BUSINESS GOSPEL TEAM HAS MEET AT ELKTON, ORE.

Two meetings were held in different sections of the country Sunday, July 29th. A delegation of the gospel team left Medford at 4:30 a. m. and drove to Elkton, Oregon, where a service was held at 11 a. m. Song Director Forchese, and his brother rendered a couple of inspiring vocal duets. The speaker from the gospel team, Guy Davis, gave a short message, using as his subject the "Bride of Life."

After this meeting the delegation drove to Cottage Grove where they opened the afternoon service of the Methodist conference camp meeting. Director Forchese led the singing of the large audience in a very creditable manner. Messrs. Perdue rendered an inspiring duet, which was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. The president of the gospel team, Guy Davis spoke briefly on the invitation, organization and aim of the team. Mr. Davis' opening statement was: "Like Californians we are proud of Medford, and in like manner we are proud of our gospel team and like all Christians we are proud of that fact. We are proud of the cooperation of the pastors of our city."

This meeting was one of the best and most enthusiastic that the team has held and those unable to attend missed a rare treat.

BALMY WEATHER FORERUNNER OF WARMER DAYS

Sunday with a maximum of 93 was much cooler than Saturday, which has had a maximum of 98, and last night for the first time in a week past was so cool that bed blankets felt very comfortable.

Today was a comparatively cool one, but it is too soon yet to think that the weather is returning to normal, for a slightly warmer temperature is forecasted for tomorrow. However, the cooler temperature and higher humidity has lessened to much extent the forest fire hazard.

No new fires on the Crater National forest and the state district fire warden's territory had been reported up to early this afternoon since Saturday, and all the old forest fires in the territory named are under control.

There was much smoke in the valley today, however, which is understood to come from a big forest fire now in the Siskiyou forest in Josephine county.

A physician was rushed from this city by Traffic Officer J. O. Nichols to render medical aid to Mrs. Harland, who was bleeding profusely.
