

Local and Personal

Dr. M. C. McCapes of the veterinary department of the Oregon Agricultural college arrived here yesterday to spend some time in testing the dairy herds of the county for contagious disease, and spent today with County Agent H. G. Fowler at that errand in the Ashland vicinity. The herds in the various other parts of the county will be tested as fast as possible.

Fresh picked fryers every day, 25c per lb. Johnson's Market, 25th.

Earl York celebrated his 25th birthday yesterday by performing his usual duties at the postoffice, the staff of which, in honor of his annual day, presented him with two without automobile tires.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night, 199

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include M. A. Smith of Chicago, Thos. S. Murray of Ashland, Miss. M. N. Larson of Kenosha, Wis., Harry Inlander of New York City.

Bring the whole family to see "Mammy's L'il Wild Rose" at the M. E. church Thursday, June 28 at 8 o'clock. Everybody'll have a good time. Admission 25c and 50c.

Jack Houston, the well known golf expert, is spending today at the Crater Pass golf links, giving golf lessons.

Have your eyes cared for now by our deferred payment plan. Scientific eye examination—comfortable glasses. Dr. D. A. Chambers, Southern Oregon Optical Co., 317 Medford Bldg. Phone 188. 98c

Following several days of cloudy and partly cloudy weather, including today, fair weather is forecast for tonight and Friday, along with a rising temperature. Yesterday's maximum was 79.

Plans, sparklers and other celebration goods at the Oriental Art and Variety Store, 193c

The Medford and other valley members will attend the special convocation of Malta Commandery, Knights Templar, at Ashland tonight, the occasion being the official visit of Grand Commander Herman of Portland, with dinner at 6:45 o'clock.

Would you give one dollar now for two in 1937? If so, you will buy Pitt View or Olson Acres, Pacific highway frontage, 5 minutes to Medford. Finest deep free soil. One acre up. Priced very reasonable. Let us show you. Williams & Warnock, Phone 1262. 25c

The 40 young men of Company A, National Guard, which arrived this noon on a special military train from Camp Clatsop, were told this afternoon to doff their uniforms, which they had worn the past 15 days, don their citizens' garb and enjoy home cooked food again.

Dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night, 199

Fifty-three out of the state cars registered here yesterday with the local state auto traffic bureau.

Buy your tickets now for "Mammy's L'il Wild Rose," Recreation hall, M. E. church, Thursday, June 28 at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c and 50c.

Because Joseph Siegman of Medford was in too big a hurry to get to the Eagle Point dance the other evening, he was arrested by State Traffic Officers Nichols and Moore, who charged that while in the city he drove his car at 40 miles an hour, which speed he increased to 51 miles per hour on reaching the Crater Lake highway outside of the city. He was fined $20 for speeding in Judge Taylor's court today.

Fresh picked fryers every day, 25c per lb. Johnson's Market, 25th.

Paul Lay of Medford, a member in the school of journalism at the University of Oregon, is now a reporter on the Eugene Morning Register. He has the day Spring-field heat and the night city beat.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co., Phone 629. 89c

The California Oregon Power company's new 400,000-gallon storage tank in north Klamath Falls was filled for the first time last Monday. The tank had been under construction for the past month and a half.

Swim in drinking water. Merwick's chlorinated pool, 89c

Miss Mattie Tomlinson of Butte, Mont., is here to remain for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Malholm of the Butte Falls district.

In planning your 4th of July outing do not overlook Fluhrer's complete bakery service. It will save you considerable time and worry in preparing the food and lunches.

Among the Californians registered at Medford hotels are Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Johnson of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bea-gram of Piedmont, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lomboyer of Hollywood, H. C. Herold of Sacramento, L. G. Blackwell of Alameda, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Butler of Oakland, Lieut. and Mrs. Geo. E. Henry of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Edwards on don, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sar-gent and J. R. Mackay of San Francisco.

Kincaid's dance, Eagle Point Sat. 199

Miss Mae Mordoff has arrived home from Detroit, Mich., where she spent the past year teaching and will spend the summer months here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Mordoff. — Klamath News.

Walker's dance will be at Hilli-ty Hall again Sat. night, 199

The Hotel Holland Coffee shop presented an unusually inviting appearance yesterday to its many patrons, after having been closed for the past ten days, following repairs on fire damage and redecoration.

