

Local and Personal

The fire department was called at 4:15 o'clock this morning to extinguish a blazing shack in an alley between Tenth and Eleventh streets near Ivy street. The shack, the property of Hank Estes, was gutted by fire two months ago and was being torn down today when a rubbish fire, which was set too close to the building, ignited the old structure, causing a hot blaze until it was under control by the fire department. The fire caused no loss.

Old-time dance hilarity Tuesday, 109*

Walter Downe returned Saturday from a trip to the Yellowstone national park in Wyoming, where he spent several weeks. He made the trip by motor and left during the early part of last month.

Prisoners and orchardists should know that there is a considerable difference in the grades and quality of tree props. The Porter Lumber Co. has in stock two carloads of selected specification tree props, full 1 by 2 inch, 108*

Miss Hilda Lyons arrived this morning from Tacoma, Wash., to spend a short visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Eye Postwick, on South central avenue.

Dressmaking and remodeling, Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg., 11*

Guests from a distance registered at Medford hotels include Miss Mae Shepherd of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harris and the Misses Imogene and Sarah Harris of Marquette, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller of Kansas City, Mo., H. J. Honey of Okinoma City, Okla., J. R. Harper of Irkutsk, Mass., Marjorie Sutherland of Ashcroft, B. C., and Mrs. F. W. Winter of New Brunswick, Can.

Fresh picked flyers every day, 30c per lb. Johnson's Market, 921*

Four passengers from the former train and from the hotels went up to the Crater Lake lodge on the stage leaving here at noon today.

Swim in drinking water, Merrick's chlorinated pool, 801*

Rhen Lauer, state engineer, spent Saturday at Grants Pass, where he attended a meeting of the bondholders' committee of the Grants Pass irrigation district. It is proposed to reorganize the Grants Pass irrigation district under a law enacted by the last legislature creating the state reclamation commission. It is said that most of the bondholders are agreeable to the reorganization proposal.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them, Big Pines Lbr. Co., 781*

John Walters will spend $50 to reconstruct a garage at 26 Chestnut street, according to a building permit issued today by the city.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co., Phone 429, 851*

Andrew Sample of Canada and John Sample of Scotland, who have been visiting their brother, Thomas Sample, at the Eden Valley orchard for the past several days, were planning to leave for Canada today.

You can order your tree props from the Porter Lumber Co. in specified lengths and save cutting and setting, 108*

Fair weather and no change in temperature is the forecast for the weather of tonight and Tuesday, following a maximum of 85 yesterday and a minimum of 52 today.

Old-time dance hilarity Tuesday, 109*

During the absence on his vacation of Sterling Rothmell, organist of the Rialto theater, Miss Alice Stealing of Los Angeles, who has been the organist of the Vining theater at Ashland, is presiding at the Rialto's organ. Mr. and Mrs. Rothmell last week went to Portland and other northern points for two weeks.

Fresh picked flyers every day, 30c per lb. Johnson's Market, 921*

J. J. Chavez is among the Klamath Falls visitors in Medford, who arrived yesterday.

Dr. Porter has moved his office from the Liberty Building to apartment No. 2, Carroll Court, 109*

Californians registered at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Cooke of Modoc, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cole of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Butcher of Beverly Hills, Lena Morgan, Dorothy Adams and Mrs. Blanche Karoubi of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Entic of Palo Alto, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. May, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Foy and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Maxwell of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Steele of Alameda, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sackman of San Diego, Paul Jensen of Benicia, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sullivan of Placencia, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wilson of Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Conlin of San Pedro, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Chapel of Chico, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Corish, Ruth Welby, Bernice Gust and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Holden of Los Angeles, Leonard and Mrs. G. E. Henry of March Field, Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. May, Mabel Harold, Magdalen A. Sollerger and Captain W. S. McKeown and family of San Francisco.

The nearness of the approaching fruit season is in evidence at the Porter Lumber Co. yard on South Fir St. in the form of several large piles of tree props which they have been unloading from two cars that have recently arrived.

Hugh Rankin, supervisor of Crater national forest, is spending today at Yreka at the headquarters of the Klamath national forest in connection with obtaining a right of way for a new road in his own forest territory.

