The homecoming concert of Miss Caroline Andrews at the Presbyterian church Friday evening was a revelation of tonal beauty, vocal art and dramatic interpretation. The atmosphere was ideal as the affection of the artist for her home and the loved neighbors of an earlier day, met with a warm response from the friends and music-lovers who composed the large and appreciative audience. The dimming of the house lights, the adjustment of the platform lights and the immediate entrance of the singer, were signals for an ovation such as is seldom accorded an artist and which continued throughout the evening.

Miss Andrews' voice is one of compelling sweetness, and exquisite timbre throughout its wide range. In the difficult coloratura work in which she is well-schooled, she never sacrifices beauty of tone to agility but maintains an even and expressive quality throughout.

Miss Andrews' years of study with the great artists and teachers of today, and her experience on the metropolitan concert platform have broadened and deepened her art. With youth, beauty and her artistic temperament Medford ardently wishes the hope that there shall be no limit to her recognition and attainment.

The "Shadow Song" from Dinorah, Meyerbeer, and the songs by Madame Clara Edwards, a Minnesota girl, now living in the artistic colony in New York, were happy selections in that by contrast they showed the scope of the artist's talent.

Doran Werner, violinist, was a most welcome co-artist and made many friends on his first appearance in the west. Playing with a symphony organization, his is a talent of high order and his solo work a delight.

W. T. Bolger, flutist, of the Medford School of Music, assisted with several flute obbligatos and his work was much appreciated. Mr. Bolger received his training also in the east and has played with the big symphony organizations of the country.

Miss Alma Lawrence was the sympathetic and efficient piano accompanist and proved herself a thorough musician equal to the demands of a difficult program.

The program is as follows:

Soprano Solos
(a) Love Has Eyes—Bishop
(b) Beloved, In Your Absence—Amy Woodford-Pinton

Mrs. R. E. Green Hostess at Dinner
Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Camp Thomas of Richmond, Va., Mrs. R. E. Green was hostess at dinner Saturday evening.

The guests motored to the Green cabin at Edgewood park, where the dinner was served.

Hostesses at Dinner
Misses Sarah Whitlock and Alice Roberts were joint hostesses, at dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Whitlock.

Guests included Ruth Lawrence, Kathryn Sweeney, Oma Ge Bauer, Helen Thomas, Mary Edwards and Jean Van Dyke.

Out-of-Town Guests Honored With Dinner Party
Dr. Wm. H. Heckman and wife of Central Point entertained with a dinner party at Bonney's grill on the Pacific highway this week. The honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen Martin of Bedford, Ind. Seven guests enjoyed the fried chicken dinner and hospitality of Bonney's grill.

Business and Professional Women Have Picnic
The Business and Professional Women's club and several guests were entertained at the Fluhrer cabin on Rogue river Thursday evening.

Mrs. Charabel Elliott and Mrs. Lennox were in charge of plans for the picnic.

It was decided that the next meeting of the club would be held at the summer home of Evan Reames on Warner creek.

Those who attended the picnic were Misses Louise Fluhrer, Betty Jones, Dorothy Young, Margaret Hensley, Mildred Knight, Harriet Wood, Dollo Scheffel, Bess Young, Jacques Lennox, Charabel Elliott, Grace Voss, Maude Lantz, Mrs. Maribon, Mrs. Crowson, Mrs. John Fluhrer, Mrs. Leota Thompson, Maude Chapman, Mrs. Earl Mellinger, Pearl McCredie and Adrienne Steward.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gayes entertained with an informal bridge party Thursday evening. Six tables were in play during the evening and prizes were won by Mrs. Guy Conner and Sid Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dailey and Mrs. Charles Ellis of Los Angeles are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Knipps for several weeks.

Rosema Circle Card Party
The Rosema circle of the Yeomen lodge gave a card party Friday evening after lodge at the W. O. W. hall.

High score was held by Mrs. Hizo Goenther for women and C. W. Harwood for men.

About 12 o'clock delicious refreshments were served.

Noted Violinist Visitor Here
Mr. Eric Kahlon, Swedish violinist, who spent last summer in Medford, is again a visitor from Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Kahlon's professional engagements take him well over the world in the course of the year and he is receiving a warm welcome from many friends. It is hoped that he may be heard in concert during the summer.

Pythian Club Picnic at Jackson Hot Springs
About 50 members of the Pythian club, with their husbands and families, motored to Jackson hot springs Thursday evening for a picnic supper, which was served about 6 o'clock. During the evening, swimming, dancing and cards were enjoyed by the guests.

The picnic at the Laidley cabin on Elk creek, which had been planned for the fourth of July, has been postponed.

