRYMPLE, Associated Press Staff Writer. HOUSTON, Texas, June 25.—Plans for the inevitable social events attendant upon the arrival of many distinguished feminine guests for the democratic national convention superseded the more businesslike political discussions today in women's circles.

Battle lines have been pretty well laid by early male arrivals, and the women feel they can now devote themselves partially to the entertainment devices that must of necessity fall upon their shoulders.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who arrived in Houston yesterday just in time to be the guest of honor at the dedication ceremonies in the new convention hall and to be the first to sign the register at the hospitality house, will be given breakfast tomorrow morning by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. A. R. Foster of the local chapter is in charge of the arrangements, while Mrs. Court Norton of the Colonial Dames will present the late president's widow with a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, whose arrival at noon today was awaited eagerly by both supporters of her husband's candidacy and those opposed to him, will accept only one of the many invitations extended her, and that also will be a breakfast affair, tendered by the local committee on entertainment, under the direction of Mrs. J. O. Ross of Houston.

Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, national committeewoman from Missouri and outgoing vice chairman of the national committee, will be guest of honor with Mrs. Wilson at a breakfast Wednesday given by the National Democratic Women's club, of which she is president.

Miss Mabel Vernon, executive secretary, announced that Miss Mary Murray, a subway ticket seller in New York, would arrive today to lead the fight of the women's party to have the women's constitutional amendment plank inserted in the democratic national platform.

An early convention arrival was Mrs. Belle Sherwin, president of the League of Women Voters. She already has begun to muster her forces to obtain the slot for a committee in the interest of the five-point plank the league advocates.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—(AP)—Robert W. and an attack of influenza suffered last December while directing the investigations of a senate sub-committee in eastern coal fields had hastened the end. He underwent an operation at the Mayo hospital in Rochester June 4 and was brought to the home here of his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Schubert, last Tuesday.

SMITH LOOMS LARGE

Smith so far as the initial roll call was concerned but on the other hand were so anxious to let every Maryland to vote first for Ritchie instead of Smith in order to delay the decision.

Oklahoma, announcing late this afternoon found herself in a key position. Her delegation of twenty was unpledged and came out of a state convention jointly controlled by Smith and Reed partisans. Should these twenty turn to Smith, it admittedly would mean the definite collapse of the attempt to build up a bloc against him.

A HOT SCRAMBLE FOR V. PRESIDENT SEEMS CERTAIN COMMODITY SALES ARE VERY QUIET PORTLAND MARTS

By W. B. Ragsdale, Associated Press Staff Writer. HOUSTON, Texas, June 25.—

With a score of names still on the list of vice-presidential possibilities, the spotlight turned today toward Indiana, a perennial battleground of politics, as out of the silence pervading the quarters of party leaders came the impression that Evans Wollen, Indianapolis banker, stood well up among those looked upon with favor as a running mate for the democratic standard bearer.

There was little decrease in the chatter coupling the names of Robinson of Arkansas, Hull of Tennessee and various others with the vice-presidential nomination, but the opinion spread that the Indiana man might have a margin which would prove hard to overcome when conversation is converted into votes on the convention floor.

Wollen is pointed to as a man who would strengthen the possibilities of the democrats in Indiana and one who might aid them in carrying their battle into the farm belt.

Friends of Governor Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming have declared they intend to put her in nomination for the vice presidency and placards proclaiming her candidacy have appeared on the streets.

Mrs. Ross, however, has declined to discuss it.

Others whose names still figure in the list of vice-presidential possibilities include Jesse H. Jones, Houston banker and publisher, Governor Moody of Texas, Senator Harrison of Mississippi, Senator Barkley of Kentucky, Governor Ritchie of Maryland, Bennett Clark of Missouri, a son of the late Speaker Champ Clark of the house of representatives, Governor Byrd of Virginia, Lewis Stevenson of Bloomington, Ill., Senator Georgia of Georgia, former Governor Bradford of Alabama and George L. Berry of Tennessee, president of the Pressmen's union.
