40 ET 8 CHOOSE DELEGATES AND AWARD PRIZES

One of the most successful and best attended promenade ever held by the 40 et 8 society was held yesterday afternoon at the armory, which was crowded with 60 et 8 members from all parts of the state. Reports of district chemists were heard, officers were elected and outlines for a program for the coming year were made.

Among the outstanding features of the ensuing year's program is a provision made for the care of graves of all ex-service men in cemeteries in each of the five districts of Oregon. This matter was discussed at the first meeting of the grand lodge held this afternoon at the Hotel Medford, with the following in attendance: Grand Chief de Gare Neil Morrill of Astoria; Chief de Train Herb Siegel of Portland; Correspondent Dr. R. H. Hoskins, Commissioner of Land and Ocean Affairs of Prineville; Grand Conductor Jack Carlin of Vernonia; Carde de la Parte William (The Billy) Brown of Portland; Chemist Nationale Ed Rivers, Grand Doctor Archie Van Clave of Portland; Grand Chemist Geo. Lattimer, district No. 1, Shirley R. Watto of Sheridan, district No. 2; "Blackie" Davis of Baker, district No. 3; Fred Webber, district No. 4; Dr. J. H. Fosburg of Prineville, district No. 5.

At yesterday's promenade the 40 et 8 presented a loving cup to Albert Campbell of Honolulu as being the best outstanding soldier at this summer's military training camp at Vancouver, Wash., based on his points—honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service. Campbell left Honolulu when a young boy and was a prisoner in a German camp during the world war.

Delegates were also selected to represent the Oregon 40 et 8 at the grand promenade at San Antonio, Texas, this fall, in addition to routine business.

Over 400 people were present at last night's "week" at the armory in which 12 new candidates were initiated, making one of the largest "weeks" in the history of the Oregon 40 et 8.

PACIFIC LEGION IS OUT OF DEBT SUPPORT URGED

Annual reports of permanent committees of the department of Oregon were read at the afternoon session of the Pacific Legion here today, and was the principal business to be transacted.

The committee on post activities, first to report, urged that all Legion posts incorporate, as a matter of protection, and to engage in no activity liable to result in the incurring of financial obligations.

The committee on publication, in a tentative report, revealed that the Pacific Legion, the official publication of the department of Oregon, was out of debt and one of the few Legion publications in the land thus blessed.

BRUSH FIRE IN MEADOWS IS PUT OUT BY FARMERS

A fire in brush and grass, reported at the forestry headquarters here at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, two and one-half miles north of Beasle in the district locally known as the Meadows, caused much excitement for a time, and burned over 100 acres before it was gotten under control by the farmers of that district and two men sent out by District State Fire Warden Phelps. This fire is caused by the forestry headquarters as "man started" which does not necessarily mean that it was of incendiary origin, but was probably due to carelessness.

Another fire in grass in the Coker Butte section, reported at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, also resulted in an appeal to the district state fire warden for help, and to which Fire Warden Phelps sent two men, who were extinguished by 5 p. m.

SALEM WOMEN WIN AUXILIARY PRIZE CONTESTS

Salem scored twice this afternoon when members of the women's auxiliary club won the $25 award given by the Medford Auxiliary club in a contest at the Elks temple. There was no other contest.

Following the singing of "Hymns of the Altitude" by the club choir, Salem sangers again prevailed on the program with a quartet under the direction of Miss Lena Belle Taylor, presenting flawless harmony in "Love Like The Day's Dawn" and "Sweet Morn'g" and a trio of $10 by the following: James Stevens, Miss Melba Williams and Miss Emma Masters.

Following women competed in the contest by singing a songs spiritual, "Sweet Morn'g" and "Dawn of Love," both characterized by pleasing harmony.

A dozen pretty girls from Grants Pass, dressed in red and white suits and wearing long, flowing, white veils, the hit of the afternoon with their lively number under the leadership of Mrs. Ted Cramer, official song leader for Auxiliary affairs this week. State officers and other prominent in program activities were present and asked to stand a winner being aimed at each. George Love of Eugene was especially pleased as he was the only man in the audience indicated in the program.

