EXAMINATIONS SHOW TUNNEY'S CONDITION FINE

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 20.—(AP)—Gene Tunney today entered the last stage of his training for the defense of his world's heavy-weight title against Tom Heenev in better physical shape than he has ever been in his career.

In addition, he was probably better fitted mentally than he ever has been since he took up boxing for a livelihood. He has been training here for almost three months, and during that time but two incidents have occurred which caused him any annoyance.

One was the attack on the New York boxing commission accredited to Tunney, and the other was a baseless rumor that he intended to retire from the ring after the Heenev match, regardless of the decision.

Both of these incidents came up during the past week, but Tunney by his prompt denials overcame them without damage to his high string temperament.

Later this afternoon scene was staged to go through the first of his last three training sessions with his sparring partners, Harold Mays and Billy Vidaback, the Bayonne, N. J., heavyweight. The champion is on the verge of fighting edge and the encounters were expected to be the most savage of the campaign. During the morning he planned to hike about six miles, stopping often to get in his shadow boxing.

Tunney had a day of rest yesterday when his medical adviser, Dr. Robert J. Shea, a New York surgeon, gave him a thorough examination. It showed that Tunney was in splendid shape. His heart test indicated that he had accumulated much more reserve power than he has ever possessed before and the increased development of his shoulder muscles denoted greater punching ability.

It is no secret in the Tunney camp that the champion will try to eliminate the New Zealand challenger by his right-hand punches and his actions with the sparring partners have indicated that he will keep Heenev outside with his famous left jab, the punches that won his title, as he tries to batter down the rugged blacksmith with powerful right-hand body blows.

Tunney already has signed a contract with Tex Rickard, promoter of the championship contest for next year. The terms call for a fixed percentage instead of the flat guarantee. This means that the days of fabulous grosses have ended unless the boxers can draw them through the gates. Tunney has admitted that his hold of the cash customers will be increased considerably if he disposes of Heenev in approved manner, by a knockout.

BABE RUTH NOW AT THE PEAK OF AMAZING CAREER

(By Herbert W. Baker, Associated Press Sports Writer)

Babe Ruth is nothing if not oh-hing. He has slugged three homers in the past two days and they were two ball games for the New York Yankees.

On Wednesday, Wilky Moore noosed three runs in the last inning if he was to save himself from defeat at the hands of the up and coming White Sox. The Yankees got two men on base and they scored ahead of Babe when he belted home run No. 36 high and dry in the eighth field stands.

Against the same White Sox yesterday Herb Denonk was unsteady most of the way, but the Babe pulled him through to a 6 to 4 victory by propelling his 27th and 28th circuit slouts into the stands, each time with Earle Combs on base.

These two Ruthian drives put the "Big Bam" 27 games, 29 days and 8 home runs ahead of his 1927 schedule when he slugged 66 for a new record.

The Athletics shaved half a game off the champions' lead by turning back the St. Louis Browns in both ends of a double bill, 2 to 6 and 4 to 3, the latter in 11 innings.

Owen Carroll pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 5 to 3 triumph over the Washington Senators in the first game of a double bill, but Al Ganson reversed matters in the second, the Senators walking off with an easy 7 to 2 win.

Ed Morris registered his 13th pitching victory of the year as the Boston Red Sox evened the series with Cleveland, 2 to 2 in 11 innings.

Over in the National league the St. Louis past-setting Cardinals added more won to the "untucky" Phillies. The Cards just barely moved out a 4 to 3 verdict that marked the Phils' 11th straight defeat.

Meanwhile the Brooklyn Dodgers snapped a nine-game winning streak rolled up by the defending league champions, the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2 to 0. Doug McWren had a slight edge on the young "irate" southpaw, Fred Frensch, the Dodger hurler accounting for the last two of his team's runs in the ninth, when he drove in two men with a single.

Boston finally managed to end a nine-game losing streak by pounding out a 9 to 1 verdict over the Cincinnati Reds. The Reds called upon four pitchers to stem the tide, but it was to no avail.

OLYMPIC TEAM ARRIVES SAFELY IN AMSTERDAM

AMSTERDAM, Holland, July 20.—(AP)—The American Olympic team, in fine fettle and ready for the historic games at the Amsterdam stadium, arrived aboard the steamship President Roosevelt at 11:45 o'clock this afternoon.

The President Roosevelt was sighted entering Amsterdam harbor about 1:30 p. m., and at 1:50 the vessel was in the dock amid the cheers of many spectators, who crowded the pier to welcome the American athletes.

The American colony burned out in full force to greet the Olympic team as the President Roosevelt docked.