Visitors Leave for Home in Seattle
Mrs. H. P. Preston and granddaughter, Betty Pratt, of Eugene, who have been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James C. Hayes of this city, left Thursday for Eugene. Mrs. Preston is Dr. Hayes' mother. She expects to motor on to Seattle to spend the summer after passing the winter at Long Beach, Calif. Betty Pratt is a senior at the University of Oregon and a member of the Chi Omega society.

Alpha Delta Class Has Party This Week
Mrs. Floyd Weeks of Queen Ann street entertained with an afternoon party for the Alpha Delta class of First Christian church. The president, Mrs. C. M. Hon, presided over the business period. The social hour was in charge of the executive committee, with Mrs. Clarence Lloyd as chairman. Games and music were principal features of the afternoon. Delightful refreshments of Neapolitan ice cream and wafers were served. There were 44 guests.

Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Clarence Lloyd, Mrs. George Eads, Mrs. Everett Eads, Mrs. R. C. Latham and Mrs. Clyde M. Hon.

A number of Medford people attended the seventh annual Red men picnic at the summit of Medford mountain Sunday. Northern California and southern Oregon tribes and councils were represented in the various fetes of the day.

After a bounteous picnic dinner a business meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. Little of Chico. George Armstrong and Harriet Watson of Medford were elected new chairman and secretary for next year. The date of the next meeting was changed to the third Sunday in June instead of the second, on account of conflicting dates. After appointing a few committees, the meeting adjourned.

The afternoon program started with the archery contest, which was won by Miss Wanda Dunphy of Trask and the Drama of Medford. Mr. Smith and Mr. Black, both of Weed, won the horseshoe contest. Maxine Peterson and Johnnie Haertle of Medford won the contest of throwing the ball backward. Mr. Smith of Weed also won the half golf. Harriet Watson was the slipper kicking and Victor Milnes and Leo Glass won the wheelbarrow races. At 4 o'clock the southern cars began to depart one by one until about an hour later, when the Medford bunch started for the hot springs, where about a dozen enjoyed a refreshing swim. Those remaining on land spread the remainder of the lunches, which found everyone hungry again.

After such an enjoyable day the next year's meeting should be much larger, and those who did not go may consider themselves as having missed a wonderful time.

entertainment, which was beautifully carried out. Our old-time neighbor, Mrs. George Landley, being president of the Civic club of Klamath Falls and chairman of the committee of entertainment, assisted by chamber of commerce and merchants. Receptions, teas, banquets and scenic drives were the order of the day when not in business session. Klamath Falls proved herself a splendid entertainer and received the praise of the entire federation.

Fred W. Parks, field director Americanization Council gave a very interesting lecture on Americanization, urging all clubs to appoint committees to especially work along those lines.

Wednesday evening Dr. Aurelie H. Reinhardt, president of Mills college gave a lecture. Her subject being "Contribution of Education to International Understanding." She is a very brilliant woman and handled her very deep subject with wonderful understanding and skill.

Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, past president of the Federated clubs, also gave a fine address on international relations.

Department of public welfare was ably handled by Mrs. Glendora M. Blackby.

Mrs. Sadie Orr-Dunbar also lectured on state institutions along the line of hospitals and by the Downer hospital at Eugene for sick and crippled children, and spoke on the scholarship loan fund and of the 800 clubs of Oregon. The club women of Oregon, by keeping up this worthy fund, had helped through college.

Some 400 club presidents reports were read.

The federation voted to district the state of Oregon clubs into five districts. Southern Oregon district received two more counties, now having Curry, Josephine, Jackson, Klamath and Lake counties in our first Oregon district Federation of Women's clubs.

Be sure and remember this district federation is the first, as it has been in existence as a federation in southern Oregon for 35 years, while the others are only going to organize the coming year. The present officers of the state federation were all re-elected unanimously.

Radio Frolic Enjoyed
Friday night's "radio frolic" of the American Legion was one of the best programs ever presented over station KMGD according to those who listened in. The varied program of music, fun and short talks on the American Legion proved sufficient to appeal to all tastes.

The 10-piece Legion orchestra provided plenty of popular hits and solo numbers by Fletcher and Bill Kirkpatrick went over in fine shape. Bert Bates of Roseburg, who was a visitor at the studio was called on for one of his clever piano numbers and responded nobly.

A 5-minute talk on "Membership in the American Legion" by George Coddling, past commander of Medford post was one of the leading features of the program. Hal Hess who was a guest at the studio also gave a short talk on the American Legion convention. Much credit for the success of the program is due to Chairman Earl Davis, of the Legion radio committee who directed the affair and handled the announcing in his usual efficient manner.

