

OLYMPICS ARE CLOSED BY U. S. IN FINE STYLE

American Swimmers Make Nearly a Clean Sweep in Water Sports—Weismuller Retains World Title—American Girls Get First and Second.

AMSTERDAM, Holland, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The United States team closed the Olympic swimming meet in a blaze of glory today, capturing both sprint features, the 100-meter free style swim for men and women.

Johnny Weissmuller, American champion, ably defended his Olympic title in the men's event, while Miss Albina Osoipowitch, basket of the girl swimmers, turned in the final victory of the meet for America.

Weismuller disposed of a European coalition rather easily, but the Worcester girls' sternest opposition came from their team mate, Eleanor Garatti, of San Rafael, Cal. Miss Osoipowitch won by a bare hand-breadth in the closing event of the swimming carnival.

Weismuller's victory was made more difficult by a slow start in the 100 meters. The Chicago speedster lost a full yard at the start, but caught up with the field at the first turn of the pool.

Zorilla swam as though stale from too much competition and failed to display the spirit and energy that brought him the 400-meter title. George Kojac, the New York schoolboy, faltered after a splendid first turn.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Johnny Weissmuller won the Olympic championship in the 100-meter free style swim today, successfully defending his title, won at Paris in 1924. His time was 53.3-4 seconds.

The United States scored again when Albina Osoipowitch of Worcester, Mass., won the women's 100-meter free style swim with her teammate, Eleanor Garatti, San Rafael, Cal., second.

George Kojac of New York, gave the U. S. fourth place, as well as first in the feature event, won by Weissmuller, while a third American, Walter Lauffer of Chicago, was fifth. Spence of Canada finished sixth and Zorilla of Argentina seventh.

Topping, Associated Press Sports Writer) AMSTERDAM STADIUM, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The United States today captured another water sports Olympic championship when the American relay team, making a runaway race of it, captured the finals of the 800 meters and brought the total of American-held championships to six out of eleven events completed.

In winning the race the United States team set a new Olympic record of nine minutes, 36.1-3 seconds. Japan's time was 9:41:2-5 and Canada's 9:41:4-5.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The United States, with 14 men and women swimmers and divers remaining, was qualified to dispute five championships scheduled for this afternoon, the closing day of the Olympic water sports.

The Americans presented an array of leaders for these events as all the rest of the nations put together. As the closing session of the aquatic competition got under way the United States already had accounted for six championships out of 11 disputed.

The finale on the program were the women's 100-meter backstroke swim, women's and men's high diving, and men's and women's 100-meter free style swim. The United States representatives hoped for victory in the last four.

On his return to Albany, which for the present is his campaign base, the governor had before him not only many hours of work but also a week from Wednesday evening, but decisions on other campaign developments.

Among these were the question of a debate on his political career with Dr. John Toach Stratton, deputy minister of New York, which Smith himself proposed should be held in Stratton's church, and which the clergyman had suggested be held also in St. Patrick's cathedral in New York. The governor is expected to adhere to his original challenge—no meetings—and that in the church where Dr. Stratton charged the nominee was the greatest foe to moral progress in America.

SEALS AND STARS BOTH FALLING AS SENATORS GAIN

(By the Associated Press.) At the expense of San Francisco and Hollywood, the Missions and Los Angeles are having a lot of fun this week. The Angels have succeeded so far in dragging Hollywood from the league leadership to a definite second place, three full games behind Sacramento, while the Bees have kept the seals firmly rooted in third place.

The Angels yesterday hung another defeat around the Stars' necks, 5 to 1, after the Hollywood boys had held them to a one-all tie for five innings. Batteries: Pitt and Sandberg; McCabe, Muldoon and Bessler.

The Bees had little difficulty in subduing the seals, 9 to 6. They allowed the San Francisco club to hold a five-run lead until the sixth when they piled up six runs. Batteries: Nevers, Nelson and Snyder; Baldwin; May, Jones and Sprinz.

