SWISHER HELD IN YREKA FOR DEATH OF BOY

Earl Swisher, Klamath Falls truck driver, who figured in an auto truck accident in the Green Spring mountains over two weeks ago, resulting in the death of an 18-year-old youth, whose surname was ascertained to be Young, was placed under arrest in Yreka, Cal., this forenoon on the request of Sheriff Ralph Jennings. Swisher, who faces a felony charge in connection with the boy's death, indicated that he intends to fight extradition.

District Attorney Newton C. Chaney stated this afternoon that if Swisher insists on fighting extradition, Swisher will be extradited in due accordance with law.

Swisher is charged with driving while intoxicated and causing bodily harm to another. A charge of failing to render aid to an accident victim also faces Swisher, who left the state against court orders.

William Jeffries, a service station owner of the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway, was taken in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Paul Jennings yesterday forenoon to the scene of his flight in an effort to locate a certificate of title to the car which he was driving when he struck and killed a young boy early this week. The certificate was thrown away by Jeffries, along with his driver's license, in an effort to make it harder for officers to identify him. However, he kept on his person a number of checks bearing his name. Neither the certificate nor driver's license were found.

Jeffries was released on bonds of $5000 and is now at liberty.

SECOND BOY IN AUTO THEFT IS APPREHENDED

Wayne Bowman, 17, and Harlan Tremaine, 16, local boys, were scheduled to appear before County Judge Hartzell of the juvenile court this afternoon on car theft charges, arising out of the theft of Mrs. Sam Pollard's automobile last Saturday evening while it was parked near the Hilarity hall on North Fir street.

Tremaine was caught Thursday evening by Jack Gorman, who chased Tremaine and Bowman for several miles in his car until the boys abandoned the Pollard car in the mill district, where Gorman caught Tremaine following a short foot race. Bowman made his escape but gave himself up yesterday afternoon and claimed that he knew nothing of the fact that the car was stolen. However, officers say that Bowman confessed later that he was with Tremaine and another youth, who has not been captured, when the car was taken.

The two boys probably will be committed to the state training school at Salem.

SAND CREEK ROAD IN CRATER PARK WILL BE SURFACED

In addition to the big extensive road and other improvements now being finished, under way or about to be begun at Crater Lake National park, another welcomed change for the park was voted by the state highway commission at its meeting in Portland this week, when it reached an agreement to surface the Sand creek section at the east entrance to the park.

The state has built a good highway, but the Sand creek section was government work. The grade was made but the volcanic ash makes it very dusty. Dr. L. I. Hewes, regional director for the bureau of public roads, conferred with the commission and it was agreed that some surplus government money, saved on a couple of other jobs could be used to surface four miles of the Sand creek road. The highway commission assented to this.

3000 WORKERS WILL BE NEEDED FOR PEAR PICKING

George E. Tucker, director of employment for the farm labor division for the entire western United States, located at Kansas City, will make a trip to the Pacific coast the last of July and expects to spend a few days in Medford. S. S. Smith, a personal friend of the employment official, has sent word to the local bureau that they met at the recent republican convention in Kansas City and discussed the proposed labor inspection tour.

A report of the employment situation and wage scales sent out by W. C. Carpenter, federal director of farm labor, Spokane, which range from $3 to $7 per day for grain harvesting was received recently by Chris Gottlieb, in charge of the Medford branch.

Representatives from various sections of the Inland Empire met this month in Waverly, Wash., to discuss labor conditions and to set the standard scale of wages. Results of the meeting include short resumes of the crop outlook in important communities. Medford is listed along with a description of work being done in pear orchards with preparations to begin harvesting the first of August.

Ten cities where employment bureaus are operated and will function until the close of harvesting include Salem, Medford, The Dalles, Walla Walla, Colfax, Spokane, Yakima, Seattle, Wenatchee and Twin Falls. There is reported to be plenty of labor for all agricultural purposes in each of these places.

A compilation of employees required in the Rogue River valley during the two months and a half pear harvest just completed by Mr. Gottlieb and Lyle Wilcox, county agent, estimates that 3000 workers will be required daily. This number will include the following: Pickers, packers, sorters, wipers, truckers, receivers, labelers, checkers, constabouts, car loaders, stampers, pressmen, truck drivers, swampers, cannery employes, office help, field men, and watchmen.

In anticipation of one of the largest yields of pears in the history of the valley advertisements for workers have been placed with the various labor offices on the Pacific coast in order that there will be sufficient employes on hand to harvest the crop.

MEDFORD PARTY ON AUTO TOUR HAVE A SAD EXPERIENCE

Fate was against C. L. Wolff of the Armory service station Thursday when he started home from Astoria in his brand new Star car, occupied by his mother and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hassong, Mrs. Wolff and himself, with an unknown sailor at the wheel. The gob was picked up just after the party left Astoria.

At 10 o'clock as the party proceeded along at a rate of 25 miles per hour near Rainier, a Nash car, headed the opposite direction and coming at a speed of 60 miles, crashed into the Star, throwing the smaller car into a ditch, where it turned over.

"There was a ditch on each side of the road and neither one looked inviting. The only other alternative was to meet the speeding Nash head on," Mr. Wolff said today in describing the accident, which completely wrecked his new car. The party came on to Medford by bus. The Nash was only slightly damaged.

SCOUT KRING IS ENDORSED FOR THE BYRD TRIP

The members of the Crater Lake area council of the Boy Scouts held a meeting at headquarters last night, and adopted a plan whereby this council will be a pioneer in the development of special activities which will enable the scouts to enjoy the wonderful country and progress in their scouting at the same time. A special committee, to be appointed by the president, was recommended by the council.

The plan is to stress troop activities, out-of-door programs, swimming, contests, games and stunts, and to make the three months of the summer count for the greatest period in the life of the scout.

Scout Ronald Kring was given the honor of unanimous endorsement and support of the council in the effort to have him sent as a member of Commander Byrd's party to the Antarctic this summer. This is real tribute to the boy's progress in scouting, and comes only after almost six years continuous service in the movement. Ronald Kring is an eagle scout and has also been awarded both the bronze and silver palms, a coveted recognition that is achieved by few.

The scout executive is to attend the regional scout conference in September in order that the benefit of the work and experience of other councils will be available for the local scouts.

It was voted to express the appreciation of the Boy Scouts, through the council, to many individuals and concerns who helped to make the recent camp a success by their services with committees or through the volunteering of camp needs. Among those who have helped are the camping committee, Lee P. Brown, chairman; Col. Holmes and Louis Ulrich; the Rogue River Lumber company, A. L. Vroman Plumbing company, the Rotary club, the California Oregon Power company, Eads Transfer company, the Forest Service, Campbell's Sheet Metal Works, Mr. Allen, Lee Port and Mr. Bryant, and the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion.

This meeting was a mighty busy hour and a half crammed full of business proposed to keep and increase the present splendid group of manly boys' activities and opportunities for growth.

The following members were present: M. N. Hogan, president; Larry Schade, commissioner; Lee P. Brown, R. G. Fowler, F. L. Heath, Sr., Rev. E. P. Lawrence, R. L. Cornwell, Col. Paine, Don Newbury and E. E. Carter. Orin Schenk was absent, due to the fact that he has been confined to his home for two weeks with serious eye trouble.

The suit of William J. Miller, landlord of the Nash hotel, against W. P. Gosnell and wife, former operators, was dismissed yesterday afternoon by Judge A. H. Miller was suing for $4453 damages, revocation of lease, and cancellation of lease, charging that misrepresentations had been made in the sale of the lease and furnishings of the hotel.
