GIANTS HOLD TO LEAD, THANKS TO DODGER VICTORY

By WILLIAM J. CHIPMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Giants have escaped from Cincinnati and the Cardinals have cleared their premises of Brooklyn marauders—but neither of these events transpired one minute too soon. If things had gone on much longer as they were going, the National league pennant necessarily would have been awarded to the team capable of the most expert back-peddling, which would have brought the Phillies in for serious consideration.

Shaded at Redland field yesterday by a score of 5 to 4, the co-hosts of McGraw left for Pittsburgh shorn of dignity but able to work. The New York expeditionary force still owned a margin over the Cardinals in the pennant race only because the deceitful Dodgers nipped the Redbirds at Sportsman's park by 3 to 2.

The defeat of the Giants yesterday, the second in three games at Cincinnati, was due largely to Jim Welsh's uncertainty of foot as he dashed after a fly from the bat of Bill Zitzmann with the bases filled in the fifth. The ball fell safe for a triple, and the Giants lost, never to regain a lead they had taken in the first half of the same round.

Jess Petty and Watson Clark collaborated in tossing the Cardinals for another loss—the second Robin victory in the three-game series.

While the contending teams were so engaged the Pirates put the Braves to rout again by 10 to 3 in a game which saw the Buccaneers collect 16 hits. These up-and-coming Pirates, incidentally, are only five games removed from the summit, and are intent upon climbing—as impossible as it seems.

In the remaining National league game the Cubs finally broke their Philadelphia jinx after six consecutive failures. It took all of Art Nehf's cunning to win by 3 to 2 in 12 innings.

The American league fell behind in its half of the campaign to restore the world series to the basis of a 5-cent fare for New Yorkers, thanks to the bat of Mr. Mule Haas, late of Montreal, N. J., but now a resident of Shibe Park, Philadelphia. The Mule plucked one of Johnny Miljus' choice offerings from the ambient with his fat black bat and gave it a ride over the right field fence, winning for the Athletics by 6 to 5 in the 17th inning.

The Tigers swept both ends of a bargain at Boston, 7 to 6 and 4 to 3, and the Senators halted the White Sox, 2 to 0, at Washington.

BEAVERS SURPRISE BY SECOND WIN
(By the Associated Press)
Portland made it two straight over the Seals by winning the second clash, 7 to 5, after the Beavers had made a five-run lead in the first frame. San Francisco made a single run in the sixth and in the seventh made its only bid for the game when four tallies were won. Ponder's homer in the sixth, however, spoiled any idea of winning the Seals may have had. Hatfield, Ponder, Fullerton and Whitney; Malle, Thurston and Sprinz; Oakland whitewashed the Bells, 5 to 0, with a rush of runs early in the game.

Starting a rally in the fifth the stars knocked four Sacramento pitchers around the lot to win, 9 to 4, and regain the position, one game behind the Senators at the head of the league.

Los Angeles won a loose, uninteresting game from Seattle, 9 to 5, after the Indians had taken the lead with four runs in the third.

SECY. KELLOGG TO BE GREETED LIKE A VISITING KING

PARIS, Aug. 23—(AP) European statesmen and diplomats, especially those connected with the foreign departments of the various countries, began breaking up their annual August holidays today to get ready for the signing here next Monday of the multilateral Kellogg pact for renunciation of war as a national policy.

The members of the French cabinet, who had expected to spend the entire month in the country, were back in Paris tonight. They had been summoned for a special meeting of the industry which is to be held tomorrow. They are to discuss details of the signing ceremony and also of the other events planned to make the visiting dignitaries feel at home as well as honored.

Frank B. Kellogg, American secretary of state, is to be received at Havre with ceremonies such as usually are accorded only to visiting monarchs or chief executives. He will be escorted to Paris on a special train.

Here he will be greeted ceremoniously at the railway station by Aristide Briand, foreign minister of France, and other high officials.

TO ASSESS BANKS IN SPITE OF U. S. COURT DECISION

SALISBURY, Aug. 23—(AP) Notwithstanding the decree of the federal court in Portland that national banks are not taxable, and an opinion by Attorney General Van Winkle coinciding with the decree, the state tax commission today issued an order to the assessors of the state to go ahead and assess the national banks.

