

Local and Personal

The condition of Leslie Casey, who suffered a crushed foot in an accident at a county road camp near Hattie Falls, was reported as being somewhat better today. It was feared yesterday that an amputation of his foot might be necessary, but Casey was injured Monday, and while being brought to Medford by W. W. Rankin, figured in another accident when the automobile in which he was riding rolled down a grade, killing Mr. Rankin instantly. His funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

Dr. F. G. Thayer, practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat, Medford Bldg. 138* Dr. Daniel P. Fox, pastor of the First Congregational church of Pasadena, Cal., his wife and Miss Ethel Fox and Mrs. B. L. Conroyman, returning from a vacation in Alaska, stopped in Medford yesterday. They are old friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Spitzer and a dinner party was enjoyed at the Hotel Medford, after which a pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark E. Wright.

Good dairy cows wanted. Fresh or coming fresh soon. Phone 521. Dr. Gilman. 145* Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rupprecht and daughter Margaret arrived this afternoon by train from Dubuque, Ia., to spend a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Dick. Mr. Dick, local United States weather observer, is a son of Mrs. Rupprecht. Unredeemed watches and diamonds. Jennings Loan Office, 5 S. Front. 148*

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bromley and family left yesterday afternoon for a vacation of a week in the Lake of the Woods section. They expect to return next Sunday evening. Chicken dinners. Covered Wagon, 75c. Included among the hotel guests from a distance who are registered at local hotels are Miss Anna Lynch of Boston, Mass., M. H. Goodman of St. Paul, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McCormack of New York, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McCormack of Reno, Nev., Mazie Mitchell of New York, Mazie Mitchell of Detroit, Mich., David Hyman and L. S. Satterthwaite of Hagerstown, Md.

Dr. F. G. Thayer, practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat, Medford Bldg. 138* When R. C. Young appeared in Judge Taylor's court yesterday for a preliminary hearing on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, the hearing was postponed until further notice in order that proper disposition of his case may be planned. Young is accused of having threatened his ex-wife with a revolver and is the second time he has faced such a charge. The couple were divorced last year.

The Farm Bureau is shipping a pool cartload of hogs Friday the 17th. The load is not yet complete and if you have any hogs ready to go phone 932. 146* Miss Helen Fletcher of Grants Pass is a house guest for a week at the home of Miss Esther Olson north of this city.

Charles representative, Bertha M. Stoneman, 153 N. Oakdale. Phone 855-115 Mr. and Mrs. Orval Dewey of San Francisco are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brody this week. The visitors are returning from a vacation trip to Diamond Lake. Mr. Dewey was born in the Rogue River valley and resided here for many years.

Hello, Mrs. Kyle: What have you for rent? Call 1262 Williams & Wernick. 1431* William Jones of San Francisco arrived in Medford this morning and was a passenger on a Crater Lake stage today.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 891* Although the American Legion state convention has been a matter of history for nearly two weeks, Paul McDonald, convention chairman, is still laboring in clearing away the details of the three-day session, which brought over 2,500 visitors to Medford. Bills have been arriving daily and are being paid as rapidly as possible. According to present indications, the convention was nearly a self-supporting proposition, and will not cause local business men to dig into their pockets to pay for any large deficit.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 891* The Christy Brothers circus, which plays here next Saturday, will be in Grants Pass Friday afternoon and night and tomorrow will be in Reedsburg. The circus, which is advertised as one of the largest to have ever been in southern Oregon, has never been on the Pacific coast before and is being played for years throughout the eastern states.

Have your eyes cared for now by our deferred payment plan. Scientific eye examination—comfortable glasses. Dr. D. A. Chambers, Southern Oregon Optical Co., 217 Medford Bldg. Phone 188. 251* Mr. and Mrs. William Troten left this forenoon for their home in Oakland, Cal., after having spent three days here visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Anderson while en route for a motor vacation trip to Olympia and other Washington cities.

Among the passengers leaving today on Crater Lake stages was E. J. Smith of Portland, who expected to spend tomorrow at the resort.

Out of town Oregonians registered at Medford hotels include L. H. Yarnwhite of Salem, H. W. Goo of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Franz and Bonita Franz and children of Hood River, Ed Harvey of Eugene, R. J. Allen of Walla Walla and E. E. Bonn of Corvallis.

