PADDOCK FAILS TO GET A PLACE IN SEMI-FINAL

Fastest Flying Human, Who Entered Olympics Under Protest, Completely Out-classed On Muddy Track — Canadian Star Wins Again.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Charlie Paddock, American sprint star, was eliminated in the first 200 meter semi-final Olympic event today. The track was soggy and a drizzling rain was falling.

Charlie Paddock.

of the United States and the University of Michigan turned the trick in 1912.

Williams flashed a spectacular finish to overtake Kouring in the last 15 meters.

America's defeat in the 200-meter final was presaged by the elimination of three of the most prominent standard-bearers in earlier heats. Paddock was not alone in carrying the Stars and Stripes in the final when Charley Paddock and Henry Cummings found the pace of the semi-final earlier in the day but they were eliminated, while Charley Booth failed to qualify yesterday.

Williams' showing was an undeniably brilliant throughout the 200-meter preliminaries as it had been at the shorter distance in which he upset the dope by winning the championship and his victory in the final was a crowning glorious achievement.

Victor Nearly Mobbed.

Williams, as in the 100, had tremendous cheering for the final dash after trailing the leaders until near the finish. The early-haired Canadian boy was unbeatable as the Americans were shut out in the Olympic sprint for the first time in 20 years.

Williams was nearly mobbed, and was photographed with a Canadian flag draped around him.

The time of the 200 meters was 27.4-5 seconds, 1-5 second slower than the record.

Lloyd Hahn, the United States hope in the middle distance, who was beaten badly in the 800 meters yesterday, was eliminated from the 1500 meters today in the second trial heat, quitting 100 meters from the finish when hopelessly defeated.

Herbert Hoover of Germany won the heat.

This ended in ignominious failure the high hopes of Hahn, the ace of the American pack, and his countrymen, that he would be able to emulate the feat accomplished by Mel Shepard in 1908, and score a double in the classic Olympic fixtures. Hahn's showing was even more dismal today than it was yesterday when he was fifth in the 800 which Douglas Lowe of Britain won.

Yale Pole Vaulter Wins.

America found satisfaction when Sabia Carr and William Dorega-Mueller, pole vaulters, both shattered the Olympic record, clearing at 4.10 meters, the equivalent of 13 feet, 5-16 inches.

Dorega-Mueller again shattered the pole vault record a few minutes later when he went over the bar at 4.20 meters, or 13 feet, 9-16 inches.

Paul Houser held up the United States reputation for strength in the field events by winning the discus championship with an Olympic record-breaking toss of 47.32 meters or 155 feet 2-16-128 inches.

The Los Angeles dentist thus retained his title won in 1924 when his winning effort was 46.15 meters and broke his own Olympic record set on that occasion which is the equivalent of 151 feet, 5-16 inches.

The Stars and Stripes went up on all three poles for the first time when Charley McGinnis, the little Chicagoan, took third place in the pole vault, with 2.95 meters, or 9 feet 11-16 inches. McGinnis tied with Vic Packard of Canada and Lee Barnes, who shared the Olympic championship in 1924 through a tie with Glenn Graham, for third place today, but won the jump-off for the medal. Packard then beat Barnes for the fourth place point.

The Pastor Is Sharp.

SALLEM, Ore., Aug. 1.—(AP)—"Modern woman's dress is like a barbed wire fence," it protests with out obstructing the view," Rev. P. C. Taylor, pastor of the First Methodist church here, told the Rotary club this noon. He was describing a visit to the California beaches.

County Court Meets.

The county monthly session of the county court was held today with the full board in attendance. The chief task was the signing of the county payroll, and the regular first of the month bills. There was no business other than routine before the court.

He May Meet Ashland's Fistic Favorite

Dick Rannies, Los Angeles butler and friend of Jack Woods, accompanied by his manager, Ray Brewer, arrived in Medford today on a short visit here. While here, Mr. Brewer and Jack Woods are anxious to pit the southern boy against the flashy Ashland fighter, Gene O'Grady, in spite of the fact that the Ashland adherents are more than confident that he can make the victor take the count.

Rannies is working out this week at the arena gym in preparation for a possible mix with O'Grady. He weighs 152 pounds and should be a good opponent for the trouble City boxer.

YANKS SNAP OUT OF IT, BUT FAIL TO GAIN ON A'S

(By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer)

Groggy and reeling from a succession of rude blows suffered since they invaded the West, the Yanks, temporarily at least have checked a promising losing streak—promising, that is, to the rest of the American league.

After taking three straight on the chin at Cleveland, the champions turned on their tormentors yesterday and beat the Indians 12 to 9 in a wild battle. This victory profited the Yanks nothing, however, except to keep the Philadelphia Athletics riding the crest of an eight-game winning streak, five and a half games away from them in the standings.

The Athletics apparently have the St. Louis Browns' number for the fourth straight day and the ninth straight time, the A's beat the Browns, this time by 8 to 4. Six home runs featured the battle, two by Haas and four by the Macknorn.

Taking over the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 2, the Detroit Tigers registered their seventh victory in their last eight games.

Ted Blankenship blew up in the eighth inning, when the Washington Senators scored four runs, but the Chicago White Sox already had piled up a six-run lead and won, 2 to 0.

