

Local and Personal

The recently traveled King street is now open to travel, and preliminary preparations have about been completed for the laying of the paving on Bartlett street, which thoroughfare has been closed to traffic between Maple and Jackson streets until the paving work has been completed. The laying of the paving will be started Friday.

Edison Marshall, author, who is visiting here, will sail July 16 from Seattle, Wash., on a trip through Arctic waters.

Fresh picked frasers every day, 30c per lb. Johnson's Market. 971*

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Degan of Marysville, Kans., Mrs. B. K. Reiser, James McGuire and N. S. Reiser of Philadelphia, A. T. Fraser of New York City and Amos E. Hanley of Omaha.

Bring the whole family to see "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose" at the M. E. church Thursday, June 28 at 8 o'clock. Everybody'll have a good time. Admission 25c and 50c. 971*

The regular session of the county court was held today, routine matters and approval of bills being the chief business.

Dance Wed. night, Hilarity Hall, Dyage Bros. 971*

A news item of interest to Medford and Jacksonville people is the following published in the "Thirty Years Ago" column in the Ashland Tidings on Monday: "The Misses Alice and Jessie Applegate of Klamath Falls were in Ashland during the week, returning to their home from the Willamette valley. Miss Alice has been teaching in the public schools of Monmouth, Polk county, and Miss Jessie has been in attendance at the Normal school in the same place."

Flags, sparklers and other celebration goods at the Oriental Art and Variety Store. 103*

Three mandates were received this week from the state supreme court, on suits against creditors of the Pine Belt Bank of Butte Falls, the actions being referred to the lower court, for further legal action.

Would you give one dollar now for two in 1929? If so, you will buy Pitt View or Olson Acres. Pacific highway frontage, 5 minutes to Medford. Finest deep soil. One acre up. Priced very reasonable. Let us show you. Williams & Warnock. Phone 1263. 951*

"Sunny Jim" Wintford, a resident of the Masonic home at Forest Grove, who has passed his 100th birthday, states that he expects to vote for Hoover for president. He twice voted for Abraham Lincoln.

Buy your tickets now for "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose" at the M. E. church, Thursday, June 28 at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c and 50c. 971*

Federal inspectors visited local drug stores the first of the week, checking up on the supply of pure alcohol, which is used in prescriptions.

Fresh picked frasers every day, 30c per lb. Johnson's Market. 971*

Wednesday, July 18, has been set as the date for a hearing on the vacation of a Southern Pacific railroad crossing near Fredericks, in the Siskiyou. The crossing has fallen into disuse owing to the building of two other crossings in that section.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 891*

The annual state Methodist camp meeting will be held in Cottage Grove July 18 to 29. The tabernacle and camp grounds are being put in order. June 24 was set aside for Methodist camp meeting day when the pastor of every Methodist church in the state announced dates for the camp meeting and urged members to attend.

Don't forget to come to "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose" at the M. E. church, Thursday, June 28, at 8 o'clock! Admission 25c and 50c. 971*

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wolff of Ashland, well known in this city, have returned from a ten days auto trip to Yosemite park and San Francisco.

Among California guests registered at local hotels are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. White of Ventura, Mr. Lillian Fletcher of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Flynn of Merced, Mr. and Mrs. Broadwood, A. S. Broadwood, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fisher of Palo Alto, Mr. and Mrs. Carvel Clark of Modesto, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Noya of Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. O. Elmont of Piedmont, Misses H. Coulter and J. F. Thompson of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stakeover and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kramer of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Retzer, Jr., and A. R. Baldwin of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hecker, Mrs. Theo. Getz, Mrs. A. L. Ross, Miss E. Ketchell of San Francisco.

Anyone motoring to eastern Washington, near Walla Walla or Colfax, in the next week or 10 days, who wants a passenger for company, please communicate with Mr. Jackson at 410 East Main. 98

All Portland Masons have been invited to register for a good-will expedition to Klamath Falls and Crater Lake, leaving Friday, June 29, at 9 p. m., by special train. The trip is being sponsored by Sunnyside Masonic lodge No. 162. The special train, carrying between 150 and 200 Masons and their wives, will arrive early Saturday at Klamath Falls, where the expedition will embark by auto for Crater Lake. Upon returning from the lake the Portlanders will be joined by approximately 500 local Masons at Klamath Falls and a barbecue will be held in the late afternoon.

