Do you enjoy your food?

If you do not enjoy your food it is a true sign that you are losing your appetite. And when your appetite is "gone" it means you haven't the resistance to ward off diseases. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play.

Now! mealtime is a happy event strong, and your nerves become steady.

Rich, red, blood builds and sustains
Your physician will tell you that lowered vitality is the result of an insufficient supply of red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

When you get your blood cells back up to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, loss of appetite, rheumatism, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again; sleep soundly; solid flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. You feel

When you come home from a hot day's work, quench your thirst with "Canada Dry"

IT HAS been one of those really hot days . . . bright sun . . . glaring heat . . . a breeze like the breath from a furnace. The kind of a day which leaves people gasping, tired, no appetite.

You get home. And there awaiting you is a cool, heady glass of "Canada Dry." How refreshing it is! How its subtle, gingery taste perks up your appetite! And how you sit down to dinner with renewed vigor, just as if this hadn't seemed the hottest day of the year!

The finest quality of Jamaica ginger and other absolutely pure ingredients in "Canada Dry" recommend it as a hot-weather drink. For ginger is really good for your digestion. By a secret method the carbonation of "Canada Dry" retains its sparkle long after the bottle is opened. This makes it especially healthful.

Serve "Canada Dry" this summer. Drink it between meals. Order it because you know that this ginger ale is a full-bodied, mellow, balanced beverage—a real ginger ale!

CONVENTION OF EASTERN STAR IS A TURBULENT ONE

DENVER, July 24.—(AP)—Several hundred members of the Order of Eastern Star stormed the doors of the city auditorium last night when they were denied entrance to an executive session of the order's triennial convention.

For an hour the large lobby of the auditorium was the scene of disorder and attempts by Gov. John Hamill, Philip Ferguson and other officials of the order, to pacify the members fanned.

One group of men forming a flying wedge and charged the doors, while both men and women raised their voices to shouts in demanding admittance. Ferguson, he comes the new grand patron today. He explained to the women that "it was moved, seconded and passed that the general grand chapter go into executive session Wednesday night." His statement was met with cries of "it was not." Some shouted, "We've paid our dues. We support the grand chapter. Why all this secrecy?"

The question before the meeting which went on as an executive conference, was the proposed revision of the ritual. Whether it was voted upon was not known.

Some members of the lobby declared they had come from long distances and demanded admittance to the convention floor.

After an hour and they still failed to gain entrance, the crowd dispersed.

GIRL ASSAULTER IS SHOT DEAD BY CITY CONSTABLE

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 24.—(AP)—A riot gun in the hands of Constable Arthur Bennett of Fairfield, ended the life early today of David Havy, 22, who shot and seriously wounded Constable Hershah R. Elwood last night.

Havy, who escaped after shooting Elwood, was located in a barn at the rear of his father-in-law's home. Bennett swung open the barn door and was immediately fired on, a bullet entering his wrist. Despite his wound he raised the riot gun, and shot down Havy, who was preparing to flee again. Death was instantaneous.

Elwood went to the Havy home on complaint that Havy was attempting to assault his eight-year-old daughter. Elwood was fired on as soon as the door opened in response to his knock. Several bullets entered his body. Havy fled.

Two bullets hit Elwood. His condition was serious.

PORTLAND BARBER HAS CLOSE SHAVE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 24.—(AP)—Two old women saboteurs built on the edge of Algonquin Union, on First street, collapsed last night. Miss Wolf, a barber, and two patrons in his shop, had a narrow escape when the crash came. They were extricated from the debris by neighbors.

Firemen and others searched the wreckage, following a report that a woman might have been buried, but no trace of any victim was found.

17-YEAR-OLD GIRL ABANDONED HER BABY

OREGON CITY, Ore., July 24.—(AP)—Sheriff E. T. Mann said today that a mentally test will be given Pearl Quonett, 17, who confessed that she was the mother of an infant found abandoned near Oregon City last Thursday. The girl admitted to officers that she and her mother abandoned the baby, believing it to be dying.