Miss Taylor's annual clearance sale starts Thursday morning, June 28th. Save 1-3 to 1/2 on all new millinery, 42 So. Central, 193c

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevenson of Jacksonville arrived in Grants Pass Tuesday, having been called to the bedside of Mrs. Stevenson's grandmother, Mrs. L. P. Chandler, who passed away Tuesday night. They will remain in that city for the funeral.

Anyone motoring to eastern Washington, near Walla Walla or Colfax, in the next week or 10 days, who wants a passenger for company, please communicate with Mr. Jackson at 418 East Main. 98

Following a dispute in a local restaurant Tuesday night, James Pledger, invited Dale Franklin into a nearby alley to "have it out." Dale complied, and as a result of the alley scrap both were arrested and fined $10 in the city court yesterday. Judge Taylor held that each was equally to blame.

Kincaid's dance, Eagle Point Sat. 199

The Newport city council has raised the ban on the sale of fire-crackers and will permit the shooting of the same in the city limits July 4.

Community Club dance, Lake Creek, Sat. night, Everybody invited, 199

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Yammans were among the Medford people registered at Klamath Falls hotels on Tuesday.

Dance in Ashland park Thursday night. Cool and nice, 98c

Royd McClung of Medford and Miss Ada Yarbrough of Chiloquin were united in marriage a few days ago at Chiloquin.

Why wear an old hat on July 4th when you can buy a new hat for half price at Miss Taylor's, 42 So. Central. 193c

Paul C. Morton, representative of the Allegator Clothing company of St. Louis, came here this morning on business from Portland.

Mrs. C. C. VanSoyoc's homemade cakes and pies, Phone 623-J. 102

Marriage licenses issued by the county clerk yesterday included one to Anthony Tobin and Sarah E. Coggins, both of Medford, and Emma Marie Earle and Jack F. Whitworth, both of Oakland, Calif.

Seats for Caroline Andrews' concert at the Presbyterian church tomorrow night (Friday) may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce, Palmer's Music House, Medford Pharmacy and West Side Pharmacy. 88c

A T. Craig of Seattle is among the visitors in Medford from the state of Washington.

A special type of tree props at Big Pine Lbr. Co. 78c

When a spotlighter was surprised yesterday evening while engaged in night hunting at the Dixon farm, he was arrested by State Traffic Officers Nichols and Moore, who charged that while in the city he drove his car at 40 miles an hour, which speed he increased to 51 miles per hour on reaching the Crater Lake highway outside of the city. He was fined $20 for speeding in Judge Taylor's court today.

Fresh picked fryers every day, 25c per lb. Johnson's Market, 25th.

Paul Lay of Medford, a member in the school of journalism at the University of Oregon, is now a reporter on the Eugene Morning Register. He has the day Spring-field heat and the night city beat.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co., Phone 629. 89c

The California Oregon Power company's new 400,000-gallon storage tank in north Klamath Falls was filled for the first time last Monday. The tank had been under construction for the past month and a half.

Swim in drinking water. Merwick's chlorinated pool, 89c

Miss Mattie Tomlinson of Butte, Mont., is here to remain for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Malholm of the Butte Falls district.

Carl Moser and George Love will arrive here tomorrow from Portland to attend a special meeting of the Medford American Legion convention commission to be held at the army Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Notice to Public: Don't injure yourself by losing checks that are returned N. S. F. All parties retaining such checks report to the Southern Oregon Credit Bureau, 115 No. Central. 88c

Relics of early days in the Rogue River valley, including a whip used by John Tice, driver of the first pack team between Jacksonville and Crescent City in the '60s, and a picture of a stage coach drawn by six horses and driven by Fred Tice, the son, who made the route between Grants Pass and Graves creek, are exhibited in the Chamber of Commerce window. The picture also brought in a pair of antique hobbles and a rough lock. Drying muddy weather these locks were used on the wheels.

Community Club dance, Lake Creek, Sat. night, Everybody invited, 199

Mrs. J. Quamicham of Yreka, Calif., is spending the week at the home of Mrs. Amy Putnam.

Dance, Wed. night, Hilliarty Hall, Dyras Bros. 98c

Among the business visitors in Klamath Falls so far this week have been D. T. Lawton, George D. Knox, L. E. Newman, Louis H. Vale, R. G. Mevig, K. M. Friend and Harvey Olsen.

Dance, Riverside Community Club, Sat. night, Broadway Orchestra, 199

To spend a few days at Crescent City, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Cash Woods departed from Medford yesterday.

Eat barbecue sandwiches and live forever. Mac's Barbecue 1 1/2 miles north of Medford on highway. 98c

Earl Page of Berkeley, Calif., stopped in Medford last evening on his way to Tillamook for a visit with his father. Several years ago Mr. and Mrs. Page lived in Medford. Page passed away May 16 this year.