Free band concert in Ashland park, followed by big dance Thursday night. 98*

The case of Wychoff against Mayfield, an action for the recovery of money alleged to be due on a gravel contract, will be called in the circuit court tomorrow before Judge C. M. Thomas. It is a jury case, and the venue has been ordered to report for duty.

Canning special, 20 lb. bags fancy Bing cherries, per lug $1.95. About 1000 lbs. large apricots, per lb. 6c; crop about over. Johnson's Market. 951*

Hay balers have started operations in the valley. Only a small proportion of the local hay crop is baled, however.

Dance in Ashland park Thursday night. Cool and breezy. 98*

Included among the Oregonians registered at Medford hotels are E. G. Sanden of Salem, E. W. Owen of Albany, H. Anderson, E. L. Heydenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Ed Harnay of Eugene, and A. H. Ferguson of Roseburg.

Dance Wed. night, Hilarity Hall, Dyage Bros. 971*

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club will meet at the Flusher cabin at Edgewood park Thursday evening for their regular June meeting. Plans for the program are in charge of Mrs. Clarabel Elliott and Mrs. Jacque Lenox. Coffee, ice cream and cream will be furnished by the committee and the ladies are requested to bring basket lunch.

Why wear an old hat on July 4th when you can buy a new hat for half price at Miss Taylor's, 42 So. Central. 103*

A group of Medford music devotees met last night for dinner at Franklin's, following which they held a short meeting at Palmer's Music House. This was the first of a series, according to a program mailed out at a recent convention of music dealers of the United States held in New York City. It is estimated, according to information sent out from the convention headquarters, that there are 845,000 students of piano in the United States. Among the topics discussed at the meeting was the importance of keeping pianos in tune. Approximately three out of five pianos in homes today are out of tune, the Gallarman Music company maintains.

Mrs. C. C. VanSeoy's homemade cakes and pies, Phone 629-J. 102

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pederson and daughter Ingrid of Yreka, Calif., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pellett for a week.

A special type of tree props at Big Pines Lbr. Co. 781*

A visitor here from Hoquiam, Wash., is L. C. McKeever, who will spend several weeks with friends and relatives in the Rogue River valley.

Regular $2.50 values for $1.95 during Mann's great semi-annual silk sale beginning tomorrow. 96*

After a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sawyer, departing for their home in Los Angeles, Mrs. Engle and son Frank for their home in Los Angeles.

Dance Wed. night, Hilarity Hall, Dyage Bros. 971*

Following a visit of several days with friends and relatives in the Eagle Point vicinity, Mrs. C. E. Webster and son Carl left for their home at Fort Rock yesterday.

Dressmaking and remodeling, Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. 81*

Fifty-two out of the state cars registered here yesterday with the local state auto traffic bureau.

Company A, the local unit of the National Guard is expected home by special train early tomorrow forenoon from its 15 days' attendance at the state encampment at Camp Clatsop.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 891*

Richard Calder, whose 15 days' vacation started last Monday, and family have gone to Crescent City where the most of that vacation will be spent.

Mrs. C. C. VanSeoy's homemade cakes and pies, Phone 629-J. 102

To visit several weeks her sons, Howard and George Steiner, who are living in Reno, Nev., Mrs. D. Steiner left last night for that city.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pines Lbr. Co. 781*

Guests from Portland registered at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Zell, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Smith, Glenn D. Hart, H. J. Dean, W. M. Duggan and C. M. Peterson. Gladiol blooms 25c per doz. Shady Nook Grocery, North Central at Clark St. 102

Following a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hathe for a few days, Mrs. A. D. Hulbert has returned to their home in Roseburg.

Dance Wed. night, Hilarity Hall, Dyage Bros. 971*

Among today's large picnics, with accompanying dances, is the one of the Shriners this afternoon and evening at the Elks' picnic grounds and that of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at Jackson Hot Springs, which begins at 5:30 p. m.

Free band concert in Ashland park, followed by big dance Thursday night. 98*

According to word from Portland, where she is confined in a hospital for treatment, Miss Mollie Britt, well known Jacksonville woman and sister of Emil Belt, shows improvement and is convalescing slowly but surely.

For sale, half price, beautiful black silk crepe dress, new, extra large. Just from New York. Call 964-L.

The part cloudiness of yesterday brought a drop in temperature to a 73 maximum. Today was cloudy and the forecast is for partly cloudy weather and moderate temperature for tonight and Thursday.

Gordon Kershaw is still confined to his bed from an attack of influenza which he has been suffering for the past three weeks, but his condition is now steadily improving.

For a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goffis here, Mrs. Rosa Paris and children of Oakland arrived in the city yesterday.