Jacksonville private school of kindergarten and primary, under the administration of Mrs. C. E. Wallace, will open its second year Sept. 2nd. Terms reasonable. Day pupils admitted. Board and room for limited number. A splendid home for children whose parents work in Medford. 145

Old-timers in Ashland familiar with mining will be interested in knowing that C. E. Humphreys recently arrived here and will make this city his headquarters while he has built one of his new and improved mills. Mr. Humphreys recently sold one of his mines, known as the Lucky May, located on Mill creek, to some Hoquiam, Wash., business man for $30,000. In the deal he arranged with the new owners for one of his patented mills which mining men have said is the last word in mill machinery—Ashland Tidings.

Get your ice-cream melons at the Willow Springs Service Station—all hours. On Pacific highway. 149 Mrs. William Merriman of Oakland, Cal., left here today for her home after spending a short vacation in the valley as the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. L. Benson and other relatives. She attended the Meridian reunion party at Lillia park in Ashland last Sunday.

The Farm Bureau is shipping a pool cartload of hogs Friday the 17th. The load is not yet complete and if you have any hogs ready to go phone 932. 146* Long pastboarded strip cards, which can be attached to the bumpers of automobiles, have made their appearance, advertising the Jackson county fair, from September 12 to 15. The cards are printed in blue and white and may be obtained by all Jackson county motorists from fair headquarters.

Dynce Bros., Blarney Well. 144* En route to his headquarters in Salem, after having spent several days in Klamath county in connection with business regarding state lands, L. H. VanWinkle, state treasurer, arrived in Medford last evening and left today, continuing his northward journey.

The Crater Forest bridge crew, which has been working on the construction of a bridge over the Rogue river near Woodruff Meadows, moved last week to Crater creek, where bridge construction over that stream was scheduled to begin this week. The new bridge is to be used as a part of a secondary road from the Diamond Lake road and will lead back into the mountains, following a trail that has been built for several years. The road is being constructed primarily as a fire protection measure, giving rangers and fire fighters better transportation facilities should a forest fire break out in that section.

You can make your dreams of youth come true with chiropractic and Russian massage. Dr. Simkins over Woolworth store. 146* Among the hotel guests in Medford from Portland are the following: W. A. Dunlap, A. W. Shoemaker, M. Katherine James, Flora Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Williams, Ralph Williams, Jr., A. Thomas, H. E. Arnold, Z. J. Riggs, E. S. Murrison, Mary O'Leary, A. C. Baxter, F. A. Dooty, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hender, Alma Gemelhardt, C. H. Reiser, C. W. Spencer, C. L. Lane, J. H. Hoppes, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Weir, Rollet Radkins and P. P. Mowry.

Unredeemed watches and diamonds. Jennings Loan Office, 5 S. Front. 148* The Students' League of Many Nations, made up of a personnel of 21 representatives from all over the world, will appear at the First Methodist Episcopal church Saturday evening, August 18, at 8 o'clock, and Sunday, August 19, during the morning service at 11 o'clock. The students will appear in costume and will delight the audience with songs and talks. They carry their equipment with them, including elaborate scenery, and travel in a special big six Larrabee bus.

The Fuller French man is a resident and home owner of Medford. Your business will be appreciated. For immediate service phone Geo. D. Melville, 1294-J. 150 Attorneys Frederick Piper and James VanHorn of Portland stopped in Medford today on their return trip from Klamath Falls. Mr. Piper is a brother of the late Oregonian editor, E. H. Piper.

Swim in drinking water. Merrick's chlorinated pool. 801* After spending two weeks in Medford as the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Luthy, members of the Frank Comedy company, Mrs. L. P. Luthy of Albuquerque, N. M., left here today for San Francisco to continue her vacation with other relatives.

Tree props at Medford Lumber Co. Phone 629. 891* The Christy Brothers circus, which plays here next Saturday, will be in Grants Pass Friday afternoon and night and tomorrow will be in Reedsburg. The circus, which is advertised as one of the largest to have ever been in southern Oregon, has never been on the Pacific coast before and is being played for years throughout the eastern states.

Have your eyes cared for now by our deferred payment plan. Scientific eye examination—comfortable glasses. Dr. D. A. Chambers, Southern Oregon Optical Co., 217 Medford Bldg. Phone 188. 251* Mr. and Mrs. William Troten left this forenoon for their home in Oakland, Cal., after having spent three days here visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Anderson while en route for a motor vacation trip to Olympia and other Washington cities.

Among the passengers leaving today on Crater Lake stages was E. J. Smith of Portland, who expected to spend tomorrow at the resort.