Society Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Don Nugent of San Luis Obispo, Cal., who have been visiting Mrs. Nugent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young, at 15 Rose avenue for the past two weeks, departed for their home Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Margaret G. Black of Ann Arbor, Mich., is visiting here on her way to Berkeley. Miss Black taught in the Medford high school several years ago.

The regular monthly meeting of the Garden club, which is scheduled for July 4, has been postponed to July 11, on account of the holiday. It will be held at Hotel Medford as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams of Portland motored down Friday to attend the editors' convention at Crater Lake this week end. Mr. Adams is well known in this city and is managing editor of the Telegram.

Social Events of Church Societies
The H. M. I. Bible study club will meet with Mrs. Mary J. Down 167 Portland avenue Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Joe Wilkinson will lead the study. Visitors always welcome.

The executive board of the Women's Missionary society of the First Christian Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. R. L. Ray Wednesday p. m. Fourteen ladies, including the officers and group leaders, were present and the work for the coming year was outlined. At the close of the business session the hostess served light refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

The ladies of the missionary society of the M. E. church south met at their regular social meeting June 29 at the home of Mrs. W. K. Day, 25 North Oak.

The topic for the afternoon was "Medical Missions After Fifty Years" with Mrs. L. W. Thomas the leader. The guests were favored with musical numbers by the two little sister girls and also a reading by Mrs. Selzer.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting of the society will be the business meeting, to be held July 2.

The Missionary division of the Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. E. E. Binson as follows:

Song, "In My Heart There Rings a Melody."
Scripture reading of Philippians 4th chapter and prayer by Miss Kenoyan.

Mrs. E. E. Wilson gave an article on everybody's question, that being "What Next in Missions?" Dr. Eva Carlson explained the true meaning of "America for Americans."

Mrs. J. D. Shaffer gave "Recent Movements in Population."
Mrs. C. A. Whitlock, "Learning to Live Together."
Mrs. Bowling, "Neighborhood Approach."
Mrs. W. H. Estlin, "Forward Understanding."

The program closed with a song and Mrs. A. B. Mead offered prayer.

NEW HEADS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

Mrs. John F. Sippel
Mrs. H. G. Reynolds
Mrs. Eugene B. Lawson
Mrs. Henry C. Taylor
Mrs. Grace M. Poole

Legion Auxiliary Notes

The final report of the Poppy sale which went off with a bang, as far as success was concerned, was given by Mrs. Fred Carbis the very efficient Poppy chairman. She reported 4500 poppies sold at the Memorial season sale and $400.00 taken in. This money is a great help to the soldiers and their families, being divided in thirds—one-third goes to pay the overhead, cost of poppy material, shipping and the percent to the soldiers themselves which they use as they please, one-third comes back to the unit that sold the poppies and is used for unit hospitalization to care for soldiers of said unit who are in need, one-third goes to the hospital (No. 77 in this case) and is used to benefit the sick soldiers, buying necessities for their comfort.

Medford stood second in the state in the sale of poppies this year and much credit is due to Mrs. Carbis and her co-workers. Special mention should here be made of the star subsidiary, Mrs. Jessie Bonney, who sold over 400 poppies.

At this meeting the revised constitution was read by the new secretary, Mrs. Helen Wilson, who was chosen to take the place of Mrs. Bellower.

Frank Farrel had kindly given of his time and knowledge to whip this constitution into shape, and the new by-laws, etc., and the members of the unit wish to thank him for this work gratefully rendered.

Delegates to the August convention were chosen at this time and the list consists of Mrs. Mary E. Chaney, president; Mrs. Helen Wilson, secretary; Mrs. Selby Hall, treasurer; Mrs. Junitta Butler, past president; Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, past president.

Alternates, Mrs. Leo Garlock, Mrs. Geo. Coddling, first vice press, Mrs. Fred Carbis, Mrs. Norma Martin, Sgt. at arms and Mrs. Bert Bryant, chorister.

It is noted that each delegate is the present or past officer, Mrs. Garlock having been Unit Treasurer and delegate to National convention, also state committee woman. These ladies should render very efficient service to the unit as each and every one are exceedingly capable.

Initiation of new members brought in Miss Melba Williams, Roberta Bebb, Alice Martin, Louise Bricker (wife of the new board executive) and Marjorie Crosby.

These ladies were warmly welcomed. Refreshments were served by the women of the Auxiliary and eaten (as usual) by the men of Post 15. These boys are good at that but they are not the best thing they do—and how the ladies love to feed 'em.