Denton Clark, son of W. I. Spatz, has been ill with meningitis the past three weeks, but is now getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woolworth of Woodland, Cal., visited here yesterday at the home of C. T. Noy, after spending several days at Crater lake. They drove to Portland today. The Woolworths are former Medford residents, both having played in the orchestra of the old Star theater at one time.

Justin Elfert of San Francisco arrived here today to spend several days with his sisters, Mrs. Frank Isaacs and Mrs. J. J. Buchter. Mr. Elfert is convalescing after a serious operation at the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco. He is a railroad engineer.

Out-of-town shoppers here yesterday included Mrs. Dean Stacey and Mrs. Pete Barneburg of Phoenix and Mr. and Mrs. Linton Darrow of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Selgman and two children of Portland are guests at the home of their son, Joseph Selgman, for a few days. From here they expect to drive to Diamond and Crater lakes for a short vacation.

Expecting to spend several weeks visiting relatives, G. W. Millan left for Eugene Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Chesnut and two girls of Burlingame, Cal., stopped here yesterday for a short visit at the home of Eric Wold before going on to Portland. This is the first time that the Chesnuts had been in Medford and they were so pleased with the place that they expect to stop here before returning to California.

After an extended visit in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wood arrived in Medford yesterday afternoon.

Word has been received that Mrs. Anna Miksche and daughter Mercia, who have been visiting in central California, will return to their home about July 15 after spending some time in Los Angeles.

Miss Mildred Dugan, Miss Kathryn Coyle and Leo Maher arrived here Tuesday after spending several days in Portland. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Maher, a grade school teacher from Yakima, Wash., who will be the guest of Miss Coyle for a month.

Mrs. Wesley Smith and son Paul of the Elum, Wash., stopped here yesterday to visit at the home of Dr. P. G. Carlow, on their way to Los Angeles. The Smiths formerly lived in Medford, where Mr. Smith, now deceased, was an American Sunday school missionary for several years.

Among the California tourists who registered here this morning were N. E. Ewers of Fresno, associated with the Fresno Bulletin, a newspaper, and his brother, J. L. Ewers, pressman with the San Francisco Bulletin. They were on their way to Portland and Seattle for their summer vacation. It had been 20 years since the two men had been in Medford.

Leslie Heer, son of Mrs. Bertha Heer of this city, is suffering with a broken foot, which he sustained a few days ago when he was rolled over by the injured member, crushing two bones. Mr. Heer is employed by the California Oregon Power company at Butte Falls. —Ashland Tidings.

Betty Lou Wolff, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wolff, who has been ill with infantile paralysis, is reported past the danger point by the doctor.

Obituary

KINNEY—Funeral services were held at the Conger chapel this afternoon for two F. Kinney, who passed away at Dunsen, Cal. Mrs. Kinney was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wolter, who formerly resided here but for a number of years have resided at Dunsen. Besides her parents, she leaves her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Demmer, and an uncle, Ernest Wolter of Medford. Another aunt resides at Prospect. The body was brought to Medford yesterday by the husband and parents.

PELLER—Mrs. James C. Peller passed away at the home of her sister, Emma Welden, 424 Kluz street, June 25, at the age of 84 years. She had been a resident of this city for a number of years. She leaves three sisters, Mrs. Whelden of Medford, Mrs. Jessie Sherman of Superior, Wis., and Mrs. O. W. Newton, Oakville, Wash., and two daughters, Mrs. Annie Snow of Mount Vernon, Wash., and Susie Campbell of Medford. The remains are at the Conger funeral parlors and arrangements will be announced when completed.

VINCENT—John W. Vincent passed away June 27 after a lingering illness of several months. He was 60 years of age and leaves a wife and two children.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—Young girl wishes position as stenographer. Export 1501st, Box 24, Tribune. 101

WANTED—To buy in Medford, a good business or property and business. Address Box 144, 500 quille, Ore. 101

FOR RENT—Garage, $2.00 per month. 425 South Riverside Ave. 101

FOR SALE—Pedigreed Chinchilla rabbits, all ages, cheap. 634-L. 95

WANTED—Position as housekeeper or taking care of elderly people or children by the day. Phone 624-L. 99

WANTED—Good dairy cows, fresh or coming fresh soon. Call 59 Dr. Gibson. 99

Radio Program KMED

Mail Tribune-Virgin Station

Thursday, June 28

Forenoon

10 to 11—Economy Grocery.

11 to 11:30—Bin's Meat Market.