The St. Louis Cardinals stretched their National league lead to five games by pounding the Philadelphia Athletics 18 to 5, getting 16 of their runs in four successive innings. Sam Phillips, shortstop, pulled one of the prize "homers" of the season when, thinking there were three out in the fifth inning, he threw the ball into the diamond, 100 feet soaring all the way from first base.

Jackie May weakened in the late innings and Brooklyn beat the second place Reds, 5 to 2.

The New York Giants and Chicago Cubs divided two at the Polo Grounds. The Giants won the first, 8 to 7, by scoring five runs in the ninth inning, and the Cubs won the nightcap, 18 to 4.

Meadows and Brane were 8-4 hard at Boston, where the Braves downed the Corsairs, 41 to 5.

Mickey Heath's timely homer in the tenth not only gave Hollywood the lead and gave the series with the Mission, but also put them into the upper berth of league averages.

While the Stars were winning, 4 to 3, in a close, fast game, Sacramento, league leaders for some weeks, fell to a battling barrage of Oakland, 7 to 6. For seven innings the Star-Hells game was a pitching duel between McCabe and Phillips, then with the Reds having the game virtually clinched, 2 to 1, in the ninth, Hollywood scored twice to tie. Batteries: Holley and McCabe, Basler; Pilette, Baldwin.

With a four-run lead in the ninth, Sacramento had counted another victory until the Oaks came to bat. Even then two men were out and the bases empty before the barrage started that netted five runs and the victory. Batteries: Cooper, Pallas, Dumovich and Daglio; Lombardi and Reid; Gould and Kunz, Koehler.

Dutch Ruether won easily for San Francisco from Los Angeles, 7 to 2, featured principally by Averil's homer, Batteries: Ruether, Spaulding, Bayfoot and Weathersby, Sanderson.

Jack Knight brought the claret-red another victory, his third consecutive, this time from Seattle, 5 to 1. His wild pitch gave the Indians their only run. Batteries: Knight, Whitney; Cole, Cox and Colard, Alinworth.

Today's games: Los Angeles at San Francisco; Missions at Hollywood; Oakland at Sacramento, and Seattle at Portland.

HIGH S. FOOTBALL TEAM IS STUDYING UP ON NEW RULES

The 1928 football rules have been issued, and are being studied by members of the Medford high school football squad. There are no new rules, and only minor changes in the old ones. They chiefly concern the use of the back ward pass before the throwing of a forward pass.

Prink Callison, coach of the Medford team, will return here about the middle of the month, for the opening of the school year. All of last year's team except four who graduated, will be back.

Clifford (Racy) Moore, halfback of the 1927 team, will enter the University of Oregon this fall. Archie Laing, a former high player, will also attend the Eugene school. Both will report for fall practice of the fresh team. Bernard Senn, another high school player will enter O. S. C.

Wendell Archer, a member of last year's fresh team, will be a member of the varsity squad this fall, but will have been competition for a berth at end. Del Anderson, O. S. C. took quarterback last season, is in a better position to make the varsity, being considered the best of four possibilities for the position.

CHANDLER EGAN TO LEAVE FOR TOURNEY

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 1.—(AP)—Six of Oregon's best golfers have been selected to meet a team from California Saturday and Sunday at the Lake Oswego country club.

The Oregon men are H. Chandler Egan, Frank Dohr, Rudy Wilhelm, Ray E. Welling and Don and Ray Moore. California will be represented by Ed Paul Hunter, Jack Neville, Bill Campbell, Charles Sawyer, Harry Kitchelberger and Phillips Linley. Chan Egan, who recently returned to Medford from Pebble Beach, Cal., will leave for Portland tonight or tomorrow, so he can have a few days' practice before the tournament.

DEMSEY MAY COME BACK

That the great slugger would reconsider and that before another year has passed the conqueror of Willard, Flips, Carpenter, Brennan and Gibbons, once more would be found in his corner, awaiting ferociously at an opponent.

There are few who seriously doubt that Dempsey, despite his age, still can defeat virtually every heavyweight contender now on the horizon. When the Massachusetts Mauler decided upon a come-back after he was relieved of his crown by Tunney at Philadelphia in 1926, he was pitted against Jack Sharkey, then considered the man most likely to knock Gene's title from his head. Dempsey knocked out Sharkey in seven rounds and then came within an ace of regaining his title from Tunney at Chicago, flooring the champion in the seventh round, the first time Gene ever had been knocked down.

Feet Spell Downfall

"Big feet" took Mike Haas, above, of Bisbee, Ariz., to the police station in New Orleans, recently. When he alighted from a train, clad in silken finery and stood in the corner of the depot powdering his nose, the matron, observing his huge feet and hands, called a policeman. Mike was escorted to the police station and confessed he had decided to masquerade as a woman and make his fortune selling "pretty things to pretty women." He formerly was a laborer in the copper fields.

Prevents Misunderstanding in Property Deals When You Put Them in ESCROW

ESCROW provides you with the means of "tying up the deal" and of protecting the interests of everybody concerned until all conditions of purchase or sale are fully completed.

Many a good deal has fallen through because of subsequent misunderstandings. ESCROW prevents them. Many a man has had his interests jeopardized by some added demand—ESCROW stops them.

In short, ESCROW means a square deal for all—quick, satisfactory—with actual time saved, money saved, and errors eliminated.