Radio Program KMGD
Mail Tribune-Virgin Station

It will be good news to local radio fans to learn that the "Copee Players" will be on the air next Tuesday night with an original new play by Miss Helen Norris, entitled "On the Green." This drama was recently presented at over station KGO and made a decided hit with all who heard it according to report. Tuesday's program will be put on during the regular Copee hour from 9 to 10 p. m. and will be directed by Earl Davis who will also take one of the leading parts in the play.

Anderson Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Black left for Klamath where they have week the summer.

James MacDowell and family spent the week end in Central Point.

F. Marquess and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paik.

Mrs. D. E. Stale, called on Mrs. Mays Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Holtman and (Edly) were out to Medford Saturday.

Demio Meet Visitor

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, above, comes to Houston to attend her first national convention and to christen the huge Coliseum constructed to house the meetings.

'SANE FOURTH' IS OBJECTIVE NOW OF LEGION AUX.

The Women's Auxiliary to the American Legion, through its national president, Mrs. Robert Walbridge, has announced its purpose of inspiring to make the Independence day holiday period a safe and sane one by encouraging decorative lighting in and about the home on the eve and night of July 4th.

The suggestion to feature lighting as a patriotic demonstration was contained in a letter addressed to the Society for Electrical Development, which was asked to cooperate through some 60 local electrical houses throughout the various Legion posts.

Mrs. Walbridge's letter to the Society for Electrical Development follows:

"From time to time we have heard the suggestion that Fourth of July be observed in a manner similar to Christmas eve and Christmas night, insofar as night lighting features go. Local electrical men have gone into the subject with us and advise that the expenses incident to every home lighting up with red, white and blue are minor, and that in nearly all cases the carefully-studied Christmas lamp-light themselves nicely to appropriate decoration schemes.

"We call this to your attention with the suggestion that in the interest of a safe, sane and patriotic 'Fourth' steps be taken to make patriotic lighting a nationwide feature on the anniversary of the birth of our government."

GEORGE DIRECTS AIR MANEUVERS BY RADIO'S USE

HENDON, Eng., June 30.—(AP)—King George, with the aid of wireless, personally put a squadron of airplanes through their paces at a mammoth display of the royal air force here this afternoon.

Giving his directions through a microphone, which also broadcast them to a throng of nearly 100,000 spectators, the king conducted his fleet of machines, which overhauled through a series of military maneuvers and massed evolutions.

King George, accompanied by Queen Mary and the ambassadors of France, Italy, Argentina, Germany, Brazil and Spain, were engaged in their notable flight across the Alps and were the guests of honor at the fete this afternoon. They had carried with them several high officials of the Italian air service as passengers.

Among today's maneuvers was a mock attack on London in which an attempt was made with a fleet of heavy bombers to blow up the docks. Blazing machines were seen falling behind a tree-fringed horizon as if really crippled, while an oil refinery, hit by a bomb, went up in smoke.

The maneuvers were carried out by a personnel of 2500 men and officers.

NAME RICE HEAD DISABLED VETS

DENVER, Colo., June 30.—(AP)—A "fatherhood," named Millard W. Rice of Minneapolis, is the new national commander of the Disabled American Veterans of the World war.

Rice, who was wounded three times in the battle of Belleau woods, was elected by only seven votes over Joe McQueen of Kansas City, but his victory was made unanimous.

After his election Rice said he considered the $2,000,000 drive planned by the veterans to raise a fund for liaison work the most important before the organization the coming year. The new commander said he also intended to work for liberalization of the rates of the veterans' bureau which he believes keep many veterans obligated to compensation from obtaining it.

Detroit was selected for the next convention.

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—South Bend's second annual baby parade, patterned after the similar event at Astor Park, N. J., will be held July 21. The event has become a notable one throughout this region.

CHICAGO, June 29.—(AP)—John Coddling, son of the president, passed through Chicago late today on his way to the summer White House at Irish, Wis.

Secret service men and a police cordon repulsed all attempts of reporters to interview him. He spent the two hours between the time the New York Central train arrived and the Chicago and Northwestern departed in riding about Chicago's boulevards in a tuxedo.

NEW YORK, June 29.—(AP)—John J. Raskob, treasurer of the American Olympic committee, reported at a meeting of the mayor's committee today that $225,000 had been raised nationally so far to defray the expenses of the American contingent of athletes to the ninth Olympic at Amsterdam, Holland. There still is needed $25,000 for the estimated total expenses of the team which sails July 11 on the Roosevelt.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—(AP)—The committee representing the Cannery League, California Canning Peach Growers association and the conference committee of Governor C. C. Young were in executive session today discussing the price to be paid growers for the 1928 output of peaches.
