OWEN-OREGON IS GIVEN DRUBBING BY MEDFORDITES

The Medford Merchants walked all over the Owen-Oregon team at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon before a handful of folks, the final count being 16 to 4. The Millmen offered no resistance to speak of, and after the massacre they began to comb the country for ball players.

While the locals were gathering 14 hits, the Lumbermen collected eight.

Michols started to pitch against his old teammates, but he tuckered out after six innings, and Montgomery took up the burden. Five hits were secured off Michols in the first inning.

Cliff Best pitched for the Merchants and he struck out seven men. Hughes went in the fifth and, while wild, whiffed four.

About the only feature of the contest was the clouting of a home run by John Logan. A fan announced he would give $2.50 for one, and was accommodated.

POLISH WRESTLER WEDS ACTRESS

UNION CITY, N. J., July 2.—(AP) Wladek Zbyszko, Polish wrestler and younger brother of Stanislaus, was on his honeymoon today with Miss Anna Stark, 18-year-old Broadway actress. They were married here Saturday by Mayor Charles Mohn. The bride promised to obey.

This is Zbyszko's second venture into matrimony. His first wife was Miss Amelia Diaz, 100 pounds of Havana. He divorced her at Portland, Maine, in 1924, charging cruelty.

KLAMATH FALLS SLAUGHTERED BY LOCAL GOLFERS

The Klamath Falls golf team was fairly slaughtered by the local mashie wielders at the Medford club yesterday, the score being 37 to 2, Harry Rosenberg being the only local player defeated, and he grabbed one point out of the three. The feature of the tournament was the showing of George Roberts with the low score of 77.

Klamath secured its only revenge when the Klamath pro, Ray Ansley, defeated Marks Maclin, Medford's assistant pro, by one up after a terrific battle. Jack Hudson was unable to play because of illness.

The Medford golfers will play a return match with Klamath Falls. Thus far they have a clean record for 1928, having defeated both Klamath and Marshfield.

TILDEN BEATS FRENCH ACE IN A HARD BATTLE

WIMBLEDON, England, July 2.—(AP)—William T. Tilden, American tennis ace, advanced to the semi-final round of the Wimbledon championship tournament today by defeating Jean Borotra of the French "Three Musketeers" by scores of 8-6, 2-6, 6-2, 6-2.

Henri Cochet, sharpshooting French musketeer, advanced to the semi-finals today in defense of the Wimbledon men's singles by conquering the young American tennis star, John Hennessey, in four sets, 6-4, 6-1, 5-7, 6-3.

Cochet's victory over Hennessey turned the tables and give the Frenchman revenge for his setback at the hands of the American at Forest Hills last September. It also assured France of three of the four semi-final brackets.

Rene LaCoste, French star, defeated Baron H. L. De Morpurgo, ace of the Italian Davis cup team, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-3, 6-4, to enter the semi-final round.

Twelve thousand fans packed the stands around the center court as Big Bill Tilden and Jean Borotra began their match, which promised a tennis "natural."

The bounding Frenchman got away to a fast start, taking the first game from Tilden. It was a deuced session of flashing shots.

Tilden, serving, won the second game, although Borotra brought it to deuce first. Flashing out with his famous cannon-ball service, the American took the deciding point of the game with a sizzling ace. The colorful Borotra in his black beret was on his toes every instant, bounding like a panther after Tilden's fierce drives. Games followed service until they stood at 3 to 3, with Borotra leading. He then broke through the American's delivery to lead by four games to two.

Borotra tried to give Tilden a point on a ball apparently called incorrectly by a linesman, but Tilden would not take it. Borotra then bagged two of Tilden's services into the stands.

BEAVERS GRAB A DOUBLE-HEADER FROM THE OAKS

(By the Associated Press.)

Portland walloped the Oaks twice, 6 to 1 and 7 to 6. Knight was the hero of the game, pitching four-hit ball and collecting four hits, one a homer. In the second game Portland found Wetzel for 14 hits. Batteries: Boehler, Arlett and Read; Knight and Ainsmith. Second game: Wetzel and Read, Yerkes, Ponder, Conlin and Rego.

After dropping the morning game, 8 to 7, the Seals came back to defeat Los Angeles, 8 to 2, and end the series with six games in the bag. [illegible]

The Missions split with Hollywood, losing the first game 13 to 1 and taking the second, 5 to 3 in 12 innings.