Have your eyes cared for now by our deferred payment plan. Select eye examination—comfortable glasses. Dr. D. A. Chambers, Southern Oregon Optical Co., 317 Medford Bldg., Phone 188, 981*

Russell T. Cripe, who was coach at the Ashland high school last year, will teach next school year in the Glendale, Calif., high school.

Mr. Cripe is attending the summer session at the University of Southern California at Los Angeles.

Dr. Porter has moved his office from the Liberty Building to apartment No. 2, Carroll Court, 109*

Miss Ernestine Froelich returned today in the business office of the Mail Tribune, following a week spent at her home in Butte Falls because of a severe attack of tonsillitis, from which she is now practically recovered.

Old-time dance hilarity Tuesday, 109*

Included among the Oregonians registered at local hotels, other than those from Portland, are Mrs. Mosher and T. Stout of Salem, F. K. McMillen of Myrtle Point and G. Matheson and O. R. Rayner of Eugene.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co., Phone 429, 851*

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office today to Frank Dillon, B. M. Briggs, S. R. Newcomb and J. J. Osenbrunze of Medford, F. J. Loveland of Sams Valley, G. W. Nichols of Central Point, F. J. Chaplin of Phoenix and George C. Campbell of Appleton.

Would you give one dollar now for two in 1929? If so, you will buy Pitt View or Olson Acres, Pacific highway frontage, 5 minutes to Medford. Finest deep free soil. One acre up. Priced very reasonable. Let us show you, Williams & Warnock, Phone 1262, 951*

Awful from the cares of newspaper life, Dan Hoover, flowerman, local copy chaser, left last week to enjoy a quiet two weeks in Portland and Seattle, with relatives and relatives. Although two weeks only has been allotted to him, Dan Hoover upon departing declared he would be absent from duties for over a month, as he desired the extra time to visit friends in Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. He left by motor and at the present time is enjoying in Portland.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them, Big Pines Lbr. Co., 781*

Miss Lucille Garrett of Santa Ana, Calif., who has been visiting Mrs. Louis Jennings for the past week, had the dire misfortune yesterday of losing her blue and white purse while en route from Rlich to Medford. The purse contained a good sized sum of money and her name but not her address. Miss Garrett is a former local resident and up until two years ago was employed at the county clerk's office when the county seat was located in Jacksonville.

A special type of tree props at Big Pines Lbr. Co., 781*

Harry Skyrman, local attorney, who underwent a major operation for appendicitis several weeks ago, is now finally recovering from the effects of the operation and returned to Medford several times last week from his home near Central Point.

Screen doors, Woods Lumber Co., 111 E. Main, Phone 108, 114*

Returning from a two month's trip by auto to St. Louis and Chicago, V. J. Kierick arrived here yesterday, accompanied by his cousin, D. Kierick of St. Louis, who may locate in Medford. Mr. Kierick expects to drive to the eastern states again in August. Seven days were spent on the return trip with a total mileage of 2500 miles, an average of 100 miles per day.

Old-time dance hilarity Tuesday, 109*

Base pear growers will hold an important meeting at the Hotel Medford Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. As final plans for marketing will be announced, every grower should be present.

John Johnson left here yesterday for Diamond Lake, expecting to spend a week at the resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Davis, Elmer Outman and daughter, Mrs. Ida Kennedy of San Francisco, and her daughter Marcelle spent Sunday afternoon on Williams creek. Mrs. Kennedy is visiting here for a few days.

Old-time dance hilarity Tuesday, 109*

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Richmond, who visited last week in Bend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stone, formerly of this valley, returned Saturday night.

Among the delegates at the annual district convention to be held this week at Salem will be Mrs. Belva Allen, employed by Leon Hawkins, and Mrs. Jonny Williams of the West Side Pharmacy, who left this morning for the Capital city.

Are you gambling with life and health? To win take chloroform with Russian massage. Dr. Simkins, over Woolworth store, 314*

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their business meeting tonight. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Ed Fernlund of the Brownboro district, is spending the week with Medford relatives.

Miss Geraldine Wilton returned Sunday from Fort Klamath, where she had spent two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Pelton, who drove here with her yesterday.

Screen doors, Woods Lumber Co., 111 E. Main, Phone 108, 114*

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wolff and family spent the week and at Seiad, Calif., visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Davis.

Misses Sara and Ansl Davis returned to Medford Saturday from Diamond Lake, where they spent a week at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry.

