

NO VOTES CAN BE SWORN IN AT THE FALL ELECTION

At the general election November 6, no voters will be "sworn in" as has been the custom in this state from time immemorial.

A law passed by the legislature and approved by the people at a special election prohibits, and will be enforced for the first time this fall, the law provides:

"No person not duly registered 30 days before the holding of a national, state, county, or city election shall be eligible to vote at said election."

Therefore, unless a voter's name is on the registration book October 6 next, when the registration books close, he, or she, cannot vote at the national election.

To date 12,295 voters have registered in this county. County Clerk Dillah Stevens-Meyer figures there are at least 20,000 voters in the county, leaving 8000 now ineligible to vote. They are urged to register at once.

Constitutional lawyers claim that the law prohibiting "swearing in" of voters is a curtailment of constitutional rights. As the constitutionality of the law has not been determined by the courts, the county clerks have no course to follow but to instruct election officials to adhere strictly to the law.

The law prohibiting "swearing in" of voters was passed at the 1927 session of the state legislature, and was approved by the people of the state at a special election the same year. The measure did not carry in this county, but was passed by over 25,000 majority in the state.

In the past the "swearing-in" of voters has been a source of great excitement day activity, if the issue was hot and the result in doubt.

Party workers would "herd" the voters to the polls and swear them in by squads. The result was delay in balloting and confusion in counting of the votes.

OFFENBACHER HOME ON APPLEGATE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire believed to have been caused by a defective flue resulted in an estimated loss of $8000 yesterday afternoon when flames destroyed the Herman Offenbacher ranch property in the Applegate district, including practically all the buildings on the place. The loss was covered by $5000 insurance.

The dwelling house with practically all of its furniture, a barn filled with 50 tons of hay, a machine shed, a straw stack, a grainery, 500 bushels of wheat, a threshing separated and farm machinery were all destroyed. Three acres of stubble field and hay were burned over, in addition to a small area of brush. Three spot fires were also caused by the blaze.

Twelve Crater "National" forest employes fought the blaze but were handicapped by a strong wind which caused the flames to spread to other buildings. Over 50 trees of wood was also burned.

HOOVER'S SPEECH AT CRATERIAN

A feature of the Fox Movietone to be presented at the Craterian tomorrow will be portions of Herbert Hoover's acceptance speech at Palo Alto. The words of the republican presidential nominee are contained in a ten minute film, in which the high points of his talk are given. With cheers of the crowd at the conclusion and a few words by Senator Dixon of New Hampshire. An exceptional good picture of Mr. Hoover in action is shown.

Next Sunday the Movietone will present portions of the acceptance speech of Alfred E. Smith last Wednesday.

Manager George Hunt also expects to show in the near future to valley voters scenes and words from the acceptance speech of Charles Curtis, G. O. P. vice-presidential nominee.

Richard Dix Star of Craterian Show

If you are, in any sense, a baseball fan, don't miss Richard Dix in "Warming Up," Paramount's first sound picture, which comes to Hunt's Craterian theatre tomorrow.

If you like your entertainment in the form of romance, the same tip holds good.

Dix comes in a screen story which, from all appearances, will be ranked alongside of "The Quarterback," one of his best. In "Warming Up" he is the same athletic, lovable Dix but this time his toe is in the pitcher's box.

The story concerns a young rookie whose troubles are not confined to the diamond and particularly to a flax which seems to have settled on his trail for good. There is also a delicate and charming little love theme which runs through the production.

Jean Arthur plays opposite Mr. Dix. The Talking News and two acts of "Talkies" are also offered in tomorrow's complete sound program.
