

Local and Personal

With the familiar sight of the hundreds of American Legion men and made of the various drum corps and bands absent from the business district today, Medford returned to normalcy. The ex-service men and many other visitors began checking out from the hotels, rooming houses and auto camps yesterday noon. There a number of the veterans and visitors remained over to visit Crater Lake and other scenic attractions hereabout, but the great influx of the convention visitors to all parts of the state began immediately after the parade yesterday afternoon.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Christian church will meet in Linton park, Ashland, Tuesday, Aug. 7. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon and each one is requested to bring a well-filled basket. The committee in charge will serve the drink. The meeting will be opened promptly at 12 o'clock p. m. All members are urged to attend and visitors will be cordially welcomed.

Among petitions filed in voluntary bankruptcy in United States court at Portland last week was one by Paul L. Durkee, cook, of Medford, who gave his liabilities as $4642, and his assets as $50.

Dr. F. G. Thayer, practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat, Medford Bldg. 125.

United States Senator Frederick Steiwer who while attending the American Legion convention here found time to visit Crater Lake for the first time in his life, an hour or so, and was charmed with its grandeur and majesty, left yesterday afternoon for the north, presumably for Portland, enroute to his home at Pendleton. He was so pleased with Crater Lake that he said before leaving that before congress convenes again he would bring his wife and children to the lake, so they can view the wonderful sight.

Have your eyes cared for now by our deferred payment plan. Scientific eye examination—comfortable glasses. Dr. D. A. Chambers, Southern Oregon Optical Co., 317 Medford Bldg. Phone 188. 8917.

L. C. Coon, driver of the Medford-Portland truck line, on his plea of guilty in justice court at Grants Pass last week was fined $20 and costs on the charge of speeding.

A special type of tree props at Big Pine Lbr. Co. 7817.

Miss Lena Belle Tarter, director of the Salem Auxiliary glee club, returned to Salem yesterday in order to be there to sing at the Christian Science church this morning.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 8917.

W. C. Tosche of San Francisco, horticultural editor of the Pacific Rural Press of that city, spent yesterday in Medford visiting with county agents L. P. Wilcox and R. G. Fowler.

"We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pine Lbr. Co. 7817.

Among the Salem visitors who returned to their homes Saturday after spending Thursday and Friday here, were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. DeGuite. Mrs. DeGuite is a member of the prize winning glee club which won a $25 prize yesterday.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 8917.

Completion of installation of poles from Ashland to Rejo by the Interstate Telegraph and Telephone company will be made by the first of this week, and stringing of wires will also be started this week.

Chicken dinners, Covered Wagon, 75c. 151.

Colonel J. P. O'Neil, who is in charge of the Portland recruiting district with headquarters at Portland, left yesterday for his headquarters in Portland, after having acted as a judge at the drum corps contest at the fair grounds Friday evening. While here, Colonel O'Neil consulted with Sergeant Croyle, senior local recruiting officer.

Dressmaking and remodeling, Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg.

"Medford is living up to its reputation in providing entertainment for its visitors. Legionnaires at the convention will vote it the best yet," says the Grants Pass Courier.

Dr. W. W. Howard has returned from his vacation and has resumed his practice. 125.

Sech Schell, well known Portland clothing man, and Bill Jackson of the Portland Journal leave today for San Francisco, after having spent several days here in attendance at the annual state American Legion convention.

Charis representative, Bertha M. Stoneman, 123 N. Oakdale, Phone 858-H. 145.

Members of Salem's prize winning quartet may be sent an official delegate from the state to the national convention which will be held at San Antonio, Texas, in October. Miss Lena Belle Tarter is director of the group.

Swim in drinking water, Merrick's chlorinated pool. 8917.

Seventh Day Adventists of western Oregon opened their camp meeting Thursday at the camp ground at Forest Grove and meetings will continue daily until Sunday, August 12.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pine Lbr. Co. 7817.

Miss Thelma Williams, who has been visiting Miss Fisher, Olson at her home south of Medford, will leave this evening for her home in Patton, Nev.

Among the announcements of recent appointments of the army dental reserve corps from Oregon, with rank of first lieutenant, is that of Robert E. Detrick of Ashland.

Dr. F. G. Thayer, practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat, Medford Bldg. 125.

With fruit picking having begun in a number of the valley orchards, causing a small demand for labor, 114 men and women were given work last week through the local branch of the United States free employment bureau. More help will be needed next week, according to Chris Gottlieb, who is in charge of the local employment branch. The majority of the orchards will begin the picking of pears this week.

Miss Gertrude Juntley is spending a week in Medford visiting friends and plans to return next week to her home in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Drew, who recently traded their 27-acre ranch along the Pacific highway south of Medford for business property in Banning, Cal., left yesterday by motor to take possession of their new property. The Drew ranch, which is immediately south of the fair grounds, will probably be subdivided.

Mrs. Anna Shipley Miller has disposed her eighty-acre ranch on Klamath creek to Donald C. Reams of Medford who will take possession about August 11. Mr. Reams expects to make considerable improvements on the place and make it his home. Mrs. Miller will leave for Oregon City or thereabouts as soon as the transfer is completed, where she will make her home in the future. Gold Hill News.