Word has been received that the University of Illinois baseball team, which was scheduled to be here during the American Legion convention, will not stop at Medford. The men will make an excursion tour, including a game in Chicago during the summer with games in China and Japan and other points en route.

Mrs. Lois Quisenberry Day of Los Angeles is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quisenberry, on South Oakdale avenue.

Arrivals on the morning train who took the stage for Crater Lake were Mrs. E. Morris and Mrs. R. W. DeWinton of Mill Valley, Calif. Since leaving their homes two weeks ago the two women have visited several resorts including Yellowstone national park.

Fifty-one tourists from Cleveland, Ohio, were on board the train this morning on the way to San Francisco, after spending a month in Alaska as members of the John Storey party. The travelers, men and women, arrived at Seattle from Alaska July 7, on the steamer "Princess Charlotte." Before returning to their homes the party will spend some time in the Grand Canyon. Mr. Storey personally conducts similar tours twice annually.

Seventy-two out of the state cars registered in Medford with the local state auto traffic bureau over the week end, 24 of which were foreign Sunday and 48 on Saturday. The registration of such cars was heavy this morning.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR RENT 3-room house; garage; bath, $15, 812 Summit Ave. 109

COMPETENT girl wishes part time general housework by the hour, forenoon, taking care of children or elderly people. References. Phone 404-Y. 109

WANTED—Middle-aged woman for general housework. Mrs. Bert Stancliffe, Phoenix. 110*

EXPERIENCED fruit and produce man wanted in grocery store. Box 21, Tribune. 110*

FOR SALE—Combination conference, billiard room and bar; hot shop at Butte Falls. Inquire Claude Miles at Chrysler Agency. 109

WANTED—Barber to run shop in Butte Falls. Inquire Claude Miles, Chrysler Agency. 109

WANTED—Investor will pay cash for downtown business building or lot. Must be fairly priced. State full particulars in letter. Postoffice box No. 538, Medford. 110

WANTED—Girl to stay with child when needed. Phone 1393-W. 110*

WANTED—First-class auto mechanic. Phone 1269. 108

FOR SALE—Black Republican cherries on trees, 3 a lb. Phone 214-Y. 110*

FOR SALE—Second-hand Economy and Mason fruit bars. 700, 874. 11

FOR SALE—5-acre tract, under Talent ditch, 1/4 mile west of Phoenix, partly irrigated, also good Jersey milk cow. Inquire H. L. Sears, Phoenix. 114

FOR SALE—Furniture and household equipment, practically new, reasonable price, 343 N. Grape. 114

WILL TRADE—My equity in 2 1/2 acre tract for light car. Call 6-Clark 88. 109

FOR SALE—$37.50 Lloyd room baby carriage in excellent condition. $25. Call 638-Y. 114*

FOR SALE—Black office phones, 55. Phone 813-3. 112

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M. Gabelson, Mrs. J. J. Martinale, Mrs. Glenn Atchison, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Penton, Roy Gainer, C. C. Barry, Stan Jones, J. D. Frost and C. W. Weywick.

Guests from Washington state at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piver of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donahue and L. C. Adde of Spokane, Misses Elsie L. Kirkman, Beth Tanager and Ruth Doty, E. E. Allen, Jack O'Bryan and mother of Seattle.

The Beaver Portland Cement company's Gold Hill plant, which has been partly closed down the past six weeks, started work in its massive kiln last week, when resumed work at the company's other plant, as well as at its local and Marble mountain quarries. The resumption increases the company's crews from 25 men to 125. Present conditions of the sale of cement indicate that the plant will operate to full capacity until the first of the year.

The Holecomb mineral springs in the Sams Valley district were the destination of a good sized Medford delegation yesterday afternoon. The mineral water seemed to be in heavy demand, especially by one motorist who loaded over a half dozen cases of the water into the rear end of his car. Improvement at the springs is steadily going ahead and so far three modern camp cabins have been completed and are ready for occupancy.

Miss Mamie Timmons returned last week from a vacation trip to Los Angeles and other northern California points, where she visited friends and relatives.

Guests from Portland registered at local hotels include Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Woodard, Geo. D. and Marian Hoban, Bernice Browley, Hazel Cleveland, Ruby Albeckson, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, T. M