Among the first to arrive here for the Oregon Editorial association convention was A. K. Bowen, representative of the Mergenthaler Linotype company of Portland, who came last night.

Walker's dance will be at Hilli-ty Hall again Sat. night, 199

Dick Reed, former University of Oregon football hero and captain of the team, spent yesterday in Medford where he collected equipment for his restaurant business recently established at Klamath Falls.

Regular dance, Eagle Point, Sat. 199

Out of town shoppers here yesterday included Mrs. Henry Gal-lon, Dr. H. Forbes and Mrs. Hesse, both of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Clemin, Mr. and Mrs. J. McAvoy, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill of Hill, Calif.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co., Phone 629. 89c

There is a cherry tree in Medford which bears pale yellow fruit. A. N. Clancy, 1401 Euclid avenue, brought a limb of the tree to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday when it was placed in the window. So far as is known, it is the five-year-old tree in the Clancy yard is the only Stark Golden variety in the valley. The cherries are rather sour but are said to be excellent for pies.

Community Club dance, Lake Creek, Sat. night, Everybody invited, 199

Ralph Greyer, Frances Bieder and Orval Sanders of Eugene arrived in Medford Wednesday afternoon expecting to spend a month here. All of the boys are salesmen.

Mrs. C. C. VanSoyoc's homemade cakes and pies, Phone 623-J. 102

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Prontes and family expect to leave Friday morning for a week's visit with relatives in Washington.

Dance, Riverside Community Club, Sat. night, Broadway Orchestra, 199

A Butte, Mont., visitor in Medford this week is Mrs. Clara Morrison, who is a guest at the home of Mrs. M. E. Conley.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pine Lbr. Co. 78c

Over seven feet high grows the alfalfa on P. E. Sumner's farm located near Medford on route No. 1. A sample plant of the strain alfalfa is exhibited at the Chamber of Commerce in the window along with a potato vine four and a half feet high, also grown by Mr. Sumner.

Gladish blooms 22c per doz. Shady Nook Grocery, North Central at Clark St. 102

In an editorial paragraph today, the Oregonian notes: "Oregon editors will hold a golf tournament in Medford Friday. Our state journalism has traveled far since the days when cordwood and notations were received for subscriptions."

Try Peagle's permanent wave. Like nature's own. Emma Cline Shop, Liberty Bldg. 84c

Arguments were heard by Judge Thomas in the circuit court this morning for the appointment of a receiver to the Federal Mining company, this plea being a side issue of the suit of George Margrifer against the mining concern. The appointment of a receiver was opposed. Judge W. E. Crews for the mining concern, arguing it would cause needless inconvenience, and that the affairs of the company would be adjusted speedily by Kelly and Desonka.

Dance, Riverside Community Club, Sat. night, Broadway Orchestra, 199

M. C. Barrow, local manager of the Associated Oil company will leave Saturday for San Francisco, where Mrs. Barrow will undergo an operation. During the absence of Mr. Barrow, Jack Heath will act as manager. The Barrows will be gone about two weeks.

Petitions signed by county voters for the auto tax and Rogue river fish bills are being checked by the county clerk's office, preparatory to submission to the secretary of state for final audit and approval.

Dance, Riverside Community Club, Sat. night, Broadway Orchestra, 199

Miss Mary Edwards has recovered from a severely strained ankle sustained last Sunday. While mounting some steps, she caught the heel of her slip in a crack, causing her to fall.

Don't forget to come to "Mammy's L'il Wild Rose" at the M. E. church Thursday, June 28, at 8 o'clock! Admission 25c and 50c. 98c

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co., Phone 629. 89c

Through a number of sawmills in the coast and Willamette valley districts are circulating their output, the Owen-Groson plant here continues on a double shift. Mrs. Ida Wood, piano teacher, Summer classes now starting. Studio Business College Bldg. Phone 1042-W. 99

Have your 1928 automobile wheels lightened at Pennington's Battery Shop, 121 No. Bartlett, Phone 543. 104c

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. (Pink) Callison, newlyweds, who spent the week end here, have left for Canadian points after a short visit with relatives in Eugene. They will tour until September 1, when Mrs. Callison will resume her duties as English teacher in the Burlingame, Calif., high school, and Mr. Callison as athletic coach of the Medford high school.

