BUSINESS WOMEN TO HAVE A PICNIC MONDAY EVENING

Business and professional women of Medford will hold a picnic and swimming party Monday evening on Wagner creek at the summer homes of East Roanoke and Mrs. John White, according to plans announced at a meeting of the executive council at the home of Mrs. Maude Chapman last night. Mr. Roanoke has promised the guests the use of his large swimming pool.

Members of the club who desire to attend the party should be at the Adrienne Steward apparel shop at 9 o'clock Monday. Everyone will be expected to bring a plate, silver, and bathing suit.

At the meeting last night a demonstration of Dorothy Gray facials was given by Miss Mae Shepard of New York City, who has spent the week in Medford displaying the cosmetics at the Health Drug Store on Main street.

WOMEN INVITED TO LOCAL BIBLE CLASS

The Women's Bible class of the Presbyterian church cordially invites all women, whether members of the church or not, to visit the class. The topic for Sunday is on the Holy Spirit in connection with the study of the book of Acts. Some of the questions to be considered and answered are:

Is the Holy Spirit a person or an influence?
When does the Holy Spirit come into our lives?

HOLD CHILD CLINIC AT HOWARD SCHOOL

The Jackson county health unit will conduct a child-welfare clinic for children under six years of age at the Howard school next Monday, July 16, from 1:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon, with Dr. L. D. Inskeep, county health officer, conducting the examinations, assisted by Miss Augusta Glover, county nurse. The health unit will conduct a similar clinic at the Camp Wilbur auto camp Monday afternoon, July 23, for children of that district. The unit held a clinic this afternoon at the Baptist church for local children.

Brevities

Members of the Medford Crater club will hold a swimming party and picnic Monday evening, July 16, at the Jack Merrill ranch near Gold Hill. Everyone should be there by 7 o'clock. Johnny Reed of Gold Hill will be the host for the party.
