ROGUE RIVER HAS REAL FIRE WHEN BARN IS BURNED

By Mrs. Myrtle E. Whipple.

ROGUE RIVER, July 25.—At 5:30 o'clock Friday morning the fire alarm sounded and awoke the people up pretty sudden as to hear the fire bell in Rogue River is very unusual. A large barn belonging to A. T. McIlvain was burning down. The night was still and the fire did but little damage to other buildings. The little house of Ralph Witt suffered a badly scorched roof but was soon put out. It is not known just how the fire started, but as Mr. McIlvain was burning grass around the barn early in the evening it is supposed a spark smouldered until the late hour, when it gained enough power to become a blaze.

Ed Dimmick, W. H. Sparks and J. R. Bowen of the Enterprise Grange, I. T. Galligan, Reed Carter and Oscar Shepherd of Live Oak Grange, attended a marketing meeting in Medford on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Blutean from Scranton, Pa., arrived at their home here last week, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burkhart moved to their home again. Burkharts have been caring for the Blutean place the past year.

Mrs. Roy Campbell has been visiting her husband over at Klamath Falls where he is employed on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Duffield of Oakland, Cal., visited Mrs. Martha Seiders a few days on their return trip from Idaho.

Dr. C. J. Mosier of Grants Pass was called Wednesday in the night to attend Fred Dougley who was very sick. Mr. Dougley is better at this writing.

Miss Frances Fitzgerald and mother of Sams Valley spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Bob Burkhart.

"Hot! Well, I guess it is hot in Rogue River," Mr. J. E. Corey was heard to say when he looked at his thermometer. "Bring me a piece of ice quick before my thermometer busts."

The regular quarterly meeting of the Jackson County Pomona Grange meets with the Enterprise Grange at Wimer Saturday, July 28 at 11 a. m. There will be the usual Grange dinner. Lecture hour and business session. The major subject for discussion will be "Marketing."

Mrs. Reed Carter and Mrs. Oscar Shepherd attended a swimming party and pot luck supper in the park at Grants Pass Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shepherd were dinner guests Sunday at the Trotter home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rowe are enjoying an outing which will take in Diamond Lake and Pelican Bay.

James Pelton, who is in the valley from Fort Klamath, accompanied John Orth of Medford on a visit with Sams Valley friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schulz and little ones of Medford visited and picnicked at the river with M. A. Schulz and family Sunday.

The Dick Straus family were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when two old-time friends from Storm Lake, Iowa, called on them. The Harris and Straus families had not met for 16 years.

The high degree of heat Sunday brought scores of town and country residents to the river at the Lyman place.

Leslie Cook and wife are spending a week in the valley while Mr. Cook, who is in business in Portland, is enjoying a vacation. Mr. Cook spent Sunday with his father, J. A. Cook.

The Sams Valley Grange drill team will put on the first and second degrees to a large class of candidates at the Lake Creek Grange Friday evening.

Fred Loveland bought several tons of baled hay from Max Schulz and J. L. Rowe which he is trucking to Crescent City.

Con Devore, Medford butcher, was buying beef from W. A. Tresham Wednesday.

E. R. Day lost a valuable young horse Wednesday which apparently died from the heat. The horse was in fine shape and had been used on the header, from which it was returning home when it dropped dead in the road.

Mrs. E. A. Wilhite, in company with Mrs. Frink and daughters, visited her son, Clarence, and family Tuesday at Lake Creek.

The Saturday night Grange was entertained by a volunteer program which afforded some amusing numbers. The busy time kept many from attending. The members were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Straumire of the Central Point Grange visit them.

The first home-grown watermelons for the year appeared on the scene Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dodge and children of Medford and Miss Doris Richardson of Beall Lane visited with Sams Valley relatives Sunday.

Mrs. John Hall, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Eluet and Miss Marjorie, visited Sunday with friends in Illinois Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ham and children of Portland are visiting Mr. Ham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyman. The Hams may decide to locate again in the Rogue River valley.

PLANT BROCCOLI WILLOW SPRINGS FOR FALL MARKET

WILLOW SPRINGS, July 26.—Dohnert brothers are setting a two acre tract near the Pine Grove to broccoli for the fall and winter market. Otto Dohnert is now marketing watermelons in truckload lots. The melons are not large but are of excellent quality.

The garage and large barn on the W. B. Harris ranch at Seven Oaks were destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon. A stubble field across the road caught from sparks and a large strawstack belonging to Arnold Dohnert was destroyed. The fire alarm was turned in on the telephone lines, and the neighborhood responded with its usual promptness and rendered every assistance possible. But for this the home and all other buildings would have burned. Mrs. Harris wishes to thank all those who assisted.

Mrs. George Murray and son of Portland, arrived Sunday at the home of Mrs. Murray's sister, Mrs. Sam Anderson. Mrs. Murray returned to Portland on Monday but her son will visit here until school opens.

The employes of the Scherer orchards have been unloading a carload of lug boxes from the Seven Oaks siding. The first picking of Bartletts will begin about the first of August.

W. O. Clarke, one of the former owners of the Texas Dahlia orchard and now connected with the state banking department at Salem, spent the first of the week in southern Oregon on business. While here he called on friends in this vicinity.

Are your hot biscuits quite to your liking?

Try This Tested Recipe

Baking Powder Biscuits

4 cups white flour measured after sifting
8 level teaspoons baking powder (cut level with knife)
1 level teaspoon salt
1½ cups milk
⅓ cup melted WILD ROSE LARD

Sift dry ingredients into mixing bowl, leaving hollow in center as in mixing bread. Pour in milk, then float melted lard on top, stir from center out (wooden spoon is best), until mixture leaves sides of bowl. Turn out on floured board or cloth, roll lightly, cut, dip in melted butter and bake on cooky sheet, well apart to brown all around.

WILD ROSE BRAND PURE LARD — made fresh daily — tested and approved by generations of good cooks and pastry makers—imparts just the right flavor and goodness that will make your biscuits a never-failing triumph. Can be had in pails and handy one-pound cartons.

Made by Frye & Co., Seattle. Under U. S. Govt. Inspection. Sold by leading dealers.
