

HOOVER GIVEN HIGH TRIBUTE BY COOLIDGE

President Coolidge today accepted the resignation of Secretary Hoover from the cabinet and appointed William F. Whiting of Holyoke, Mass., to succeed him.

Whiting, who has been a personal friend and political supporter of the president for many years, arrived here today and was administered the oath of office in the chief executive's room at the executive offices here. Whiting is head of the Whiting Paper Co. of Holyoke, Mass.

He has never held political office but has been active in state politics, especially in western Massachusetts. He was a delegate to the republican national convention in 1920, 1924 and 1928. He is about 65 years of age.

President Coolidge accepted Secretary Hoover's resignation by telegram, address to Washington, which he praised the commercial and business activities of the nation. The knowledge required by Mr. Hoover of business and government while in the cabinet was "unsurpassed," President Coolidge said.

"Your resignation as secretary of commerce rendered sometime ago is hereby accepted," the president said. "I wish to express to you my appreciation of the character of the service you have rendered in that office. It has been of great benefit to the commercial life of the nation and has given a new impetus to our entire business structure."

"You have gained a knowledge of the mechanics of business, and government that is unsurpassed. I will always be a satisfaction to me to have had the benefit of your counsel in meeting the problems which have arisen during my administration. My best wishes I always attend you in the border field to which you have been called."

Sketch of Whiting HOLYOKE, Mass., Aug. 21.—(AP)—William F. Whiting, one of the best known paper manufacturers in the Connecticut valley and one in the staunchest republicans of this state, is a native and life-long resident of this city. He is the son of the late Congressman William Whiting. A strong friend of President Coolidge, he was outspoken in his wish that the president would consent to stand for re-election.

Shortly after his graduation from Amherst college, Mr. Whiting entered his father's paper business. On the death of Congressman Whiting became president and manager of the William Whiting manufacturing company. Though prominent in republican circles, Mr. Whiting never has sought office. He has attended late and national conventions of the party and was a delegate from the first congressional district to the Kansas City convention that nominated Mr. Hoover. He has in recent years declined to allow the use of his name for the local majority.

CASCADE LOCKS SAVED AFTER A 24 HOUR FIGHT

Oregon Town Is Nearly Destroyed By Sawdust Blaze—Loss Over $25,000—Hood River Fire Department Saves the Day.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 21.—(AP)—With crews of forest rangers and ranchers, and firemen from Hood River and Portland, battling to save the town of Cascade Locks from flames, fire which broke out near that city yesterday was brought under control today. More than 150 men fought the blaze, which caused damage estimated in excess of $25,000.

The blaze started in sawdust along the right of way of the railroad, and soon spread to an old mill, recently dismantled of its machinery. Thence it spread to the brush and soon covered an area of a quarter of a mile square. Firemen from Hood River were called in, while a special train took a Portland engine company to the blaze.

While the blaze was well in hand today, fire officials believe that a change in direction of the wind might send the flames into Cascade Locks.

The old mill, four residences, and a number of shacks were destroyed by the blaze. Opposite the discovery of two abandoned reservoirs of 80,000 gallons of water each, material added the fire fighters. P. W. Dennis, a forest ranger, was severely cut by glass in fighting the flames.

Among the likely candidates for the local high school football team is Rowan (Spunk) Green, now employed as a "zoo-squirt" at DeVoo's. The young man weighed 155 pounds when school closed, and now tips the scales at 172 pounds, and can top the base in a quick and facile crossing match. Green is built fairly close to the ground, is fast on his feet, would have made the 1928 team last year, but for lack of foot and will try for the tackle position left vacant by the graduation of Eddie Demmer. Coach Callison, when here 10 days ago, was amazed at Green's prowess in weight, and complimented him highly. The youth intends to make the football team, or know the reason why.

PROSPECTS GOOD STRONG FOOTBALL TEAM MEDFORD HI

Coach Callison is expected to return for the school year 1928 next week, and will start as soon as school opens to form his 1928 squad. Among the lettermen who will report are Bill Morgan, Bernie Hughes, center, now working in Klamath county logging camp; Jack Hughes, guard; Ed McDonald, last year's end, who wants a job after school hours, not particular what, and Orbin Cooksie, Al Melvin and Harold Anderson, who did not play last year.

The first game of the season, as usual, will be played with the annual last week in September, and the present schedule calls for a game with the Salem high school the first Saturday in October.

Games are also scheduled with the Chemawa Indians, and at Eugene, Marshfield and Coquille high schools, with probability of a game with the Oregon Frosh.

BOB O' LINK CLEB, CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—(AP)—An overnight rain that soaked the course, then gave way to a brisk wind, made scoring a trifle more difficult today in the second qualifying round of the western amateur championship.

However, Chester Williams of Chicago, among the early starters, reached the turn in 34 while others were close by.

The British Walker cup team members expressed a liking for the conditions, but most of them were late starters. It seemed likely that a total of 152 for yesterday's and today's round would be required to qualify for match play, as there were no fewer than 70 golfers who scored under 80 yesterday and some two dozen with eight strokes or better of the leading total of 69 recorded by Don Mac of Portland, Ore., who led by two strokes when today's round started.

