BUSINESS CONF. TO BE HELD HERE AUGUST 27, 28

Professor E. E. Roswarth of the School of Commerce at O. S. C., Corvallis, spent Wednesday in Medford completing arrangements for the business institute, which will be held in this city August 27 and 28.

Although details of the program have been outlined, it has not yet been decided where the lecture meetings will convene. Ted Baker, secretary of the chamber of commerce, is chairman of the local committee. He is expected to return the first of the week from Portland and announcement of final plans will be made at that time.

This is the first year that the Oregon state college has sponsored business conferences in the state. Previous to the institute in Jackson county sessions have been held at Baker and Dallas, Ore., with reports that the lectures were invaluable to the merchants who attended. Next week Klamath Falls will hold an institute.

The program will include a series of ten addresses by specialists in business administration. General open forum discussion of various problems will be a feature of each meeting.

"Street Angel" Big Hit At Craterian

A charming love story of picturesque Naples is unfolded in Hunt's, where "Street Angel," Fox Film featuring Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, opened yesterday before an audience which acclaimed the beauty of the settings and the splendid acting.

The story tells of Angelina, an unfortunate victim of circumstances who, desperate through poverty and the sickness of her mother, attempts the last resource of desperate girls and takes to the streets of an Italian town to raise money for food and her mother's medicine. She tries to steal enough money and pursuing police lose her within the friendly tent of a traveling circus. She is later found and carried away to prison while her newly discovered sweetheart gives her up for dead.

The musical score, furnished by the Ross theatre orchestra of 175 pieces, makes this one of the greatest Movietone features ever brought to the screen. The music alone is well worth more than any picture admission ever charged in the city. Two splendid acts of "Talkies" are also a leading feature on this splendid program.