11:30 to 12—Jarmine and Woods Drugs.

12 to 12:30—Stewart's Outfitting.

Afternoon

12:30 to 1—Music Box.

1 to 1:30—Sinclair's Dollar Store.

DEMOCRATS URGE NORTON TO RUN

At a meeting of the democratic central committee last night, precinct committeemen were named for every precinct in the county, and a resolution was adopted urging that H. D. Norton of Grants Pass, candidate for circuit court judge, stay in the race. At the next meeting of the committee, a candidate will be selected to fill the place of Hiram Meador for county clerk, who withdrew after the primary nomination.

AM. LEGION HEADS COMING ON FRIDAY

All members of the Legion convention commission should be present at tonight's meeting which will be an important session. Final plans for the big state convention will be discussed in preparation for a conference of the committee, officials the latter part of the week. State Commander George Loy's and State Adjutant Carl Moser, together with Major Bealey, are expected to arrive here Friday to confer with local Legion officials.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Medford Pharmacy Heath's Drug Store Strang's Drug Store

Legion Dance Enjoyable

The American Legion dance at the Oriental Gardens last night proved a popular affair. The outstanding feature of the party was provided by the Del Monte Beach dance band of California. This clever aggregation dispensed a new brand of modern dance music and entertainment that kept the crowd calling for encores all evening. The three-hour program was broadcast over station KMED, through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company, and was greatly enjoyed by local radio fans.

Notice

The Royal Neighbors and Mistletoe club picnic is called off for the present.

Matta Commandery, Knights Templar

Special Conclave, Masonic Hall, Ashland, Thursday evening, June 28. Official visit of Grand Commander Inman, of Portland; also Temple degree. Open long form with drill. Dinner at 6:45. Final meeting preliminary to summer vacation. All Sir Knights courteously invited. R. E. DETTRICK, R. C. W. H. DAY, Recorder. 97

Frank's Comedians

The Big Tent

Tuesday, Wednesday Thursday

The Riot of Comedy "Fair and Warmer"

Fourth and Fir

Prices, 25c and 50c

Vaudeville — Orchestra Comedy

HUNT'S CRATERIAN TONIGHT 7 and 9 P. M. FEATURING THE ROYAL VENETIAN FIVE in a MUSICAL MELANGE JOHN and WINNIE HENNINGS THE KILL KARE KOUPLE SNOW and SIGWORTH in GOBS OF GLEE VALENTINE and BELL THE FURNITURE REMOVERS RALPH SEABURY in SMILES and SKETCHES Also FEATURE PICTURE 3 DAYS ONLY TOMORROW STARTS EMIL JANNINGS in 'THE LAST COMMAND' EVENING ONLY 7 & 9 P. M. Admission Children 25c Adults 50c

FOR YOUR WINTER FIRE Green Pine Slab Wood 12-inch or 16-inch $2.75 Per Load 2 Loads $5.00 MEDFORD FUEL CO. 1118 North Central Reichstein Tel. 631 Deuel

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING GETS RESULTS

LEE Conshohocken Tires Cost No More to Buy—Much Less to Run LEELAND HEAVY DUTY DE LUXE 29x4.40 $ 6.85 29x4.40 $10.90 29x4.75 8.50 30x4.50 12.10 30x5.00 9.70 29x4.75 12.95 31x5.00 10.10 30x4.75 13.35 30x5.25 10.85 30x5.00 13.70 31x5.25 11.25 31x5.25 16.25 32x6.00 14.15 32x6.00 18.70 33x6.00 14.40 33x6.00 19.00 LEELAND HEAVY DUTY DE LUXE 30x3 1/2 Fleet $ 5.45 30x3 1/2 Cl. O. S. 6.25 31x4 8.55 31x4 S. S. 6-ply 14.05 32x4 10.20 32x4 S. S. 6-ply 14.45 33x4 10.60 33x4 S. S. 6-ply 15.15 Phipps Auto Park Highway at Jackson Street Phone 1037-R

Business Is Good and there is only one reason. Flubrer's Milk Bread is the finest product of its kind sold in this section of the coast.

Bawled out by the Cop THAT'S one of many embarrassments that slipping brakes can let you in for, and that RUSCO Brake Lining will keep you out of. If your brakes are slipping, have them relined today with the wonderful halt power of RUSCO. Holds as well in wet weather as in dry. RUSCO BRAKE LINING Distributors: Springer-Ott Company Portland, Oregon Russo's 5c. vice at Mack's Garage 129 North Riverside

