

SECY. KELLOGG ACCLAIMED AS PEACE SAVIOUR

U. S. Secretary of State Is Given Joyous Welcome in France—Presented With Gold Pen With Which to Sign His Peace Pact—Refuses Interviews.

HAVRE, France, Aug. 24.—(AP) Secretary Kellogg landed on French soil early this morning to be received by Mayor Meyer of Havre and a crowd of people lining the dock, which was decorated with the flags of the nations that are to sign the war renunciation treaty in Paris Monday.

The dock was lined with spectators when signs of life appeared aboard the big liner about 6 o'clock. That part of the dock set aside for the reception of the secretary was surrounded by eager hundreds.

Mr. Kellogg disembarked about 7 o'clock and upon landing was greeted by Mayor Meyer, who presented him with an artistic gold fountain pen donated by the city of Havre for use in signing the treaty. He expressed thanks for the gift and the mayor told him that his efforts for peace were hailed with the greatest satisfaction by the people of Havre.

Mr. Kellogg's stay here was reduced to a few minutes. He left for Paris at 7:30 on a special train placed at his disposal by the French government.

Michael J. McDermott, chief of the current information section of the state department, who is accompanying the secretary, announced that Mr. Kellogg would sail from Havre for Dublin next Wednesday aboard the cruiser Detroit, together with President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State. He will return to Cherbourg in time to depart for the United States on the Leviathan September 4.

Factors handling the secretary made it known that he intends to deliver no speeches while in Europe. He forestalled an offensive by press interviewers by having it announced that he would not discuss war debts or anything else.

The arrival of Mr. Kellogg was in marked contrast with the fanfare of newspaper comment with which the newspapers had heralded his coming. He reached Paris three-quarters of an hour before the announced time as a police precaution to avoid any possible hostile demonstration by communists and other extremists in commemoration of Sacco and Vanzetti, or on general principles.
