HOOVER SPEECH IS PRAISED BY LOCAL DEMOCRAT

The following comments concerning the acceptance speech of Herbert Hoover were made today by local citizens interviewed on the subject.

I can say Hoover for three reasons. First, he is the only man I ever had a chance to vote for, second, his positive stand on law enforcement, and third, it is my belief that he will enter the office with fewer political obligations than any man I ever had a chance to vote for. Such is the opinion of M. N. Hogan, democrat, who also stated that he is a member of a family of 14 democrats, each of whom will cast a vote for Hoover in the coming election.

Mr. Hoover's firm stand on the farm question and his assurance of aid for them. He has had the experience which our president should have. His speech was sound and to the point," said Mrs. Maude K. Chapman, secretary of the B'nai B'rith and Professional Women's club of Medford. She is a republican.

"For the last 36 years I have read every acceptance speech made by a man of both parties. In all that time there has been but one which equals the speech of Herbert Hoover. That was the address of Grover Cleveland in 1892. Hoover has a definite program and has taken an emphatic stand on important matters. He has done a big thing in declaring himself on the issue of religion. There is no longer any question about the Catholic and anti-Catholic issue. He strikes it from the list of important things," said Mrs. Newbury, attorney and a strong republican.

"Hoover's speech was wonderful. I think that it settles the question more definitely than ever that the United States will elect a republican for president," stated Walter Leverette, real estate dealer, and added, "You bet, I am a republican."

"The speech was comprehensive. It shows clearly that the man has a clear understanding of the paramount problems facing the United States. He has a practical grasp of the needs of the country, and I think that he will be elected," said Dr. Ed Shockey, republican.

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office today by Sheets Brothers and Clarence Homes of Talent, Eads Transfer company, E. C. Sullivan and H. Leberck of Medford, Carl Magrewer of Ruth, J. A. Taylor and Leray Wells of Rogue River.

WESTERLUND BUNK HOUSE DESTROYED IN ROXY ANNE FIRE

A brush fire, of unknown origin, last night destroyed a bunkhouse at the Westerlund orchard on the slope of Roxy Anne, and burned over about 400 acres of brush and grass before it was brought under control. The loss will run close to $1000, according to Carl Y. Tengwald. The loss on the bunkhouse is placed at $500, and the loss to the occupants of personal effects about $1000.

It was erroneously reported that the bunkhouse destroyed was at Hillcrest orchard.

The fire started late yesterday and was visible from this city during the night, many people going out to watch it.

Obituary

ALMING—Ludwig Alming passed away at his home, 377 East Jackson street, August 13, 1928. Mr. Alming was born in Christiania, Norway, June 29, 1867, and during part of his early life he was billing clerk in a wholesale hardware store in Norway.

In 1894, Mr. Alming came to the United States, settling at Mind, N. D., where he met and married Laura J. Eisenbath.

In May, 1907, Mr. Alming, with his wife, moved to Jackson county, Oregon, and made their home on Coleman creek until 1925, at which time they moved to Medford.

Besides his wife, Laura J. Alming, deceased is survived by two brothers and two sisters who still reside in Norway.

Funeral services will be held at the Catholic church, Wednesday, August 15, 1928, at 2:30 o'clock, p. m. Reverend Father Black officiating. Interment in Medford cemetery. The Perl Funeral Home will be in charge of the services.

HEWITT—Mary Catherine Hewitt passed away at her home two miles north of Medford, Monday, August 13, 1928. Mrs. Hewitt was born in Pennsylvania, March 19, 1869, and made her home in that state until 1889, at which time she moved to South Dakota.

On November 7, 1883, Mary Catherine Strong was united in marriage to Frederick Hewitt and in this union six children were born, five of whom are living today. In 1912 the family moved to Medford and since that time have made their home on the ranch where her death occurred.

Mrs. Hewitt is survived by her husband, Frederick Hewitt, four sons and one daughter. Glen of Klamath Falls, Bryan, Harry and Roy of Medford; and Mrs. Bessie Wright of Bay Horse, Mont.

Funeral services are pending the arrival of Mrs. Hewitt's two brothers of South Dakota and her daughter, Bessie, of Tay Horse, Mont. Perl Funeral Home is in charge of the services.

RANKIN—Funeral services for Wm. W. Rankin whose death occurred Aug. 13. Husband of Cora Rankin of Medford, brother of Hugh H. Rankin of Medford, Geo. K. Rankin of White Salmon, Wash., C. V. Rankin and Mrs. Edith Johnston of Tono, Wash., and father of Genevieve and Margaret, will be conducted from the Conger funeral parlors Wednesday, August 15th at 3 p. m. Dolbert Millard will have charge of services and concluding services will be in the Medford mausoleum.

JACK AND ETHYL HERE TOMORROW ON RADIO TRIP

Jack and Ethyl are on their way.

The thrills and attractions of this favored region will be broadcast to the entire coast this Wednesday, at 8 p. m. when the popular Associated Oil company information homecoming on Radio 12 tomorrow will tell the world about what they saw and did here.

A trip to Oregon Claves and Claves lake is also included in their itinerary.

This program, it is declared, will prove a great boost to this region, and be found to bring more and more motor tourists, which consequently means more and more dollars into the community.

An especially attractive program of interesting travelogue, interspersed with lively musical numbers for unusual appeal, has been arranged for the event and is predicted that every radio fan throughout, as well as those who are on the coast, will find the knobs of his set to his favorite station of the Pacific coast network at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Jack and Ethyl, who are making a honeymoon tour of the coast, are spending two months in the northwest and are winning an ever-increasing number of fans who have tested and become staunch users of Associated gasoline and the new Cyclo motor oil.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IN PALM CIVIL SUIT

A motion asking for 30 days additional time to file a bill of exceptions and motion for a new trial in the suit of R. B. Hollopeter against Charles W. Palm has been filed in the circuit court. The extra time is sought in order to allow the stenographer time to transcribe the records of the first trial in which Hollopeter was awarded $12,000 damages by a jury. The suit arose out of an alleged injury received by Hollopeter when he fell from a scaffold during the construction of the Palm block on North Fir street three years ago.
