MELON CROP NOT GOOD AS USUAL EDEN PRECINCT

By Mary O. Carey.
EDEN PRECINCT, Aug. 9.—The melon growers of this precinct are complaining that the fruit does not set on the vines this year and that the crop will be short and late. They blame the cold nights as retarding the growth of melons and tomatoes.

Tuesday of this week A. H. Hearn received a telegram from Los Angeles that Mrs. Sims had passed away suddenly at that place. Mrs. Sims was a sister-in-law of Mr. Hearn's first wife and formerly lived in Phoenix. Mrs. Sims took Florence Hearn at her mother's death and brought her up. Miss Florence and her sister, Mabel, left Monday evening to attend the funeral of their aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frielhard of Portland visited at the Lloyd Colver home at Phoenix last Tuesday. The Frielhards are out on tour of the Redwood highway and on to Grants Pass and the Rogue River valley, thence to Klamath Falls and Crater Lake. They were disappointed in not finding Mr. Colver at home the day they visited there.

There have been a number of persons in this part of the valley this week buying fruit and vegetables to take out to their homes at Klamath Falls. Most of them had been in to attend the Legion convalesce.

The Phoenix boys are having their drill and practice meeting several evenings each week, so as to be in good training, should there be need for their services.

Last Sunday the following guests were at dinner at the S. P. Barneburg home in East Eden: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Caster and daughters, Elva and Margery, Mrs. Edna Anderson and son, Carl; Mr. Fred Barneburg and son, Kenneth and the host and hostess.

Ed Hamlin and Fred Furry and Loren Dayman spent several days at the Furry Ranch at Dead Indian last week.

Ed Lockwood returned from Lake of the Woods last Sunday after a two weeks' vacation out at the lake.

Mr. Binman has purchased two more milk cows. This brings his herd up to five head.

The Denver boys are both busy hauling logs from the Beeson timber claim on Holton creek.

Mrs. Irene Wells and daughter, Mrs. Elton Beeson attended the night performance at the fair grounds last Friday evening.

George Hartley is beginning the picking of his early tomato crop, most of which he will ship.

Mrs. C. Carey sold most of her fat hens during the time the Legion visitors were in Medford. The boys had a taste of real good Oregon hens.

Mrs. Walter Allen returned from Portland Monday, where she went to take her mother, Mrs. Dona Rice and her sister, Mrs. R. E. Dale, to the Apostolic Faith camp meeting.

Mr. Reed is back in Talent again and will drive Will Hill's fruit truck during the hauling season.

Miss Marie Miller is nursing Mr. Ulrich, and says he is getting along nicely, we are glad to learn.

Mr. Evans threshed one of the best wheat crops off the Allen place, that has been raised in this part of the precinct.

Clinton Carey sold his barley crop to Mr. Warner. Mr. Warner will store all of the crop raised on the Carey place.

Mrs. Noah Candler is packing at the Newbury house in Phoenix this season. Mrs. Candler has packed at Bear creek for the past six years.

Mr. Schmeir, on the place known as the French place, has in several acres of vegetables for the Ashland canneries. The crop is looking fine.

"Hamm What Am"

Eddie Hamm, Georgia Tech athlete, who set a new Olympic record of 7.73 metres (25 feet 4.3 inches) in the broad jump event. Only phenomenal competition can prevent an American victory in this event.

SAMS VALLEY IS ALREADY WORKING ON FAIR EXHIBIT

The principal business of the last Grange meeting was the planning for the exhibit for the county fair. The committees will begin their work right away of getting together a good representation of the farmers' products.

The Siskiyou Orchard, which was the first in our district in the harvesting of Bartlett's, finished the first picking Thursday and picking was discontinued until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keys of the Trail district were inquiring for a suitable dairy ranch to rent here.

Harry Johnson, who is employed in the beef factory at Hollingham, Wash., is visiting this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Johnson.

Among those who picnicked at the Mineral springs were Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fraz of Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. John Liville of Medford. The outside visitors were joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Howe and the George McDonough family.

Will Moore of Evans valley visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Loveland spent Sunday afternoon sightseeing at Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Beebe and baby sick, Dale and Vule, of Medford are visitors with Mrs. Beebe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Caton.

