

Always a wallflower until Jane learned to overcome "B. O."

THE GIRLS didn't mean to be carry. It was astonishing to see an attractive girl like Jane sitting there all alone—a wallflower.

Before they could change the subject, Jane joined the girls and heard them whisper—"B. O."

An awkward silence! "B. O." Body Odor! And Jane knew they were talking about her.

Since then Jane has become the most popular girl in her set. "B. O." never spoils her charm now, for she learned the easy way to overcome it.

End body odor easily

It's amazing how many people let "B. O." hinder their social and business progress—without suspecting it.

We all have a characteristic odor. Others always notice it. But we ourselves cannot detect its unpleasantness because our own sense of smell has become deadened to it.

Perspiration is necessary. It's healthful. Even on a cool day, our pores give off as much as a quart of odor-causing waste.

To avoid offending—just wash and bathe often with Lifebuoy—the delightful, purifying toilet soap that millions enjoy. Its bland and abundant antiseptic lather deeply purifies pores—giving bath-to-bath freshness and freedom from body odor.

So good for the skin

This same gentle, antiseptic Lifebuoy lather also keeps complexions glowingly fresh and clear. Guards health, too—by removing germs.

You'll learn to love Lifebuoy's pleasant clean scent, which tells you it purifies, and which vanishes as you rise. Get some today.

YANKS BEATEN IN 15 INNINGS BY THE WHITE SOX

(By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Recipients of western hospitality for more than two years, Miller Huggins' punch drunk Yankees rapidly are discovering that they have worn out their welcome beyond the Alleghenies.

When Willie Kamm socked a triple in the 15th inning at Chicago yesterday, scoring Ed Falt with the run that enabled the White Sox to trim the Yankees, 5 to 4, it marked the champions' 10th reverse in 15 starts since they invaded the west for the second time on July 25.

Fortunately enough for Miller Huggins, the Philadelphia Athletics, for some unknown reason, took it into their head to lose to Detroit, 8 to 5, thus leaving the White Elephants three and a half games back of the Yankees in the duel for first place in the American league.

Terrific clouting by Ralph Kress and Heinie Manush was the high spot in the St. Louis Browns' triumph over the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 4.

Cleveland and Washington divided a double bill, the Indians taking the first game, 7 to 4, and the Senators the second, 3 to 2.

Rain or wet grounds put a quietus on the National league campaign for the day, except at Philadelphia, where Bert Shotton's Phils shellacked the Chicago Cubs in both ends of a twin bill, 8 to 7 and 5-1. Hack Wilson furnished the only consolation for the Cubs by driving out two home runs in the first game—his 25th and 26th of the season.

HALL DICKERING WITH BEND; WEED HERE ON SUNDAY

The West baseball team will resume its championship series with the Medford Merchants at the fair grounds next Sunday afternoon, and now that all the excitement is over, Manager Hall has hopes that there will be more than a handful of fans present, as was the sad case last Sunday.

The left-hander, who so neatly stood the Merchants upon their ears two weeks ago, will do the pitching for the visitors, and Cliff Best will do the twirling for the locals. Cliff has had a long rest and should be in shape to deliver a good game.

Manager Hall is dickering with the Bend team for a two-game series here the latter part of the month. The Bend team wants more than the New York Yankees with its. Both battling all the time, but it is expected that the financial cap will be bridged, if day, and the games officially scheduled.

Vaudeville Matinee Craterian Tomorrow

Quantity and quality have been combined in the Association Vaudeville program to provide the theatre-going public with a bill that is considerably removed from the ordinary at Hunt's Craterian tomorrow matinee and evening.

What will undoubtedly remain for some time the greatest musical and theatrical event of the season, has been secured for the headline position. Garcia's Mas-

SLAYER OF BARBER IS FEELING CHIPPER

LA GRANDE, Ore., Aug. 7.—49 District Attorney Carl Helm announced today that he would file first degree murder charges against Eddie Fallows, who yesterday fatally shot George Parry, La Grande butcher. After the shooting Fallows surrendered to the police, saying that Parry had been bothering Fallows' wife.

Fallows has engaged Green & Hess for his defense. The coroner's inquest has been set for tonight. Fallows, in the county jail, spent a restless night, and seemed today to be in good spirits.

Ship Wrecked, All Saved
PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Aug. 7.—(AP)—The 150 passengers of the upper lake steamer Huronic were safe here today after being removed from the ship which is hard aground on a pinnacle of rock that is known as Lucille Island in Lake Superior, 50 miles southeast of here.

John Barnum arrived here this week to spend several days visiting his mother, Mrs. W. S. Barnum.

Greenland lumber are genuine blue-chasers and they guarantee to convince every member of their audience. The boys have been known to tear out frozen faces, and make those laugh who rarely laughed before.

Coffman and Carroll are entertainers of a somewhat different order than the usual. Miss Carroll portrays the part of a light-brown colored girl, while Coffman is one of the men who make nine-tenths so popular, having been associated with such stars as Richard Caro, McIntyre and Heath, Al G. Fields and Neal O'Brien.

Miss Flurine, accordionist, who has few rivals for supremacy, will be another high grade attraction. Her program will range from classic to jazz, with plenty of popular and syncopation music included for variety's sake. Music lovers often are literally swept off their feet by Flurine's masterful playing.
