

OREGON PEACHES SELLING CHEAP PORTLAND MART

Portland, Ore., July 10.—(AP) Early Oregon peaches appeared on the local market today, quoted at the low price of $1 to $1.25 a box. California peaches still range in price from $1.25 to $1.50 for the smaller sizes and $2 for the large fruit.

New potatoes are more plentiful, quoted at 2 to 2 1/2 cents a pound. Local lettuce is $1.75 to $2. Green peppers arrived this morning from the Dolles at 20 to 22 cents. String beans rose slightly to 8 to 9 cents. Cucumbers are also in from the Dolles at $1 to $1.10.

New arrivals of cauliflower are quoted $1.50 to $1.75. Watermelons are more plentiful, although the price remains level about 2 1/2 to 3 cents a pound. Apples are coming in more freely, quoted in a variety of prices per lot, but averaging about 6 1/2 to 7 cents a pound. There is a shortage of cauliflower, better grades rating $2.75 to $4 with smaller grades as low as $1.50 to $1.75.

There was no change in the butter and egg market quotations. Poultry remained level with the exception of spring and Leghorns which dropped a point to a low price of 24 cents.

SPECULATION IN STOCKS HARD ON NEW YORK BANKS

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—The way of speculation which swept the stock market this spring, based on the stocks of the great New York banks and trust companies, few of which are listed on the New York exchange, more violently than it did listed stocks generally.

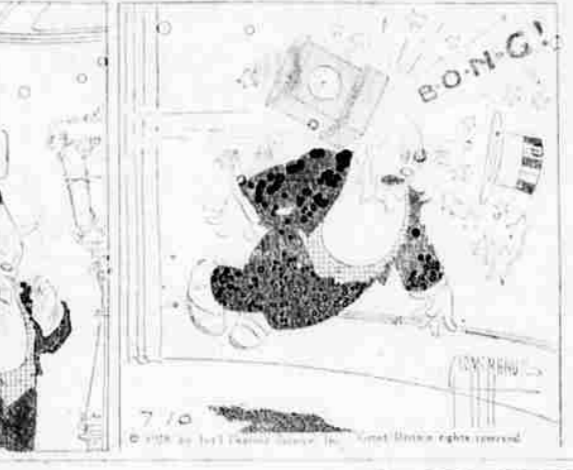

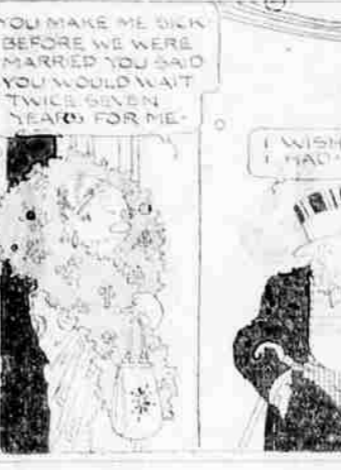

While the 26 industrial stocks used in the Associated Press averages fell less than 10 per cent in the collapse of the market early in June, the stocks of 10 representative New York banks and trust companies, with total capital, surplus and undivided profits of more than $700,000,000, fell nearly 50 per cent.

The stocks of eight of these banks are not listed on the exchange and are known as "over the counter" securities, as they find a market only through individual brokerage houses. In this less fluid market, they are naturally susceptible to greater price changes.

The average price of the ten stocks early in the year was about $20. The wave of speculation carried the average over 150 and, subsiding, left it at about $20. Bankers are not concerned over these fluctuations, however, as bank stocks for the most part are closely held and the trading too tight to set prices that may be regarded as fundamental indices of value.

Stock of the National City bank, the largest bank in America, was quoted as low as 74e early in the year, rose to 100e this spring and fell to 81e in June. The Guaranty Trust company stock has been quoted as high as $20 and as low as $9 1/2 this year.