Several who attended Grange at Central Point Wednesday evening witnessed the big fire in the vicinity of the 4th orchard and report that from all appearances it burned over quite an area.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Ham and children, who are guests at the Lyman home, visited several days last week with Medford relatives.

Frank Fitzgerald reports his peaches are now ripe and plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Schulz and daughter Leona reached home Monday evening after an enjoyable week's outing, during which they visited Crescent City, Gold Beach, Pebble Beach and Bandon. They pronounced Bandon the finest of all the resorts they visited.

Little Miss Lydia Hughes is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Otto Treaham while Mrs. Hughes is convalescing from a serious illness in her home in Portland.

Those from the Sams Valley Grange who attend the meeting of the Central Point Grange Wednesday evening were Misses Beate Prodenburg, Catherine Kogee, Frances Wilson, Naomi Magruder and Messrs. James McDonough, E. E. Nealon, Hershah Harrier, Paul McKinnis and John Wilson.

The W. W. Edgington family is expecting visitors to arrive Friday from Britain, Okla. The expected guests are Mrs. Fred Mott and children. Mrs. Mott is the wife of Mrs. Edgington's nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Miller of Sardinia creek visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cook. The Millers have just recently sold their Sardinia creek property and expect to locate in the Willamette valley.

SCHOOL TEACHER GIVES PARTY TO GRADE STUDENTS

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Vivian Beach, who teaches the girls' Sunday school class on the sixth seventh and eighth grades at the Presbyterian church, gave a farewell party Tuesday evening for girls who left her class this spring to go into the high school class. She also entertained the girls who are in her class at present. There were 18 presents. It was reported everybody had a very enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Bob Kerr is sorting fruit at Hearty's packing house in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wakefield and two daughters, Grace and Frances, made a trip to Crescent City Saturday, returning Sunday.

Word has been received from Mrs. Earl Clifton, who is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. H. Johnson at Cooperstown, Cal., where she will visit for a couple more weeks. She then will move to her new home at Riverside. She sent her best regards to all her friends in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gammon moved Tuesday into their new home in north Jacksonville which is now being constructed.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter Violet were Medford shoppers Tuesday.

John Grieves, former resident of Jacksonville, died at his home in Los Angeles Thursday morning. His wife and daughter Pauline of Medford left Thursday for Los Angeles.

Mrs. Cora Burne from Ashland is a patient at the Rogue River sanitarium.

Honore Lyle made a hurried trip to Falls City this week.

Sybil Fairburn of Medford was a Jacksonville caller Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harold Crump was a Medford shopper Tuesday.

Mrs. Amelia Elmer, a former resident here but now of Alhambra, Cal., is quite ill with whooping cough.

A. Mr. Moore and wife of San Francisco were calling on friends here Monday. Mr. Moore's father, Joseph Moore, was an early day pioneer. He left here in the early '60s and was at one time a mining partner of the late Sias Day.

Miss Minnie Bunch has been on the sick list but is now improving.

Mrs. Sarah C. Kerr of St. Paul, Minn., arrived here Thursday to visit her niece, Mrs. Ethel Olson and other relatives and friends here for a few days. She will leave Sunday for Oakland, Cal., where she will visit at the home of her son, R. C. Kerr and family. Mrs. Kerr will soon be 81 years old and she stood the trip here splendidly.

Mrs. Hetter from Klamath Falls, who has been staying at the Wallace home while little Harry has been taking treatments at the local sanitarium for several weeks, left yesterday for a couple of weeks' stay at their home.

Lloyd Sparks is quite ill at the home of his mother here in Jacksonville.

Mrs. J. W. Opp and daughters, Julia Opp and Mrs. Foster, who have been visiting with Mr. Opp out at the mine, were called back to Portland the first part of the week to the bedside of Mrs. Opp's mother, who is very ill there.

Mrs. Tom Kinney of Medford and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Keener of Santa Barbara, were visiting friends here Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Brown from Merrill is improving at the Rogue River sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McKee from Big Appleton were in our city Friday.

Who is Looney Now?
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—(AP) It is within the realm of possibility, Chao Shaw of India told Drexel Institute students, that a girl of the future would carry around "a thousand men or so in her vanity case." This might be done, he explained—partly—by "combining the nuclei of the human atom, eliminating the empty space and reducing man to one hundred-thousandth of his present size."