Mrs. William Hougart of Marshfield was chairman of the program.

LIQUOR RAID IN CITY THURSDAY, FOUR ARRESTED

Federal officers Terry Talbot and Clarence Worden, assisted by Sheriff Fred Johnson and State Probation Agent Ackerman, made a booze raid here yesterday afternoon, and the four prisoners taken in that raid were to be given a hearing this afternoon before Justice of Peace Roberts in Ashland.

Three of the four men, W. R. Turpin, Eddie Wyatt and W. A. Collins were arrested on North Central avenue with 14 pounds of moonshine in their car. When the officers appeared, Wyatt leaped from the car and attempted to escape, but was captured by Worden, the federal officer after a struggle.

After taking the three men to the jail the raiding officers went to the house at 363 Beatty street where the prisoners resided and there found G. R. Cavin, who was also arrested and is being held a still with, including large jars, hose, coloring and bottles.

In Justice Roberts' court yesterday afternoon at Ashland J. R. Hibley of Medford on his plea of guilty to possession and transporting was sentenced to pay a $500 fine and to spend 30 days in jail, and Mrs. Louise Sargent, driver of the car loaded with booze when it was intercepted, last Wednesday night near Talent, by Federal Officers Talbot and Worden, was sentenced to a fine of $200 which she was unable to pay, and hence was remanded to the county jail.

LAWYERS TO GIVE DINNER TONIGHT

A special banquet was announced this afternoon by the Jackson County Bar association for all visiting attorneys, who are invited to the Hotel Medford at 5:45 this evening. Plans for the banquet were not formulated until shortly after the noon hour. W. P. McClendon of Washington, D. C., in charge of the federal aeronautical department and who was recently elected national secretary for the American Bar association, will be the speaker of the evening. Efforts were being made late this afternoon to have the attendance of United States Senator Fred Steiwer and Governor L. L. Patterson.

ADRIENNE STEWARD FLIES TO L. ANGELES FOR STYLE SHOW

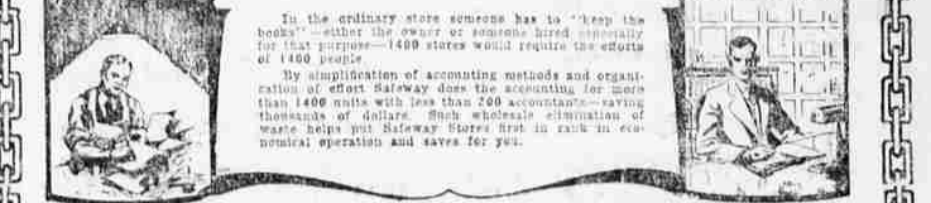

Leaving by airplane this morning Mrs. Adrienne Steward and Miss Paloma Handelman, of Grants Pass, expected to arrive at Los Angeles today in order to attend the women's greatest apparel and style exposition to be held August 6, 7 and 8 at the Hotel Billmore.

SKAGGS SAFEWAY STORES

Distribution Without Waste

Eliminating Waste from Accounting

In the ordinary store someone has to "keep the books"—either the owner or someone hired especially for that purpose—1400 stores would require the efforts of 1400 bookkeepers.

By simplification of accounting methods and organization of effort Safeway does the accounting for more than 1400 stores with less than 200 accountants—saving thousands of dollars. Such wholesale elimination of waste helps put Safeway Stores first in rank in economical operation and saves for you.

BOSS VAREE HAS A GAMBLING CHANCE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 3. Physicians attending William R. Varee of Philadelphia, senator-elect from Pennsylvania, said today that his chance for life was "a gamble."

Mr. Varee suffered a paralytic stroke Wednesday night.

His daughter, Miss Mildred Varee, said he had spent a "fairly comfortable night" but that his condition remained unchanged. He was conscious but very drowsy and able to take but little nourishment. His three physicians were in almost constant attendance upon him during the night.

Dr. Edward H. Kiehl of Philadelphia, Varee's personal physician and friend, declared after a consultation last night with Dr. Edwin Stricker of Philadelphia and Dr. J. C. Marshall of this city, that the senator-elect had practically lost all muscular control.
