

NEWS of the DAY in PICTURES

PASADENA MAN RADIO SINGER AT 102

Galusha Cole, bright-eyed, hale and energetic, two years past the century mark, sang old time songs over the radio and was the guest of honor at the picnic of the Indiana Society of Pasadena.

PLAN ROUND TRIP FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

Capt. Harry Lyon (left), navigator of the Southern Cross on its trans-Pacific flight, is planning a round trip trans-Atlantic flight with Capt. William Newton Lancaster (right), British flyer, and Mrs. Keith Miller of Australia, both of whom flew from London to Australia. They plan to takeoff from Los Angeles next year for Newfoundland where they will hop for London, returning as soon as possible.

THOUSANDS HEAR HOOVER'S LOS ANGELES SPEECH

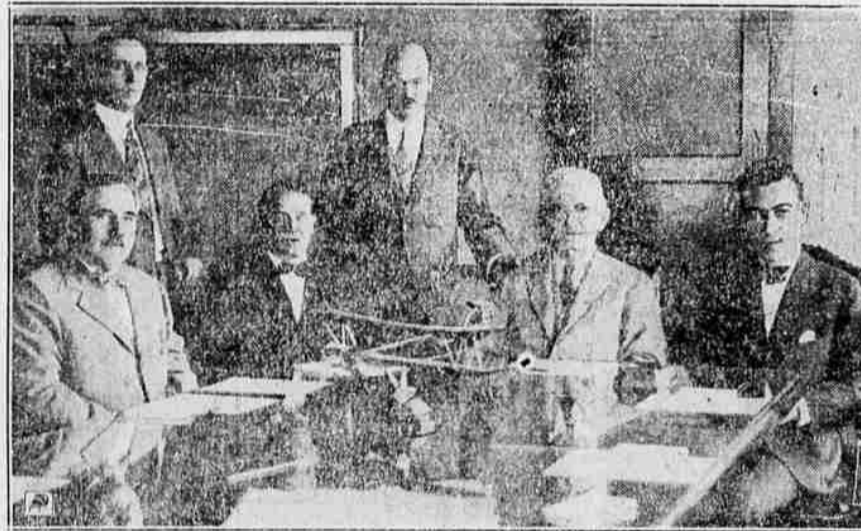

The largest crowd to greet the Republican presidential candidate on his western visit was that at Los Angeles which heard his discussion of Boulder dam legislation. "The future welfare of all states touching the river is forever interdependent," he said, "and it can be protected only by a sense of common interest and justice to all sides." Inset, Hoover delivering his speech.

PREPARES NOTIFICATION SPEECH

Sen. Key Pittman of Nevada at his desk in the senate office building in Washington working on the speech in which he will notify Alfred E. Smith of his selection as democratic presidential nominee.

PLANS RESEARCH TO MAKE AIR SAFE FOR FLYERS

Scientific research by government agencies, commercial radio and telephone companies to increase safety of aviation by solving problems of navigation is planned by a committee of the national advisory committee for aeronautics in Washington. Aerial communication, instruments and aviation meteorology will be studied. Left to right: Charles F. Marvin, federal weather bureau; Capt. E. S. Land, Guggenheim fund; Dr. Joseph S. Ames, chairman, advisory committee for aeronautics; C. M. Young, commerce department; J. S. Victory and Dr. J. C. Hunsaker.

THE HOOVERS SAY GOODBYE TO HOME FOLKS

Herbert Hoover, Republican presidential nominee and Mrs. Hoover, the latter carrying a huge bouquet presented by admirers, stepped out onto the platform of their train to bid farewell to their friends and neighbors, upon leaving Palo Alto for Los Angeles enroute to West Branch, Iowa. At West Branch, where Hoover was born, another huge home-coming welcome awaits them.

ROBINSON PREPARING ACCEPTANCE

Sen. Joseph T. Robinson working on his acceptance speech as democratic vice presidential candidate at Hot Springs National park. His notification will take place in Little Rock, Ark., August 30.

PRESIDENT IS HOST TO CHIPPEWA INDIAN BRAVES

President Coolidge, who is enjoying the summer fishing in the streams of ancient Indian hunting grounds, receives a large delegation of Chippewa tribal leaders, who brought greetings from the Indian reservation at Hayward, Wis.

To Debate in U. S.

Miss Sharp, female star of Bedford college, London, is one of three women chosen from leading English universities to debate this fall with American girls.

WHOLE DISTRICT IS PADLOCKED

"Briek Bottom," an entire district just outside Boston, Mass., has been padlocked by state police because of liquor violations. Local police were superseded and pedestrians and autos attempting to enter the section were stopped by the state police, as shown above.

THEY STILL WAIT FOR HONEYMOON

Confined to a cot in the Boston City hospital, George W. Gleason, age 80, has been compelled to temporarily postpone his honeymoon with his bride of a few days, Mrs. Ida Virginia Abbott, age 78. Both bride and groom live in Roxbury, Mass., and have been "going together" for years. Photo shows Mr. and Mrs. Gleason just after their marriage, which took place at the hospital.

SHIP TO SHORE AIRPLANE SERVICE SPEEDS MAIL

France and the United States have been brought almost a day nearer to each other through ship-to-shore airplane service. In the initial flight an amphibian plane carrying mail and a crew of three was catapulted from the deck of the liner Isle de France while 500 miles at sea, landing in New York more than 18 hours before the liner. Picture shows plane launching from Isle de France during tests.

Opposes LaFollette

George W. Mead, Wisconsin Rapids manufacturer, has entered the race for senator from Wisconsin. He will oppose Robert M. La Follette, Jr., in the republican primaries.

REWARDED FOR SAVING TRAIN

John Anhalt (center) and his 12-year-old son receiving a check for $131 from passengers of Wildwood-Philadelphia train. Anhalt and his son found a broken rail and flagged train, preventing wreck.