Lionel Castleman arrived here yesterday from Los Angeles to spend a short vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Castleman.

Tex Rankin, well known Portland aviator who was in Medford during the state American Legion convention left yesterday for his upstate headquarters, after having made a number of passenger flights here. Other members of his employment staff, who were also in Medford over the convention, will probably leave today for Portland.

The Pythian Sisters will hold their next picnic Thursday evening at the Ashland Lathin Park.

The Jackson county institute will be held October 18 and 19, the Josephine county institute, October 8 and 9, and that for Klamath county on September 3 and 4.

O. A. Hubbard of Medford was elected as great ward of the forest at the recent convention of the great council of Oregon, Order of Log Men, at Portland. Plans for a $2,000,000 fund to care for and educate orphans were discussed at the convention.

A "Newcomers Club" is being formed in Grants Pass which has for its purpose the establishment of a social and civic organization exclusively for newcomers in the community in which they can meet socially and also through which they can take over their share of the community's problems.—Grants Pass Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Roster, who left Medford last June on an extended motor wedding tour through the middle western and southern states, arrived last Friday at Leola, R. D., en route home to Medford.

William L. Welby, whose occupation is given as farmer, and his residence as Medford, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in federal court in Portland recently, giving liabilities as $5029.25, and assets as nothing.

E. P. King, who has been in Portland since April employed by the Toy Rankin flying school, has returned to Medford and will take up duties with the California Oregon Power company, with which he was formerly employed.

A recent game was news item, reproduced in the Ashland Times yesterday, was as follows: "Archibald F. C. Clark has in hand the plans for the new Swedenburg brick affair with storerooms below and offices overhead. The plans will be perfected early next week, and the matter of construction will be expedited as soon as the letting of contracts will permit."

There was much disappointment expressed in both local and Legion circles that United States Senator Chas. McNary did not attend the state American Legion convention just ended. He had planned to attend, and had reserved a room at the Hotel Medford, but on Thursday wired from Salem cancelling the reservation, because of inability to come at this time.

Miss Beatrice Peters, of Portland, stopped in Medford a few hours yesterday with a party of friends en route to Crater Lake. Miss Peters is a University of Oregon graduate and has several friends in this city.

Rev. John E. McDonald, pastor of the local Free Methodist church, and Mrs. McDonald leave Monday for a ten days' recreation sojourn at Silettoos lake.

BIG PARADE CONCLUDES
(Continued from Page One.)

Yeoman Bloomers Girls float.
Yeoman Bloomer Girls marching.

Swansea Grove Boy Scout.
Medford Girl Scouts.
Bellflower Girls Boy Scout.
United Artists float.
Redmen.
Kirby Post No. 7.
Rotary float.
Eugene drum corps.
Boy Scouts float.
Junior drum corps.
Junior High School float.
Greater Medford Club float.
Enterprise drum corps.
Whippet cars.
Grants Pass Auxiliary.
Grants Pass Auxiliary float.
Sheridan band.
Sheridan Auxiliary.
Dallas Auxiliary float.
Band drum corps.
Band Auxiliary.
Medford Merchants float.
Aviation float.
Salem Post corps.
Tuttle & Fowler decorated car.
Satchwell float.
Cottage Grove drum corps.
Chrysler cars.
R. V. Williams car.
Ashland Lithians.
Ashland Lithian's float.
Hood River drum corps.
Grants Pass drum corps.
Johnson's Market.
Durant & Star cars.
Corvallis drum corps.
American Fruitgrowers float.
Western Auto Supply Co. float.
So. Oregon Gas Co. float.
Rosenburg drum corps.
Oxon-Oregon Co. float.
Armstrong Motor Co. cars.
Salvation Army.
Peoples Electric Company.
Mutual Seed Co.
John Peck's ambulance.
Coos Bay drum corps.
Yreka Fair Assn float.
Lake County Post, 52, float.
Copco float.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
FOR SALE or EXCHANGE—Yakima valley land. Have a 60-acre ranch to exchange. What have you? Jess Cook, Grandview, Wash. 131.

FOR SALE—5,000 broccoli plants, also cream separator, 2 miles north of Medford, 2 blocks off highway. E. E. Stump. 27.

Hotel Medford
The finest Dollar Dinner in Southern Oregon TODAY
"The Food is Better" at the Medford

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week
Medford Pharmacy
Heath's Drug Store
Strang's Drug Store

Hotel Medford
The finest Dollar Dinner in Southern Oregon TODAY
"The Food is Better" at the Medford

FOR YOUR WINTER
FIRE
Green Pine Slab Wood
12-inch or 16-inch

$2.75 Per Load
2 Loads $5.00
MEDFORD FUEL CO.
1118 North Central
Reichstein Tel. 631 Deuel

Teledo Boy Scouts drum corps.
La Grande Post drum corps.
Cupco tank.
Medford drum corps.
F. P. Bark float.
Frank & Klue float.
Associated Oil Co. float.