Temporary auto licenses were issued at the sheriff's office today by Mrs. B. S. Gleim of Talent, Mildred Hepson and Leon Beers of Ashland, Jack Portin, Charles Fischer and V. H. Hawley of Medford, L. J. Kanenberg and Ethel Geary of Trail and Edward Coon of Butte Falls.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pines Lbr. Co. 781* A. W. Shoemaker, commercial agent with the Missouri Pacific Railroad company, with headquarters at Portland, is transacting business in this city this week. He reports that the bear season at Hood River has not started and that there will probably be from 700 to 800 cars of bears shipped from there this year.

A special type of tree props at Big Pines Lbr. Co. 781* A. B. Cornell, life insurance agent of Grants Pass, was a business caller in Medford yesterday and today.

We have something choice in tree props. Do not fail to see them. Big Pines Lbr. Co. 781* Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McCormack of New York City, former well known residents of Medford, where Mr. McCormack practiced law for many years, arrived in the city last night from the east to spend a month visiting their many friends in the city and valley. Mr. McCormack is a skillful and enthusiastic fisherman and expects to have many battles with the wily steelhead before he returns.

Dressmaking and remodeling. Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. 41* Perhaps one of the tallest women who ever appeared in the county clerk's office for a wedding license was Ramona V. Moulter, 23, of Reno, Nev., who along with Thomas D. Burling, 29, also of Reno, a marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon. The prospective bride towered above her husband, who was a tall man, and she is said to have been even taller than Gus Newbury, the tallest lawyer in Medford.

The condition of Mrs. Timothy Dully, who was injured in an auto crash Monday evening on the Hillcrest road, was reported today to be improving at the Sacred Heart hospital where she is a patient. She suffered a bad cut on one leg and bruises and cuts about the body, but received none on her face or head.

Ever Benson's Dancing Academy will open within the next few days. Modern Russian ballet, Spanish, Oriental, Grecian, tap, novelty, also pantomime. Member Association of Dancing Teachers. 145* Among the visitors were in Medford yesterday from Klamath Falls were J. J. Cayes and Mr. and Mrs. William Fulton.

Will appreciate an opportunity to demonstrate Coffield Tire Protectors, which prevent punctures, blowouts and add double mileage to tires. Phone 1204. M. C. Gray, C. A. Kelger. 145* Coming here to attend the funeral of W. W. Rankin, victim of an auto accident near Butte Falls Monday morning, was Mrs. Walter Coy of Portland, arrived in Medford this morning. She is a aunt of Mrs. W. W. Rankin.

Miss Dorothy Campbell will call at your home and help you with any cooking problem, no matter what kind of an electric range you use. Phone 90. This service is free, so avail yourself of Miss Campbell's services this week, compliments of the Medford Electric Co. 147* John Basford of Oakland, Cal., came here today expecting to spend a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Woods of Prospect, who met him at the train this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Woods of San Jose, Cal., will arrive tomorrow and will also be guests of their Prospect relatives.

An elderly prospector who has wandered about the valley for several weeks without having any luck in finding nitrates, Jacob Zwick of Drummond, Mont., left for his home today. His return to Montana was financed by local citizens who discovered that he had no funds or means of getting out of the valley.

Notice. Be it known that all creditors shall cease to recognize the name, Foy & Barker, as contractors and builders or otherwise, as partnership has been dissolved. T. W. FOY, A. R. PARKER. 145

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their help and sympathy in the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, L. A. Nelson. Mrs. L. A. Nelson. 145

MEDFORD Sat., Aug. 18 CHRISTY BROS BIG 5 RING Wild Animal Shows The Newest Big Show in All The World 3 Continent Menagerie 1250 People - 200 Shows - 40 Cages Animals 30 Lions - 2 Cows of Elephants and Camels 8 Bears - 3 Collies - 1 Complete Electric Light System - 30 Double Length Steel Cues 4-Pin Big Top - 8 Nervous Rings - 1 Best Animal - Wild West Hippocampus 8000 Character Bible Spectacle Noah and the Ark The longest and the best of the show 2 SHOWS DAILY

A divorce complaint, brought against Thomas Hutton by Mrs. Rena Hutton, was on file today at the county clerk's office. The couple were married December 13, 1913, at Portland and have two sons, which were born twins in 1923. Crail and inhuman treatment is given as grounds for the divorce.

Everybody's singing it, everybody's playing it, "If I Can't Have You," new Victor record by Gene Austin. At Palmer's. 145* Arthur Rogers arrived yesterday from San Diego, Cal., to spend a short vacation with his brother Eugene at the Big Elk ranger station in the Crater national forest.