While others in the first division have been having troubles, Sacramento has kept consistently winning at Portland, taking yesterday's battle, 10 to 7, after the Beavers had a five-run lead at the beginning of the seventh. The Senators whittled the lead down to two and in the ninth dashed across the plate five times to win. Batteries: Gould, Burke, Ruchas and Koehler; Fonder, Ortman, Couch, Kutz and Rego.

Seattle tried valiantly to halt the Acorns, but lost in a tenth inning Oakland rally, 11 to 7. Scoring five runs in the opening frame, the tribe held the lead until the seventh inning. Batteries: Cooper and Reed; Teachout, Sullivan, Bryan and Almsmith.

Games today: Missions at San Francisco; Oakland at Seattle; Hollywood at Los Angeles; Sacramento at Portland.

DICK RAMIREZ Dick Ramirez, who is to meet J. Jewett of Portland next Thursday night at the Armory, is regarded as one of the hardest punching fighters in southern California and is expected to give Jewett a hard battle.

REAL CONTESTS ON NOW IN BOTH OF THE BIG LEAGUES

(By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer) Back in winning form again, the Cardinals and the Yankees are tightening their belts for the final and decisive dash down the stretch that will see fulfillment or collapse of their hopes of pennant victory.

With seven weeks yet to go, the Yankees lead Connie Mack's ambitions Athletics by four and a half games. The Cardinals' margin over the second place New York Giants in the National league is an even four games. Barring unexpected developments, the chase for the two pennants appears to lie among these four.

McKechnie's hard fighting St. Louis club snapped Pittsburgh's eight-game winning streak yesterday by downing the Pirates, 2 to 1, in a thrilling 12-inning pitchers' battle between the veteran, Clarence Mitchell, and the youngster, Fred Fussell.

The Giants kept pace by taking over the Phils, 8 to 4. The Giants' confidence in their scoring activities to two innings, scoring three in the first when Freddie Lindstrom hit his 11th home run with two on, and five in the seventh when Lindstrom hit a single with the bases full and Bill Terry followed with his 11th circuit smash of the season.

With Darryl Vance in form, the Brooklyn Dodgers had no trouble sinking the Boston Braves, 5 to 1. Red Blantonette got his 19th homer.

The Yanks and the Athletics both won in the American league race. George Piggars was strong at the plate as Boston and the champions downed the Red Sox, 5 to 2. Jack Quinn pitched his 15th victory of the season as the A's walloped Washington, 8 to 0.

Detroit took advantage of this Washington defeat to climb into sixth place in the standing by virtue of a 3 to 7 defeat of the Cleveland Indians.

Defeating St. Louis, 5 to 2, the Chicago White Sox took undisputed possession of fourth place, a game ahead of the Indians, with whom they were tied on Thursday.

A NEW IDEALISM (Continued from Page One) principle—in which you possess an unquestioned mastery. White House in Safe Keeping. The opposition confronts us with an assumed confidence. We stand in a confidence which is real. It is possible to palliate political practices in procedure, which is purely local, but in the larger field of national affairs this may not be. The White House stands immune. When for I seem to say it—when you occupy it, the people will know that it is in safe keeping.

The People's Choice. It is through no accident of politics that we come to offer you this distinction. The nomination of which we now give you formal notice, results from an accumulation of esteem, loyalty and confidence which are the natural outgrowth of the service you have rendered. The people have a sense of value in what is being done, and in a manner not to be gained if it is they who made you the leader in this, a real crisis. They know your acquaintance and experience in foreign affairs, and they have no desire to see this constitutional branch of executive activity pass into the keeping of untrained hands. They know your intimacy with the complex problems of federal government and legislation, and they have no desire to see these perplexities muddled by those whose antecedents have been limited by local political necessities.

A Veritable Crusade. It is in fact, sir, a veritable crusade which you have been chosen to lead. We know your quality and we give you our confidence and our support. Where you lead, we will gladly follow. I trust it may be pardoned if I add a word which may seem personal. A year ago, the field being cleared by the free action of the first to espouse your cause, I later had the distinction to declare your nomination to the

UNITED STATES BEATS ENGLAND

STAMFORD BRIDGE FIELD, LONDON, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The United States won the dual track and field meet with the British empire today, clinching the honors by taking the hammer-throw. This gave the Americans eight of the 14 events on the program to three for the British. Three were yet to be run off.