Notice: City assessments are now due at the city treasurer's office and penalty of five per cent will be added if not paid by July 2nd. 102c

Pre-school for little folks will begin Monday, July 2nd, 10 a. m., Boy Scout Bldg. in playground. For information call or phone 540. 102c

EDITORS' GOLF PLAY STARTS AT 1:30 P. M.

Trophies which will be awarded at the golf tournament tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 held on the local course with Oregon editors playing were displayed in the center window of The Toggery today. Included in the group are three silver loving cups from one foot in height donated by the Crater Lake Park company, a cup slightly smaller, given by the Jackson County bank, to a six-inch cup from Brophy's Jewelry store.

Other prizes are an attractive orange and two imitation sport sweaters, donated by Mann's Department store; a pair of imported blue and gray golf socks by The Toggery; book on "How to Play Golf" by Medford Book store, and three golf balls by Lamports.

The tournament will start at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Obituary

FRANK — Funeral services for Jane C. Felety, who passed away in this city Monday, at the age of 84 years, will be held at the Conger chapel at 2:30, Friday. Rev. T. H. Temple will officiate and interment will be in the family plot in Medford cemetery.

VINCENT — Funeral rites for the late John W. Vincent, who passed away Wednesday, June 27th, will be held at the Conger chapel at 1:30 Friday. Interment will be in Central Point cemetery in charge of the Central Point I. O. O. F.

KINNEY — Services for Inez Kinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weller, were held at the Conger chapel at 2:30 yesterday with interment in Medford cemetery.

Klamath county contracts for 21 miles market roads to cost $40,225.

LEBANON — Twenty school districts propose union high school here.

FOR SALE OR TRADE — 21 Stanley Steamer. Inquire at Talent Service Station. 100

FOR SALE — An attractive 5-room modern home, lovely terrace, lot with cement curbing, sidewalk, fruit and flower garden. Priced for quick sale at $2200; $200 cash, balance $20 per month. See Charles A. Wing Agency, Inc. 100

STENOGRAPHER and clerk, efficient, 5 years experience, desires suit, or permanent position; references. Phone 95-J. 104

FOR SALE — Parrot and cage, $12.50. Forman, King's Highway. 100

FOR SALE — Rabbits, Reds and Whites. Forman, King's Highway. 100

CHERRIES, blackberries. Tel. 529. 4-2. 100

"GOOD FOR LONG RUNS!" ANTI-KNOCK RED CROWN GASOLINE

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

Radio Program KMED

Mail Tribune-Virgin Station

Thursday, June 28, 8 to 9 p. m.—Gold Seal Creamery. 9 to 9:30 p. m.—Modern Plumbing & Sheet Metal Works, featuring Karl Mouldrem in violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Williamson, pianist. The following numbers will be included in the program: "Rondino" by Kreisler, "Hearts and Flowers" by Tobani, "Giroto" by Giose, "Berceuse" from Joes, by Godard, "Elegie" by Massenet, "Rain," Bohm, and "Serenade" by Schubert.

Friday, June 29, 9:30 to 10 a. m.—McGee's Drygoods Store, Ashland. 10 to 10:30 a. m.—Southern Oregon Electric. 10:30 to 11—M. M. Department Store. 11 to 11:30 a. m.—Jacque Lenox Millinery. 11:30 to 12 a. m.—Brophy's Jewelry Store. 12 to 12:30 p. m.—Medford Electric. 12:30 to 1:30 p. m.—Palmer Music House. 6:15 p. m.—Mail Tribune News and Market reports. 8 to 9 p. m.—Medford Realty Board. 9 to 10 p. m.—American Legion frolic.

Special Communication, Medford Lodge No. 193, A. F. & A. M., Friday, June 29, 7:30 p. m. Work in the C. degree. By order of W. M. C. M. HOUSTON, Secy.

Sheep Owners Attention! We are in position to pay you more than anybody for wool-mo-hair. See us before you sell. MEDFORD BARGAIN HOUSE, Phone 1643 37 N. Grand St.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Medford Pharmacy Heath's Drug Store Strang's Drug Store

Handicraft Shop

Phone 702 42 South Central Across from Craterian Theatre

SPECIAL 1/2 OFF

On all discontinued numbers in Package Goods Lunch Cloths Dining Room Sets

Frank's Comedians

IN The Big Tent Tuesday, Wednesday Thursday

"Fair and Warmer"