A postoffice official today ordered Coffield Tire Protectors for his sedan. 145* A minor auto collision took place near Table Rock yesterday between automobiles driven by Harold Mercer of Central Point and Stanley Vaughn of Table Rock, according to a report on file at the police station, indicating that Vaughn turned off the road into a driveway in Mercer's path. The crash resulted in no serious damage to either machine.

Miss Dorothy Campbell will call at your home and help you with any cooking problem, no matter what kind of an electric range you use. Phone 90. This service is free, so avail yourself of Miss Campbell's services this week, compliments of the Medford Electric Co. 147* Among the hotel guests in Medford from the state of Washington and Russell Erickson of Port Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Draper of Olympia and Miss Jeannette Perry and Miss Childers of Seattle.

Gene Austin, one of the most popular of Victor artists, has made a new record, "If I Can't Have You." Ask for it at Palmer Music House. The adoption of the four-pound, four-month-old baby, for which adoption hearing was held before the county court last Monday, has not been completed as yet, details of the process still being unfinished. The infant will be adopted by Mrs. E. R. Stoddard of this city. The babe belonged to an 18-year-old mother, who is said to have given it improper care.

Attorney and Mrs. J. F. Ellegel are spending a vacation of several days in Portland. The condition of Edward (Irish) Coleman, while not serious, is not improving as rapidly as it should, according to his father, W. R. Coleman, who returned from his son's bedside at the United States veterans' hospital in Tacoma, Wash., there he is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. He has been ill for several weeks and was to have entered the Portland veterans' hospital, which was too crowded to care for him.

A Star car, who was stolen yesterday from Mark Klein while parked near the Owen-Oregon sawmill in the northern part of the city, was recovered last evening on Blackwell hill on the Pacific highway, between Central, Point and Gold Hill. It had been abandoned by its thief.

Chauncey Florey, local real estate dealer and United States commissioner, who has been ill for some time, is reported to be showing gradual improvement at the Sacred Heart hospital, where he has been a patient for the past week.

PHONE 51 Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM PASTURIZED - SAFE - PURE PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

These Drug Stores are open nights this week: Jarmin & Woods James McNair Pharmacy West Side Pharmacy

FRANK'S Comedians IN The Big Tent Sixth and Holly Tues., Weds., Thur. The Sensational Drama The Great Underworld Prices 25 and 50 Cents COMING FRIDAY "The Whole Damm Family"

Mrs. Clarence B. Evans arrived here this morning from San Francisco, where she has been under a doctor's care for the past two months. Mrs. Evans' health is much improved.

County officials today purchased Coffield Tire Protectors for county trucks, meaning a saving in road construction. 145* Attorney Newton Chaney returned to Medford this morning after spending Tuesday in Salem attending state supreme court hearings on the Eagle Point vs. Florida National bank of Jacksonville, Fla., case. The case has been delayed until September 15 because of the absence of several members of the court. Justice Melville of the state supreme court took the case under advisement until the date set for reopening the issue.

Californiaans registered at Medford hotels include G. H. King and Everett White of Colton, Mrs. Frank Jones of Roseville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Blagman of San Luis Obispo, Ray E. Musson of Palo Alto, Fred Hignier of Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fox, Miss Ethel Fox and Mrs. Susanne Carthyman of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cornell of Taft, Mrs. M. Johnson, Pauline Johnson and Mrs. Emma Higgins of Hollywood, D. H. Chapman of Alameda, Rhema Gordon of Oakland, Mrs. E. Klute of Mount Shasta City, R. W. Cochran and George Burden of San Francisco, Mrs. H. H. Perkins, Mrs. N. Corbett, A. E. Becking, Elmer Franks, Thomas Hanna, Maxwell Grant, Ed Olson and Mrs. B. Donahue of Los Angeles.

Miss Maurine Carroll, a member of the Medford high school faculty, arrived yesterday morning from Eugene, spent a few hours here and left for a short visit in the latter trip by Mrs. E. C. Jerome of this city.

Among the motor tourists from a distance who registered today at the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau are M. H. Smith of Hasston, La., and Mary Rank of Laude, Tex.

There will be no Friday night band concert in the park this week. The musicians are taking a vacation and will again be on the job next week, August 24. Wilson Waite, conductor, announced this morning.