Frank Dolp of Portland and Chick Evans of Chicago, both former champions, were in second position with 71's, while John Dawson of Chicago was next with the only par score—72.

About half the British seemed sure of qualifying while others had a chance to survive. Ron Stein of Seattle, defending champion, is not playing in the elimination round as his title admits him to the matches automatically.

SHIPS COOK, UNABLE TO SWIM, DROWNS; 9 OF CREW ARE SAFE

SEATTLE, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The ship's cook was drowned and the wooden superstructure of the steel motor tanker Petroleum II, of the Standard Oil company's Puget Sound fleet, was burned in a fire of undetermined origin, as the boat lay at anchor at Point Wells, 16 miles north of Seattle, early today.

Nine other members of the crew escaped the flames by leaping into the water and swimming ashore, but the cook, J. P. Phillips, was unable to swim and drowned.

Sports M'GRAW GRABS OLD PITCHER TO CINCH PENNANT

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Aug. 21.—(AP)—John J. McGraw today announced the repurchase by the New York Giants of the veteran right hander, Jack Scott, from the Toledo club of the American association for Bill Walker and an unannounced cash consideration. Walker is a young southpaw recruited from Denver last fall. Scott always was a good "money pitcher" and McGraw desired his experience as an aid to the Giants in their stretch drive, he said.

Scott's official baseball age is 31, though he is sometimes suspected of being older.

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer If John J. McGraw wins his 11th National league pennant this year, the Boston Braves, themselves assured of finishing no higher than seventh, can take a good share of the credit.

Some of the most important cogs in the New York Giants' machine came under McGraw's control after an apprenticeship at Boston. Without Larry Benton, Frank Hogan, Joe Genewich, Jim Welsh and Les Mann, it's a bit difficult to believe that McGraw, great manager though he is, could drive the Giants into the leadership of a league boasting as many strong aggregations as does the National Club year. All five of these regulars or semi-regulars made the trip from Boston to New York during the past year or so.

After Benton had pitched the Giants into first place at St. Louis Sunday, Genewich enabled them to remain there yesterday at Cincinnati, where he turned back the Reds, 5 to 3.

Nosing out the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2 to 1, the St. Louis Cardinals gained fractionally on the Giants, whose lead dwindled to two percentage points despite their victory at Cincinnati. Dazzy Vance, who had won seven straight games, was the victim of a ninth-inning rally.

The Phils pounded four Cub pitchers for 18 hits and an 11-to-6 victory at Chicago. Four home runs were smashed out, one of them being Hack Wilson's 28th of the year.

The Braves and Pirates battled for nearly three hours before Hornsby's crew beat the Corsairs, 11 to 11, in a slugfest in which 36 safe hits were recorded by the scorers, 19 of them going to the Pirates. Burleigh Grimes, ace of the Pittsburgh staff, was batted out of the box in the fifth inning.

In the American league the idle New York Yankees added another half game to their lead over Philadelphia when the Athletics bowed in the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 2. Howard Egan and Joe Bush were batted for 18 hits. Mantush and O'Rourke getting four apiece, meanwhile Jack Ouden was setting the A's down with four safeties. The A's now trail the Yankees by five and a half games.

Red Faber granted the Red Sox only six hits and the Chicago White Sox trimmed Boston, 6 to 1. Walter Shires, 20-year-old second first baseman, started on the offense for the White Sox, getting four hits including a triple.

Hack Wilson Suspended NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(AP) Hack Wilson, the Chicago outfielder and National league home run leader, has been suspended for three days "for an outburst against the umpire yesterday," John Hayden, league president, announced today. Percy Malone, Cub pitcher, drew a $50 fine for using "abusive language from the bench." Wilson objected to a strike called by umpire P. J. Pincus yesterday as the Phils were trimming the Cubs 11 to 6.

Lowski weighed 170½ pounds, Smith 164½. The Pacific coast slugger went after Smith at the belt and hit him on the New Jerseyite from pillar to post, until the final blow.

FRANK TROEH IS LEADING TRAP SHOOTERS' TILT

VANDALIA, Ohio, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Frank Troeh, Portland, Ore., generally recognized as the outstanding trap shooter of the country, was leading the 1928 shooters in the case for the amateur clay target championship of North America here today with 109 breaks in the first half of the 100-target event.

Mark Aris, Champlain, Ill. E. Woodward, Houston, Tex., and H. C. Woodward, Houston, all leading in the same event with Troeh had 89 at the end of the first 50 targets. Mark Johnson, of Edgerton, Ohio, also broke 59.

Charles Hoffman, 37-year-old Denver, Colo., had topped the junior event with 87 breaks out of 100, while Jack Corbery, of Vandalia, N. Y., had 89 breaks to lead the sub-junior event. Mrs. George Wheeler, of Troy, N. Y., headed the race for the women's clay target championship, with 39 breaks.

VALUE CHINESE EGGS INCREASES WITH THE YEARS would have been worth twice as much. At least that was the middle proposition in municipal court yesterday when Fu Wat Sun sued a trucking company for $729 damages, obtained by him for the purchase of Chinese eggs in an automobile crash. Win was awarded the verdict, explaining that if the eggs had been only two years older than five, their value would have doubled. As it was at $729 for the lot, the eggs had a value of $25 a dozen, the court decided.
