LEGION CONCLAVE PAID EXPENSES PRESENT BELIEF

A tentative report made at last night's meeting of the American Legion convention commission indicates that the big three-day celebration will be self-supporting. If such is the case, this means that the Medford merchants and business institutions will not be asked to pay one penny of their subscriptions, which will result in general satisfaction among those who underwrite the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Conig of Diamond, Ore., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Conitt on South Central avenue.

BUILDING NEWS

NEW BUNGALOWS FINISHED ON SOUTH PEACH

For the past two months there has been under the course of construction on South Peach two modern small houses. These two new homes will be offered for sale by the owner, Ed Lundberg, in the near future and offer to the prospective buyer a combination of features that will have a real appeal.

The living room is complete with hardwood floors, fireplace, book cases and a built in seat. The kitchen is comfortable and well equipped with built-in features, space for a breakfast table, wired for range and other conveniences. A large bedroom and bath in connection are features because of convenient arrangement. A very unusual feature of these two homes is an extraordinarily large rear screened porch equipped with sanitary tubs and arranged in such a manner as to be utilized as a sleeping porch if necessary.

The homes are not finished in the interior and interested buyers should see Mr. Lundberg at 214 South Peach and he will be glad to finish the interior in accordance with any particular tastes or ideas.