Mrs. Ethel Willis and daughter Dorothy returned to Medford today from Portland, where they visited last week and this at the home of Mrs. G. W. Shigler, mother of Mrs. Willis.

Harold Socolofsky and Thomas Chapman of the Koke-Chapman Printing company of Eugene, stopped in Medford last night. They were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders are returning to their headquarters after spending the past week in Klamath Falls. Mr. Socolofsky graduated from the University of Oregon last year and has a number of friends in this city.

With California cars predominating, 49 out of the state motorists registered yesterday at the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fowler returned the first of the week from a short vacation trip to Bend and from there drove over the McKenzie pass to Eugene. They also visited Roseburg, Bandon and Crescent City.

Miss Laura Lynch, instructor in the Medford public schools, returned here yesterday after spending two months visiting friends and relatives at Portland. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Liggett of San Diego, Cal., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lynch Monday afternoon. The couple had just returned from a trip to Crater and Diamond lakes.

Mrs. J. H. Butler and daughter Miss Arlene Butler, left yesterday for San Francisco on a pleasure trip. They expect to return to Medford next week. Dr. E. W. Hoffman and Mrs. Hoffman returned Monday from Portland. During their visit they met many people who commented favorably on the American Legion convention sponsored by the Medford post.

Mrs. Kate Roberts of Bloomington, Ind., is a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Roberts expects to remain in Medford for an extended visit. Vernon Vawter, cashier of the Jackson County bank, is in San Francisco attending a semi-monthly meeting of the Federal Reserve district board of directors, of which he is a member.

Members of the Ashland and Medford Elks clubs will sponsor a dance for their families and friends to be given Thursday night, August 16, at the Jackson Hot Springs pavilion. Music will be furnished by Provost's orchestra from Ashland. Carl Tenwald, exalted ruler of the local Elks, is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Among the out of town business callers in the city yesterday afternoon were John Millet of Appleton and W. W. Willis, pioneer rancher of Perist.

Some of the many persons who came here Monday to see "A Night in Spain" at the Craterian theater were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders of Ashland, Fred Chapman and Mrs. Beatrice Tompkins of Eugene, Mrs. Maude Kettle of Forest Creek and Mr. and Mrs. William Dalton of Klamath Falls.

Just Like a Melody Out of the Sky. Gene Austin plays "If I Can't Have You," on sale at Palmer's. "We Sell Gramophones." Miss Josephine Price, daughter of H. W. Price, manager of Crater Lake lodge, and an employee at the post office this summer, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vawter. Miss Price is a student at the University of Oregon and a member of Gamma Phi sorority.

Mrs. Emma Cline of the "One Beauty Show" left here this week for the eastern states where she expects to spend a month or two visiting friends at Chicago, Ill., Sioux City, Ia., and Kansas City, Mo.

Dr. E. W. Hoffman and Mrs. Hoffman returned Monday from Portland. During their visit they met many people who commented favorably on the American Legion convention sponsored by the Medford post.

Mrs. Kate Roberts of Bloomington, Ind., is a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Roberts expects to remain in Medford for an extended visit. Vernon Vawter, cashier of the Jackson County bank, is in San Francisco attending a semi-monthly meeting of the Federal Reserve district board of directors, of which he is a member.

Members of the Ashland and Medford Elks clubs will sponsor a dance for their families and friends to be given Thursday night, August 16, at the Jackson Hot Springs pavilion. Music will be furnished by Provost's orchestra from Ashland. Carl Tenwald, exalted ruler of the local Elks, is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Among the out of town business callers in the city yesterday afternoon were John Millet of Appleton and W. W. Willis, pioneer rancher of Perist.

Some of the many persons who came here Monday to see "A Night in Spain" at the Craterian theater were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Enders of Ashland, Fred Chapman and Mrs. Beatrice Tompkins of Eugene, Mrs. Maude Kettle of Forest Creek and Mr. and Mrs. William Dalton of Klamath Falls.

Just Like a Melody Out of the Sky. Gene Austin plays "If I Can't Have You," on sale at Palmer's. "We Sell Gramophones." Miss Josephine Price, daughter of H. W. Price, manager of Crater Lake lodge, and an employee at the post office this summer, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vawter. Miss Price is a student at the University of Oregon and a member of Gamma Phi sorority.

Mrs. Emma Cline of the "One Beauty Show" left here this week for the eastern states where she expects to spend a month or two visiting friends at Chicago, Ill., Sioux City, Ia., and Kansas City, Mo.