Gaucha Opens at Craterian Today

Douglas Fairbanks again "from the left" with his new production, Douglas Fairbanks as "The Gaucha," which opened this afternoon at Hunt's Craterian Theatre. The star appears as a Robin Hood of the pampas, the dashing captain of a band of outlaw riders, who captures a beautiful shrine city under the nose of the usurper's troops. The Fairbanks of old is in a freshly entrancing setting, and he plays with the bravado and whirlwind ardor suitable to the time and its emotional people.

From beginning to end, "Douglas Fairbanks as 'The Gaucha'" holds its audience. The mystery of the shrine, the towering peaks, the battles of the Gauchos, the grim odds which face the hero and the lure of gold and fair women are powerful elements for success.

Lips "vocal" as the wild "yell of the mountains" appears in fascinating contrast to the "yell of the miracle" played by Mrs. Southern, whose spiritual power over the Gaucha leader evokes the jealousy of the other.

Another big feature on the program is the "Boy Family," those well-known sandville artists who are appearing in one of the two acts of "Talkies." He found somewhat dusty and during working hours it is operated under the following control system: Automobiles are permitted over the road from both ends at 8:45 a. m., 11:15 a. m., 12:15 p. m. and 2:45 p. m. The road, however, is open all night from 5:30 p. m. until 5 a. m.

The Pacific-highway is in good condition south into California, with the exception of construction work between Lakonia and the Shasta county line in California.

At Boulder creek there is a sharp turn where a bridge is being installed. This piece of road is well stoned, but motorists should use great caution in approaching the curve. North of Boulder creek there are four large steam shovels at work and numerous trucks engaged in hauling material. There are flagmen at each shovel so there is no danger, but careful driving is recommended.

Lucky David!

NEW YORK, July 25.—(AP)—David Belasco feels like 21, so what difference does his age make on his birthday? He is 49, 70 or 91, he doesn't know which. "As long as I go on," he says, "I grow fonder of work and increase my capacity for it. I find life very beautiful."

HIGHWAY CONDITIONS

All main roads in Oregon, Washington and California are in good condition and are carrying maximum traffic. The tourist season after a late beginning, is on and in full blast.

Tourists this year are using camps to a greatly increased extent and all over the country these camps, sometimes representing a tremendous investment, have sprung up like magic. A chain of cabin camps, representing an investment of some $200,000 for each unit, is now planned. Units will be established in every large city in the country.

Redwood highway, in spite of new construction, is carrying a considerable volume of traffic due to the well-advertised scenic attraction of this road, in addition to the fact that it offers a loop trip to the Oregonian touring in California. You may go by either the Redwood or Pacific highway and return by the alternative route. This scenic route is in fair condition throughout. The only inconvenience is experienced between the Klamath river and the town of Crater. This piece of road will be found somewhat dusty and during working hours it is operated under the following control system: Automobiles are permitted over the road from both ends at 8:45 a. m., 11:15 a. m., 12:15 p. m. and 2:45 p. m. The road, however, is open all night from 5:30 p. m. until 5 a. m.

SUSPECT SON-IN-LAW MURDERED WEALTHY FATHER

LAKE CITY, Ind., July 24.—(AP)—A summer murder, which has for its victim, G. W. Simmons, aged tourist of Meubenville, Ohio, today confronted Columbia county authorities, while officers over the state were on the lookout for Simmons' grand-daughter and son-in-law, who were seen with him last night.

Sheriff W. H. Douglas picked together fragments of stories brought in by his deputies, surmised that Simmons' skull was crushed with a hammer during a struggle in a moving automobile on the outskirts of the Lake City, and his body thrown into a clump of bushes by the roadside, where it was found.

Sheriff Douglas had information from Ohio that Mrs. H. O. Booth, the grand-daughter, recently was made beneficiary under Simmons' will, but was unable to say how wealthy the Ohioan might have been.

Meubenville, Jacksonville police were holding an unclaimed automobile bearing blood stains and identified as a small sedan, in which Mrs. Booth, Simmons and E. L. Booth, the son-in-law, left Lake City tourist cottage late Monday night, or early yesterday. Although police watched the car for several hours yesterday in the hope the ravens would return, none came and it was seized.