TOMORROW'S GAME A PITCHER'S BATTLE Fans of the city and valley will see two better than the average high league hurlers pitted against each other, when Medford and Wood meet in the fifth game of the southern Oregon-northern California championship series at the Fairgrounds tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Cliff Best will do the pitching for Medford and Colledge will occupy the mound for the visitors. Wood has been further strengthened by the addition of two players formerly with the Dunsmuir team.

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be on hand to see the contest. The teams are now evenly matched, and a good game is assured.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The Olympic track and field events may have set a new record for the long and loud squeak, as has frequently been reported, but it remained for the boxing contests, the stiffest and most sport in the Olympic program to outdo in emphasis all the protests that had come before.

The complaints that arose during the earlier events paled into insignificance beside the noise that took place in the boxing pavilion yesterday when the fans expressed emphatic displeasure at a decision against John L. Baley, American lightweight, in the semi-final round. When the shouting, booing American fans, who crowded into the aisles and started for the ring to protest in person, had been quieted by the American fans, the judges then abruptly announced that they had made a mistake and that Baley had defeated Danica of South Africa. This reversal at once stirred up another storm of protest from the British audience.

Hardly had this second outburst been silenced when another American, Stephen Hoback, was given the decision over Berggren of Sweden in the lightweight semi-final. This aroused the fans of the Scandinavian contingent, and displayed a desire to storm the failure of their representative in the ring by the composed of a few American fans, and the strong arm of the Dutch law agent, was used to quiet the spectators. Terry Devlin, the 1924 American semi-finalist, got into action too early in the evening to catch on in the ring-side battle. A Webster, featherweight, lost the bout to Vanhooker, of Hollywood, before his spectators began to outnumber the fighters in the ring.

RAIMEZ PROMISES TO K. O. JEWETT

Dick Ramirez, the Mexican leather pusher from San Diego, plans to make short work of Joe Jewett, Indian boxer of Portland, with whom he is scheduled in the main event of next Thursday's boxing card at the armory, for which Jewett and Ramirez have been in constant training for the past week. In addition to the main event, Matchmaker Wood has arranged a semi-windup and several preliminaries.

Wood is planning on next Thursday's show as being the banner card of the season and has spared no pains in preparing for southern Oregon and Medford fans, bouts which will stand the acid test. The bouts will be under the direct supervision of the city boxing commission and the only rule "no fight, no money" will be put rigidly into effect.

though the muddy sheet of water was subsiding, a road between Okeechobee City and the lake, a few miles south was dynamited last night to divert the water from 1000 fertile acres west of the town. Already a 20-mile stretch between Okeechobee and the east coast near Jupiter was a solid sheet of slowly receding water. Local Red Cross officials from Palm Beach send several rescue expeditions into the area and fed with difficulty a hundred or more refugees, who had been stranded on high ground. Damage in the area was believed to be in excess of that caused by the 1924 hurricane, although limited almost exclusively to flood conditions.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Several hundred persons were rendered homeless and at least one death has been reported as a result of heavy rains that fell in this section last night.

Approximately seven inches of rain fell during the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock this morning, and it still was raining today.

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Abatement of the wind this forenoon enabled fire fighters to bring under control a brush and timber fire east of this city.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Sweeping up from Georgia, where it left threats of floods in its wake, the tropical storm that for days menaced the Florida coast today struck the Carolinas with unprecedented rains, causing unestimated damage and driving hundreds of persons from their homes.

The Piedmont section of South Carolina appeared in first reports to have been the hardest hit. Spartanburg reported the cotton mill villages of Beaufort, Arkwright and Paconet flooded and residents fleeing, buildings undermined in the city, wire communication badly crippled and the city was supply cut off by flooding of the plant.

More than seven inches of rain fell at Spartanburg. Union reported scores of negro houses flooded in the lowlands and crops and highways badly damaged. Greenwood had 5.93 inches of rain, the heaviest rainfall ever reported there.

Rain continued to fall over the section today.