The line of march made one of the most colorful parades ever seen in Medford and one of the longest, unhindered as these bands were included and 15 drum corps. The parade moved rapidly and without a hitch, causing the crowds a impatient wait.

Many Legionnaires left yesterday and today will witness the departure of the main bulk of the 2000 or more visitors who came to Medford from all parts of the state. Convention sessions closed yesterday following the election of officers and winding up final business. Bon Caves are planned by many who came to Medford by motor car, but those who arrived by train last night or early this morning for upstate and eastern Oregon destinations.

At yesterday's convention session Ben S. Fisher of Marshfield was elected department president; Don Graham, Prineville, state vice-commander; Thomas Stoughton, finance officer; Cameron Duncan, Cottage Grove, state chaplain; Carl Meyer, state adjutant.

The executive committee was chosen as follows, from a large field: Charles Jones, Hillsboro; Julius Moreland, Sastaca; Sid George, Eugene; Don Meland, Hood River; John Rigas, Hermiston; William Kella, Baker; and Paul Melanoid, Medford.

The delegates to the national convention at San Antonio, Texas, were elected as follows:
First District
A. C. Taylor, Ashland; Bert G. Lutes, Roseburg; Ben Dorris, Eugene; Carl Gabrielson, Salem; A. C. Hoskins, Astoria; and William Gannon, Klamath Falls.
Second District
Lanka Mortimer, Hood River;

Otis Palmer, La Grande; Paul Gemmel, Lebanon; William Keiley, Baker; Fred Kiddle, La Grande.
Third District
Archibald Van Clouse, Earl Goodwin and Joseph Carson, all of Portland.

The winner of the American Legion golf tournament, which was held at the Rogue Valley links, was announced last evening as Roy Keene of the Illhee Golf club of Salem. He turned in a net score of 71 and won a silver loving cup donated by the local American Legion post.

His gross score was 93 and with a handicap of 22 he won, though closely pressed by W. I. Wintler of Eugene, who turned in a gross of 86 for 118 holes. With a handicap of 13, he turned in a net of 73, only two points behind Keene.

The tournament began Thursday and had 25 entrants from various parts of the state. The tournament was in charge of Ralph Cowell, chairman of the golf committee of the convention commission.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 4.—(AP)—A state-wide organization of fire insurance agents is to be effected at a meeting called in Salem Monday by Harvey H. Smith, president of the Oregon Insurance Agents' union.

PHONE 51
Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM
PASTEURIZED - SAFE - PURE PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

BROWNSBORO BITS

The attendance at Sunday school has been small during the hot weather, there being only 19 last Sunday. We were glad to have with us Mr. Swanson and sister, who live near Central Point, and who at one time were residents of Eagle Point.

H. W. Wright, Robert Cowden and L. J. Rohrer were business visitors in Medford Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Clay Williams of Long Beach, Cal., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hansen the latter part of last week. They also made the trip to Crater Lake before returning here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tucker, Viola Morris and the Earl Tucker family spent last Sunday visiting in Central Point.

George Hansen motored over the mountain to Hornbrook on business Tuesday night. He returned on Wednesday, bringing with him his uncle, Claus Peters, who will visit with relatives here for a week and Mrs. Hansen's mother, Mrs. Sarah Spearin, who will visit with them until Sunday.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—(AP)—The Atlantic seaboard states today were sweltering in the third day of a heat wave, that already has taken several lives and caused numerous prostration.

GUARANTEED WATCH REPAIRING
Brydges
JEWELERS
MEDFORD, ORE.

Provide a Home for Your Family

OUR CONVENIENT
HOME LOANS
Make it easily possible. You can pay for your home as you earn—you could not make a better investment for your savings....

During the past year, stockholders in this association received the sum of $66,959.24 in dividends—YOU, too, will find our 7% Preferred Stock and 8% installment stock a safe and profitable investment.

Ask for Our Booklet, "How Shall I Invest My Money"—It's yours for the asking

JACKSON COUNTY BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION
The Place to Invest Your Savings
Over 19 Years in Medford—Not One of Our Stockholders Has Lost a Penny

THEY SAY
"Swim in Drinking Water"

Our weekly water test, by the State Board of Health shows it to be in "A" condition—"Safe for drinking purposes."

The only safe water is a sterilized water. Our pool ranks with the highest in the state for purity of water, and surpasses any in Southern Oregon.

MERRICK'S

THREE TO FIVE MINUTES TO FORTY THEATRES AND ALL SHOPS

HOTEL ST. JAMES

Much favored by women traveling without escort.

Rooms $2.50 up with Bath $3.00 up

Send Postal For Rates and Booklet
W. JOHNSON QUINN, Proprietor

Sabin & Rindt
Durant-Star Dealers

Moved

From 125 North Bartlett to
NEW LOCATION

32 N. Bartlett

Perhaps

you tire of hearing about Flührer's Milk Bread, but we're as proud of our products as a new Daddy is about his children because we know there are none better anywhere.