

TEXAS GUINAN INVITED POLICE TO HAVE DRINK

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(AP) The inside story of how undercover prohibition agents hoodwinked Broadway today was made public in affidavits on file in federal court.

The reports of the agents revealed the easy manner in which the supposedly sophisticated hostesses, owners and head waiters of the city's foremost night clubs accepted them as "big business men" and sold them liquor for which 128 persons from 26 clubs have been indicted.

Helen Morgan, Broadway actress and one of the street's most popular hostesses, the affidavits said, appeared as sure that two of the agents were what they said they were—big business men from Dallas—that she offered to help one set up a night club in Dallas.

Tex Guinan, another affidavit said, invited the supposedly "big business men" to a party she was giving for a moving picture actress and also suggested they visit the night club of her brother Tom.

It was at the Privilege club, the affidavits showed, that the agents gained the perquisite that won them welcome to the other clubs. The headwaiter, Albert, impressed by a liberal spending of money, presented them with a card to Helen Morgan's "summer home."

They had more visits there before, they said, but had been unable to buy liquor. But with the card from "Albert" they purchased champagne at $25 a quart, one and Scotch whiskey at $10 a pint and brandy at $15 a pint.

Other visits followed to Tex Guinan's Salon Royale, the Furman club, the Silver Slipper and the Verdala club.

At all of these places, the affidavits assert, the agents, some of whom were accompanied by their wives, were served liquor in full view of and with the knowledge of the headwaiters and hostesses.

In one of their trips to Helen Morgan's club, they were introduced to Miss Morgan, who joined them at their table and ordered brandy. When they complimented her on the quality of the drink, she responded: "It costs us $8.25 a quart wholesale."

Miss Morgan, according to the affidavit, told them her club did not handle gin because all the college boys drink gin. "We have a lot of them here. They generally have only about $20 to spend in an evening and bring their own gin. They could not afford to pay our prices."

Miss Morgan is quoted as saying that after the raid on her club last winter she made an arrangement with "Campbell" whereby he does not bother her. She evidently referred to prohibition Administrator Maurice Campbell, the agent added.

Miss Guinan who has contended she merely is a hostess and has nothing to do with the ownership of her club, was represented in one of the affidavits as sharing in the profits.

An itemized expense account of one of the agents says: June 13—At Helen Morgan's one pint whiskey two bottles of ginger ale, one quart of champagne, supper $52.75.

June 19—At Helen Morgan's: Drinks and supper, $96.69.

June 25—At Silver Slipper club: Coney chowder, dinner and ginger ale, $17.80. Two quarts champagne, $20.

The champagne the agents purchased, federal officials said, was found, on analysis, to be only charged grape juice spiked with alcohol. The gin and Scotch whiskeys were synthetic stocks of poor quality.

ONE, TWO THREE—AND GO!

And be ready to jump quick! Just for today we can offer a pear orchard which has fair crop maturing and on eighteen acres there stand as fine a lot of Bartlett trees as grow anywhere, in full bearing.

Crop included, we can make you a bargain price on this holding, which will paralyze you if you have a nervous system.

A GENTLE SLOPE AND BUT LITTLE FROST AT ANY TIME. And the very best of pear soil. Water under Medford ditch system, with "Flood Water Right" paid up, reducing annual cost. This is one of our famous tracts, but death intervened and owners are strangers to the possibilities of our pear orchards. Quick action is absolutely necessary.
