

SWIMMING IS CHIEF PURSUIT AT TABLE ROCK

TABLE ROCK, July 26.—A new frigidarium was recently installed at the Schaffer home.

Willard Housley is making preparations to build on his newly acquired property in the Tuttle subdivision.

Mel Atkins and family, who returned recently from a motor trip to Montana and the Dakotas, have moved to their ranch home on Sprague River in Klamath county.

Mr. Warner the Central Point plumber, installed a range boiler and bath equipment in the C. W. Sage home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hulible of Oakland, Cal., have returned after spending a couple of weeks visiting relatives and friends in this and other sections of the valley.

Frank Myers and family expect to leave Saturday to visit relatives in Seattle, while Frank is taking his annual two-week vacation.

Mrs. Lulu Penland moved to Medford Tuesday, where she is preparing to open up her boarding and rooming house.

Miss Mildred Gregory, who has been visiting her great-grandmother at Bandon for the past two weeks, is expected home the last of the week.

The G. V. Newwood family have moved to Medford, where Mr. Newwood has employment with the Babner corporation. The Newwoods, during their several years residence here have proved quite an asset to the neighborhood and their many friends hasten to see them leave the district.

Earl Case of Beagle is delivering the next winter's wood supply for the Table Rock school district. Several persons from Medford were baptised into the faith of the Nazarene church last Sunday here at the river.

For the past week the river has been the most popular place in this section, hundreds of people taking advantage of the cooling effects of a swim in the clear, cool water. No matter how sultry and hot the air is, one is cool immediately after plunging into the cold waters of this mountain stream.

The S. C. Collins family enjoyed a week-end trip to Crescent City, returning Monday.

Lora Gregory is doing some remodeling work on his house, which was until recently occupied by the Newwood family, and expects to move his family into it before long, where they will make their home.

O. L. Davis and Hershel Harper returned Monday from the Evans creek district, where they staked out claims of copper and radium ores. While they were coming out Monday, they saw a wild turkey hen and her brood of little ones, which were in the woods about a mile from the Dinkens place.

Mrs. Don Van Fleet of Klamath Falls is visiting relatives at the Schaffer home and accompanied Mrs. Schaffer and children on a trip to Bandon and Crescent City the first of the week.

The Dooling and Lydard party, who have been touring the north-west and Canada returned home the first of the week.

Farmers in this section report a much greater number of pleasant hours destroyed than usual during the harvesting of their second crop of alfalfa.

L. C. Schaffer is in Portland, having been called there by the serious illness of his mother.

The Sams Valley grimes dell team are preparing to go to Lake Creek Friday night, where they will put on the first and second degree work to a class of 40.

A party was held last Saturday night by the young people of the Central Point Christian Endeavor at the Seabrook home, which was attended by 25 of the members, who are unanimous in declaring it one of the best parties of the season.

This seems to be vacation time for many in this section, many going for a trip to the mountains or elsewhere. Some are going for a two weeks' outing and others for a shorter time. However, for many, their vacation will consist of a day's trip if any at all.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nussbaum and children enjoyed a Sunday's outing at Dead Indian soda springs.

Ed Taylor and Mrs. Amy Johnson, relatives of L. H. Wyant, visited at the Wyant home the first of the week. Mrs. Johnson's sister, recently returned from Ohio to the northern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes of Medford and niece of near Eagle Point jumped at Lake Creek Monday and Tuesday.

There will be a school meeting at Lake Creek hall Tuesday, July 31, at 2 o'clock to decide the question of putting the school house on the road or leaving it in the field. We hope the voters of the district will come and help decide as it is important.

There were a good many people picnicking at Lake Creek yesterday, also several parties at Dead Indian Soda Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Moore were

Sunday dinner guests at the L. C. Beigs home.

George Stewart of Medford spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Loren Parlow.

Mrs. John Walsh had as guests Sunday, her father, Charles Newstrom, and her brother, Ted Newstrom, and wife of Grants Pass.

The W. M. Huff family left Monday for a few days' outing at Diamond Lake. Mr. Peck accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grzesby and son and Harry Tom were week end guests of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tom. The men went to Last Lake fishing Sunday but returned with the fisherman's usual haul last story.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Moore went to Sam's Valley Tuesday to see Mr. Moore's brother.

Mrs. E. R. Jones and son, Redman, returned home Monday from Soda Springs.

Texas Hagood came home Monday from Clifton.

Miss Rida White, who was at home several days last week, returned to her work in Faber & Chiswick's store at Eagle Point.

CARVER—Cassidables can now be run in December on several trial runs.

Creek county growers will raise 900 acres of potatoes this year, a bumper crop.

