

BIG MEETING TALENT GRANGE NEXT THURSDAY

TALENT, Aug. 10.—(Special)—The Talent Grange met last Thursday evening with a very good attendance. Worthy Lecturer Mrs. L. O. Penland had a very interesting program. Charles Hoover and Mr. Conner of Jacksonville gave a very interesting talk on blue grass, each explaining what it really is and why it should be grown more. Their talk was very much appreciated. Mr. Parker of the farm bureau exchange gave a very interesting talk on cooperation and marketing. J. A. Stewart of Newcastle, Penn., was admitted to the order. Several committees were appointed and are going to be real live workers. The Grange will have a special meeting on Thursday evening, August 16. At this time there will be about 40 members who will take the third and fourth degree, this meeting will be the best and largest meeting of the Grange so far. All members are urged to make a special effort to be present at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Orma Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Walters, George Carter, Melba Brown and Charley Bates visited the Eagle Point Grange on Tuesday night. Mrs. Anna Arnold and family of Los Angeles, Cal., who have been visiting with her mother and sister in Portland arrived by motor Monday evening and are visiting for a few days at the home of Edmundo home. They will leave for Los Angeles the last of the week. Mrs. Arnold is a sister of Mr. Edmundo's. Earl Scott of Central Point was calling on old friends in Talent last Friday. Mr. Scott was a resident of Talent a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Andrews and daughter Miss Constance, of Medford were guests for the day at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Vogel on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson were attending to business affairs in Medford Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Milan Burnett have rented the apartments at the John Robinson home. The young people are working in the fruit.

Mrs. M. M. Reed spent the afternoon Thursday with Mrs. Wesley Vogel. It is rather inconvenient for Mrs. Vogel to get out much, and she thoroughly enjoys it when her friends call on her. Mr. and Mrs. Ariett Smith and two children of Glendale are enjoying a visit with relatives in Talent and on Wagner creek. They arrived the first of last week. Mr. Smith returned to his home the last of the week, but Mrs. Smith and children will remain a few days longer. Mrs. Smith is a niece of Mrs. Lottie Purves. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Love Friday morning, August 3.

Miss Edna Kirkpatrick spent Sunday a guest of her sister, Mrs. Guy Hamilton. A car smash-up occurred Saturday afternoon on the highway in front of the Tryon store when William Genn who was trying to enter the Bear creek road from the highway in front of a California car driven by Mrs. Davenport, struck the California car in such a way as to completely smash the left fender. A wheel on the Glenn car was broken. Mrs. Davenport had a lady friend with her in the car, no one was hurt.

Talent was well represented at the American Legion patriotic parade in Medford Saturday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer spent Sunday afternoon at the Brant home in Medford. George Nichols of Ashland spent a few hours Wednesday afternoon in Talent. He called on Marion Tryer while in town. The Community club will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the Community hall. An ice cream social was given on the lawn at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Conner and family were down from the Green Springs mountain Sunday and spent the day at his brother Rudy Conner's home.

Mr. Clark of Gold Hill is making his daughter, Mrs. Charley Estes, an extended visit. Mr. Clark is in near health. Mr. and Mrs. William Coy and niece Esther Roberts of Corvallis, friends of Wayne Holdridge, spent the weekend at the Holdridge home. They left Monday to visit Crater Lake and also Diamond Lake. Mr. Allen Proctor is spending a few days at Crescent City. Services at the Baptist church next Sunday: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Services in charge of G. W. Burnett.

Mrs. L. O. Penland in company with her guests Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell, motored to Klamath Falls Thursday returning the same day. Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell left Saturday for their home in Aberdeen, Wash., after a two weeks visit with Mrs. Stockwell's sister, Mrs. Penland. They were accompanied by Miss Tris Lena as far as Eugene. Miss Lena will spend a month visiting with her sisters, Mrs. H. M. McIntyre and Mrs. V. V. Helbig, who reside in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Vic Mason and family spent last Friday at the Lake of the Woods. They returned home the same day. Mrs. Dick Parker moved Saturday from the Slensy home to the rooms in the back of the confectionery. Mrs. Parker will continue to operate the confectionery for the present. Joseph Green of Portland was a guest Monday at the home of Mrs. E. Claton. Jay Ferrill is employed at the Denny packing house in Medford. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Strahan and