The official welcome party included Consul General Charles L. Hoover, Mrs. Hoover, Joseph MacCabe, in charge of the Olympic committee's Amsterdam office; C. T. Kirby, past president of the Olympic committee's Amsterdam office, and a group of American students.

Richard M. Todd, American minister at The Hague; Commandant Robert R. M. Emmet, and Olympic Attaché Roy Smith, boarded the President Roosevelt at Llundan to welcome the Olympic athletes, and sailed upstream with them to Amsterdam.

The girl swimmers immediately were taken to the Shell oil company's tanks and the men to the marine auditorium for practice. The track athletes went to the stadium practice grounds and to the gymnasium of the Amsterdam police.

Arrangements also were made to give the various crews a practice run on the Staten canal later in the day.

All Amsterdam will have a chance to make the acquaintance of the American athletes on the evening of July 26, when a reception is scheduled aboard the President Roosevelt.

"We don't care whether 10,000 people crowd the ship," Gustavus T. Kirby, president of the American Olympic committee, said. "We do want the Amsterdamers to know our athletes and have our hosts know how much we appreciate their being here."

The athletes of the other nations will be entertained aboard on July 28, while representatives of the Dutch government and Olympic officials will be invited to a banquet at the Royal Hotel on August 7.

STILL POSSIBLE THAT VICTOR WILL JOIN WITH RADIO

NEW YORK, July 20.—(AP)—A merger of Victor Talking Machine company and the Radio Corporation of America is still a possibility, and further negotiations to this end are expected, Edward E. Shub, manager of Victor Talking Machine company, said on his return from Europe today.

Such a combination would be of tremendous benefit to both companies, he added. "It stands to reason that the combined facilities of both companies under one management would work toward greater economy, which in the end could be passed on to the public. Radio and talking machine are not competitors, and a consolidation of the two at normal cost is logical."

Mr. Shubaker said the outlook for Victor earnings this year was the best in his history.

Discussing possibility of an increase in the current dividend rate on common stock of the Victor company, Mr. Shubaker said although it was not improbable, the present policy of the company was directed more toward establishing fair surplus for future contingencies, rather than immediate increase in the dividend return to stockholders.

WOMAN HELD IN MAN'S HOME FOR WEEKS, ESCAPES

ATLANTA, Ga., July 20.—(AP)—A woman whose experiences in the last two years rival the most fantastic in adventure fiction, and over whom one innocent man has been shot in that time, was in Tallahassee, Fla., today, planning to join her four children here immediately.

She is Mrs. W. O. Heath, a worker in a local publishing house, who appeared at Tallahassee police headquarters yesterday with the statement that she had just escaped from a Lakeland, Fla., home where she had been held for two weeks. She named as her captors Fred D. Fair, an Atlanta prison guard, for whom police began an immediate search.

Her story checked with that of her cousin, J. R. Griffin, who reported to police two weeks ago that he was compelled at the point of Fair's gun to lure Mrs. Heath from the home of relatives and into an automobile with them. Griffin then was forced out of the car.

The man who was shot in John Zink of Atlanta, wounded the night after Mrs. Heath disappeared with Fair, by Heath, the husband, and other relations, who admitted they were "burning" for Fair. Zink had left a house next door to the Fair home. Heath, in jail in default of bond in the Zink case, was newspapered today at his wife's release.

Mrs. Heath's story of the capture related how she was taken to Lakeland by Fair and placed in a home there with another woman as guard. She escaped yesterday, she said, while Fair was away and the woman temporarily had relaxed her vigil. Motorists gave her a ride to Tampa. She said she had passed city roadblock Fair set at Atlanta, and that she was forced once to leave him placed under a police guard.

LOSS OF TILDEN SPURS U. S. STARS TO BIG VICTORY

ATLANTA, Fla., July 20.—(AP)—America's Davis cup tennis champions, onus Tilden, produced a great surprise today by winning the first two singles matches of the intensive final contest with Italy, both in straight sets.

After Francis T. Hunter had defeated Paolo Gottini in the first match by 6-1, 6-1, 6-0 John Hennessey, seventh rated American, bested the Italian, 6-4, 7-5, 6-2.

Tennis drama of the highest sort was packed into the Hennessey-Murphy match as the young American, after a poor start, fought his way on from behind in both the first and second sets to win them and then saved the individual deciding set at top speed.

The overwhelming victory of Hunter in the first match exceeded the hopes of American spectators, but it remained for Hennessey to provide the real street of the day by downing Murphy, who was heavily favored to win on both his singles matches.