REESE CREEK RIPLETS

The sun weather is here in full force since last Friday evening it has been getting hotter each day and two wonders which will come. A thunder storm would be inevitable. Vegetation shows the signs of the hot sun, even though it is not wet. There were only 37 at the Sunday school last Sunday, the last weather having its effect. (Sketch some more on this.)

The regular meetings on Thursday evenings are quite well attended. There were 25 out last Thursday. Mr. Commons led the meeting. Mrs. Mildred Housley will lead this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Robertson and children visited at the home of Lewis Robertson last Sunday.

Rev. Caviness was home on a vacation for a week.

The Dennis family is away on a vacation.

John and Eli Stille are building the Trail school house.

Miss Myrtle Winter arrived home Wednesday from Monmouth. She expects to work in the fruit a while and later return to her studies.

ACTORIA—Lower Columbia Co. operates Dairy association and back for Commerce perfect plan for long-time dairy boys.

Odds and Ends in Boys' Clothing Going at One Half Price

RUSSELL'S

"MEDFORD'S OWN STORE"

Look for Dollar Day
Specials
Not Advertised Here

DOLLAR DAY

Medford's Own Store Offers With Genuine Enthusiasm Another Dollar Day
—a Day that means so much in Savings to every thrifty shopper—This

Sale Starts Saturday Morning and Is Saturday Only

Bungalow Aprons

Good grade gingham, value, $1.25.

2 for

$1.00

House Dresses

One lot ladies' and children's house dresses of prints and dimities, $1.39 value.

$1.00

Misses' Sport Hose

Full length, rayon and lisle, 50c value.

3 Pair for

$1.00

Table Cloths

54x54 with 6 napkins
18x18, $1.49 value
Indian head material,
rose and blue patterns.

$1.00

Towels

$1.25 and $1.50 fancy bath
towels $1.00

85c Jumbo towels 2 for $1.00

39c bath towels 4 for $1.00

Corsets

Corsets, girdles, and corselettes. One lot, values to $5.00, $1.00 each

COATS

Every Coat Need
Can Be Met Here!

There is only one reduction on absolutely the entire stock, at Russell's

1/2 Price

Coats for dress and sports. Simple or elaborate, as you wish.
You will find them altogether to your taste and to your purse at One-Half Price.

$1.25 3-piece buffet set
for $1.00
$1.25 scarfs $1.00
$1.25 pillows $1.00

Lovely Printed FROCKS

$15 to $21.75 Values

$12.75

Just the kind of values that will appeal to every woman or miss who appreciates stylishness and charm—it is the unusual touches of the season's popular modes which make these dresses so delightfully attractive in georgettes, prints, chiffon and flat crepe.

ALL OTHER DRESSES
at 20% Reduction

49c Voiles, Dimity, Batiste, 3 yards. $1.00
59c Supertwist, Tomorrow, 2 yards $1.00
59c Plain Colored Rayon, 2 yards $1.00
59c Plain Broadcloth, Tomorrow, 2 yards . . $1.00
65c Raygloss, Dollar Day, 2 yards $1.00
69c Pongee Silk, Tomorrow, 2 yards $1.00
$1.19 Plain Rayon Voile, Special, yard . . . $1.00
25c Percales, Dollar Day, 5 yards $1.00
25c Ginghams, Dollar Special, 5 yards . . . $1.00
29c Cotton Prints, Tomorrow, 5 yards . . . $1.00
35c Dress Voiles on Sale at, 4 yards $1.00
39c Rayon Stripe Shirting, 4 yards $1.00

Women's Hosiery

One lot of ladies' and children's hose, both silk and lisle. Values to $1.00.

4 Pair for
$1.00

Another Hose Special

One lot of ladies
hose, values to $1.95,
for

$1.00

Play Suits

Children's play suits,
khaki, blue, stripe
and check, $1.25 value, for

$1.00

Kotex 3 boxes

$1.00

Garter Girdles

New models, several styles, $1.25 value. $1.00

Garters

50c and 59c values,
3 pair for $1.00

Brassieres and Bandeaux

Satin, lace and jersey, values to $1.25, $1.00
2 for

LAKE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nussbaum and children enjoyed a Sunday's outing at Dead Indian soda springs.

Ed Taylor and Mrs. Amy Johnson, relatives of L. H. Wyant, visited at the Wyant home the first of the week. Mrs. Johnson's sister, recently returned from Ohio to the northern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes of Medford and niece of near Eagle Point jumped at Lake Creek Monday and Tuesday.

There will be a school meeting at Lake Creek hall Tuesday, July 31, at 2 o'clock to decide the question of putting the school house on the road or leaving it in the field. We hope the voters of the district will come and help decide as it is important.

There were a good many people picnicking at Lake Creek yesterday, also several parties at Dead Indian Soda Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Moore were