Dr. E. W. Hoffman and Mrs. Hoffman returned Monday from Portland. During their visit they met many people who commented favorably on the American Legion convention sponsored by the Medford post.

Mrs. Kate Roberts of Bloomington, Ind., is a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Mrs. Roberts expects to remain in Medford for an extended visit. Vernon Vawter, cashier of the Jackson County bank, is in San Francisco attending a semi-monthly meeting of the Federal Reserve district board of directors, of which he is a member.

Members of the Ashland and Medford Elks clubs will sponsor a dance for their families and friends to be given Thursday night, August 16, at the Jackson Hot Springs pavilion. Music will be furnished by Provost's orchestra from Ashland. Carl Tenwald, exalted ruler of the local Elks, is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Among the out of town business callers in the city yesterday afternoon were John Millet of Appleton and W. W. Willis, pioneer rancher of Perist.

prices ranging from one cent a barrel for the lower grades of raffia, to 50 cents a barrel for the highest grades. The increase for the average California raffia was said to be 15 cents a barrel. Announcement said there was no advance in the price offered for non-gasoline bearing crude oil, and no change in the selling price of gasoline or fuel oil.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY FOUND—Collie dog. 129-B-111 WANTED—Kind, reliable person to care for child, 8, at your home during day. Box 150 Mail Tribune. 144 WANTED—Experienced woman for general housework, 3 miles from town. Mrs. Doremus, 132-W. 145

FORD TRUCK—Overhauled, spare tire, balloon tires, flat rack, 1129, 953 Dakota at Hamilton. 151 FOR SALE—1924 Chevrolet truck with large bed. Price cheap. Taken at once. Armstrong Motors, Inc. Phone 18. 147 FOR SALE—Ford coupe, cheap, in good condition, newly overhauled and good rubber. Phone 29, Jacksonville. 147

FOR SALE—My home at 804 East Main St., at a bargain. Wm. F. Campbell. 15210 WANTED—Man with car for special outdoor work. Must be reliable and willing to work. Tel. 1294-J. 148

FOR SALE—Splendid opportunity for one mechanically inclined. Dandy going business netting $400 per month. Profitable lease, good location on highway. Invoices over $6000; will sell for quick sale at the ridiculous price of $3200. See Charles A. Wing Agency, Inc. 147

FOR SALE—7-room house, partly modern, lot 50x290 feet. This place has great possibilities. Being business property. Priced at $1500; $500 cash, balance $2 per month. See Charles A. Wing Agency, Inc. 147 BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY—Every store, doing well; stock fixtures invoice $5000; 50% frontage; long term lease; $3000 cash will handle. See Charles A. Wing Agency, Inc. 147

FOR SALE—Camp ground site on Pacific highway; plenty of shade, running water, good location, only $1400; small payment down, balance on easy terms. See Charles A. Wing Agency, Inc. 147 WANTED—Housekeeper. Apply after 6 p. m. at 1519 West Main. 147

PLANE SEARCHING FOR MISSING MAN

CALDWELL, Ind., Aug. 15.—An airplane scouted over the southern Idaho desert near Owyhee today in a search for Howard Shell, member of a Nampa, Ida., accounting firm, who is believed to have perished after his automobile ran out of gasoline. Shell was last seen last Thursday in Owyhee several hours after he abandoned his car in search of fuel. He was traced back along the highway for several miles toward his stranded machine, but his tracks disappeared and leaders of the search believed he wandered out into the desert. The tracks indicated that he was wearing only one shoe.

CRUDE OIL PRICE IS RAISED, CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO.—The Standard Oil company of California announced increase in crude oil

The gorgeous musical score accompanying this great Movie-tone production is furnished by a symphony orchestra of 110 pieces. You Hear What You See NOW HUNT'S CRATERIAN CENTRAL JURY OF MAIN STARTS TODAY Here Is the Finest of All MOVIE-TONE PRODUCTIONS A drama that will be pleasantly remembered by every man, woman and child who sees it. Heartaches mingled in a beautiful romance of Southern Italy. —Brought to you by those lovable stars who made the famous "7th Heaven" CHARLES FARRELL and JANET GAYNOR IN "STREET ANGEL" She came to him out of the murk and fog of a Neapolitan waterfront—fantalizing, adorable. Then the ghost of her past came back to haunt their love. ALSO TWO BIG ACTS OF "TALKIES" 4 Complete Shows Daily At 1:30, 3:15, 7:00 and 9:00 Matinees 10 and 35 Evenings 25 and 50