The national bank case is on appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals. The position taken by the tax commission was that even if the final decree should be favorable to the state, the state would be unable to tax the national banks, if it previously had not assessed them. Hence the order to assess is in the nature of a precautionary measure.

K. C. TO GET LAW AFTER CIRCULATORS OF THE FALSE OATH

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23—(AP) The supreme council Knights of Columbus in session here today promised immediate process to 1100 against persons and societies alleged to have circulated a spurious oath of the fourth degree of the order.

Luke E. Hart, supreme advocate of the order, announced "1,000,000 copies of an obscene and libelous document" represented as the fourth degree oath of the Knights of Columbus has been sent throughout the country for the most part in the south, within the past two months after being equipped for over five years.

"Conditions which are known to all of you have existed to furnish the occasion for a revival of this infamous and unrepeatable libel with the result there is a larger distribution than at any time in the past," Hart said.

Hart said he now has legal papers prepared against six societies and individuals who are "known to have published and distributed the oath in Illinois, Michigan, Iowa and Georgia." Hart said names would not be made public.

William J. McFarley, supreme secretary, in his annual report said that 6000 members had been added to the order in the last year and that total assets now are $27,000,000, the sum of $2,500,000 being added the past year.

MURDER SUSPECTED PORTLAND HANGING

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 23—(AP) The body of Jerome L. Bowers, 64, was found hanging in a shed in the rear of his home late today.

While reports indicated the man had committed suicide, police called to the scene found a possibility that the man had not taken his own life. A thorough investigation was ordered to determine if grounds existed for the suspicion of murder.

Relatives living in the house declare that suicide was improbable and insist that foul play caused Bowers' death. Possibility of accidental death also was being investigated.

'Flash,' Wonder Dog, in Big Rialto Picture

Flash play their roles in a most convincing manner is nothing new for players of their standing because they have often proved their ability in other motion pictures. The really remarkable thing about this production is the fine acting of Flash, a new screen star.

Flash's initial appearance on the screen but with an animal of his intelligence it should be very easy to go film vehicles for him that will make him the outstanding dog star in the industry.

Heat Is Predicted.
Oregon—Fair tonight and Friday, but fog near coast tonight. High temperature and decreasing humidity in interior, with increasing fire hazard. Gentle, variable winds, mostly northerly.

An example of what a thousand miles of ordinary driving with ordinary gasoline can do — oil 51% "gasoline" — thinning caused by incomplete burning of "wet" gas.

Shell 400, the "dry" gas, reduces oil thinning to a minimum. Notice this example — only 0.2% in a thousand miles of ordinary driving.

SHELL 400

Drip Drip Drip "wet" gasoline into your oil!

You choke your motor to start it—shoot in a mixture with heavy wet particles of gasoline that don't burn cleanly. Where do those wet particles go?

Down the cylinder walls, to thin your oil!

Thrust open the throttle for a quick getaway. What happens to the overload of fuel?

Forced past the piston rings, much of it, into the crankcase!

And in a thousand miles of driving half your oil is likely gasoline. Gasoline you bought for power, for you can't change traffic conditions or "nurse" your car at the expense of driving pleasure. But you can avoid using "wet" gasoline.

Shell 400 is a gasoline from which exact refining has eliminated the heavy wet fractions. It goes completely vaporized, a "dry" gas, into your motor. It burns completely, cleanly.

Going into use and not into your oil, Shell 400 has a real claim to more mileage, greater power. Yet it costs you no more.

Select a convenient yellow and red Shell pump; Buy Shell 400 the next few times and you'll never go back to "wet" gasoline.

You can tell Shell 400 in the starting. Pull your choke out only half way. Push it back in a few seconds after the motor starts. Shell 400 requires less choke than "wet" gas, but can stand more without causing thinning.

But there is a way to prevent oil thinning. Not by more careful driving;

Shell Motor Oil, a new lubricant that forms less carbon, soft carbon is the ideal running mate for Shell 400. Don't offset the good effects of Shell 400 by using an oil less fine than improved Shell Motor Oil.