Fourth and Fir Prices, 25c and 50c

Plumbing and Heating

Sunstrand Oil Burners Friend Sprayers Elto Outboard Motors

WM. HAMMETT 31 N. Bartlett Phone 659

City Cleaning & Dyeing Co

PHONE 474

Frank's Comedians

IN The Big Tent Tuesday, Wednesday Thursday

"Fair and Warmer"

Fourth and Fir Prices, 25c and 50c

Plumbing and Heating

Sunstrand Oil Burners Friend Sprayers Elto Outboard Motors

WM. HAMMETT 31 N. Bartlett Phone 659

City Cleaning & Dyeing Co

PHONE 474

Frank's Comedians

IN The Big Tent Tuesday, Wednesday Thursday

GATES, LYDIARD PURCHASE TRACT OF FORTY ACRES

A 40-acre tract of land in the College Hill addition on Spring street changed hands this week when W. H. Lydiard and W. A. Gates of the Crockerite bought the property from H. L. DeArmond, former Medford resident.

The land is subdivided into 240 lots, all of the intersecting streets being already named but at present covered by tall grass and wild flowers.

A splendid view of the valley below is afforded from the tract, which is rolling ground, thirty acres of the land are on one side of Spring street and the other 10 on the other side, within a few rods of the Crater Lake highway.

Members of the club will bring lunch baskets and dinner will be served in the John Phares summer cabin in the park. This meeting has been planned instead of the usual June business session. The committee in charge of tonight's program consists of Mrs. Marshall Elliott and Mrs. Jacque Lenox.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO PICNIC, EDGEWOOD

Business and professional women of Medford will meet this evening at 6 o'clock in front of Crockerite's cafe and from there the group will go to Edgewood park for a dinner and meeting.

Home Coming Concert, OF Caroline Andrews Tomorrow Night Presbyterian Church

Seats on sale at Chamber of Commerce, Palmer's Music House, Medford Pharmacy and West Side Pharmacy.

Concert will commence after the band concert in the park.

Admission, $1.00; 50c for children under 15 years.

GRAIN STORAGE

MR. FARMER: Store your grain in our new, Class "A" Concrete Warehouse. Here are a few reasons why you should store with us:

- 1. Fire hazard is minimized. 2. Lower insurance rates. 3. Rodent free storage room. (No rats or mice to damage grain sacks). 4. Systematic and safe handling of your storage account insures against loss.

GRAIN, TWINE, NEEDLES See Us Before You Buy

MONARCH SEED & FEED CO.

Warehouse corner Tenth and South Fir Streets

STARTS TODAY FOR ONLY THREE DAYS

EMIL JANNINGS

THE WORLD'S GREATEST DRAMATIC ACTOR IN THE GREATEST ROLE OF HIS ENTIRE CAREER

"THE LAST COMMAND"

—THE NEWSPAPERS, THE CRITICS, THE PUBLIC — EVERYONE IS SHOUTING THEIR PRAISE OF THIS GREAT DRAMA

This story of Russian Revolution gives Jannings full sway for his genius. FAR SURPASSING The Never-to-Be-Forgotten "Variety" and "Way of All Flesh."

VITAPHONE VAUDEVILLE

FRED ARDATH & CO. In the Comedy Sketch "MEN AMONG MEN" and VAN and SCHENCK The Most Popular Pair in Songland Presents "A FEW HOT NUMBERS"

Admission Mats., 10 and 35; Evns., 10 and 50

Advertisement for Home Coming Concert, OF Caroline Andrews Tomorrow Night Presbyterian Church. Includes details about seats on sale and admission prices.

Advertisement for Grain Storage by Monarch Seed & Feed Co. Lists reasons for storing grain in concrete warehouses.

Large advertisement for Emil Jannings' play "The Last Command" at the Big Tent. Features a portrait of Jannings and promotional text.

Advertisement for Radio Program KMED, listing various evening programs and their times.

Advertisement for Handicraft Shop, listing items for sale and contact information.

Advertisement for Frank's Comedians, listing showtimes and location.

Advertisement for City Cleaning & Dyeing Co, listing services and contact information.

Advertisement for Business Women to Picnic, Edgewood, listing the event and location.

Advertisement for Home Coming Concert, OF Caroline Andrews Tomorrow Night Presbyterian Church.

Advertisement for Grain Storage by Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

Advertisement for Emil Jannings' play "The Last Command" at the Big Tent.

Advertisement for Radio Program KMED, listing various evening programs and their times.

Advertisement for Handicraft Shop, listing items for sale and contact information.

Advertisement for Frank's Comedians, listing showtimes and location.

Advertisement for City Cleaning & Dyeing Co, listing services and contact information.