PUTTING PARTY ABOVE PRINCIPLE

THE world has seldom seen a more touching example of party devotion than is now furnished by Oregon's two most distinguished Democrats...

Just think of it, Brethren! Here is Weeping Walter, who has shed enough tears over the inaptitude of Tammany Hall...

It seems only yesterday that our lachrymose Walter was not only dry but greatly stirred by the dangers of Rome as pictured to him by the Grand Golden Rule of the Realm of the Six Cities.

But now he wants a Roman Catholic in the White House and is proud of it. True, a Roman Catholic is as much right there as a person of any other religion.

And the other ex-Governor—Oswald West. What a transformation there! Less than a month ago Oswald was not only against Al Smith but would have nothing to do with anyone...

Such devotion to a party has certainly never been surpassed. As a demonstration of how readily principles can be sacrificed to partisanship...

AN ABUSE OF THE INITIATIVE

THERE should be some law in this state against pestering the people year after year with an initiative measure they do not want.

The people of Oregon have defeated a state income tax at least half a dozen times, the past ten years, and finally when such a tax was adopted, and tried out, they proceeded to repeal it by a referendum.

But, like Banquo's ghost and the alley cat, the same income tax bill has bobbed up, after each defeat, as chipper and determined as ever.

This fall we are to have it with us again. And the same tiresome performance must be repeated, adding to the expense and confusion of the presidential election.

There should be some legal limit to an abuse of the Oregon System, such as the perpetual initiation of a state income tax exemplifies.

A statute rendering it impossible to initiate a bill, after two defeats until a certain number of years had elapsed, would remedy this condition and work no hardship upon the people.

QUILL POINTS

What is so rare as an old-fashioned June day in June?

There's my consolation: If you have wit enough to think yourself a moron, you probably aren't.

Alas! If people think your wife dumb, they feel sorry for you; and if they think her smart, they feel sorry for her.

It is hard to tell whether a married man dresses that way because he's broke or because he no longer gives a darn.

In other races, the winner breaks the white tape. In a presidential race, the red tape breaks the winner.

The Manchurian boss is Chang. The Nationalist leader is Chiang. The "I" in the latter may explain why he is called a second Mussolini.

"Tangle Toak's Cabin" had great effect on an election, but the only book to have much effect on modern elections is the check book.

Americanism: A belief that a successful man hasn't anything to do but chase around over the country making speeches to luncheon clubs.

Charles to Play Safe... Providence, R. I., July 2—Charles Curtis, Republican nominee for vice-presidential post, in a statement today said he would not resign his seat in the Senate in order to make the run for the vice-presidency.

Woodmen Adjourn Meeting... OAKLAND, Cal., July 2—The Woodmen of the World for the western district was at an end today. More than 1,000 delegates were preparing to leave Oakland for their homes after passing a resolution to adopt modern ratification policies.

Most days are dog days these days. In the old days the dog days were just a few days in midsummer when one's temper was sorely tried...

And B Are at It Again. Another argument for you to settle. A says you advise that potted plants are all right in a bedroom or sick room as they do not take up any oxygen but cut flowers are bad because they exhaust the oxygen.
