BUILDINGS FALL, BURYING DOZEN BENEATH DEBRIS

SHELBY, N. C., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Six persons were known to have been killed and several more were injured when three buildings in th business section collapsed here today. Several others in the building are missing. The known dead are:

Miss Ora Eskridge, an employe of the First National bank; Zeb Blanton, a farmer, and his son Carl; Guy Green and Ale Hoyle, clerks in the First National bank; one unidentified white man.

As construction crews worked desperately to clear the tangled wreckage it was feared that the death toll would mount when the basements of the collapsed structures were cleared.

A construction crew engaged in excavating under the buildings was still unaccounted for and little possibility of its escape was seen.

The collapsed structures are the First National bank, Goode's grocery store and Hadley's tailor shop. Most of the injured, an early check indicated, were employes or customers of the bank.

The excavation under the buildings was thought to have caused the collapse.

The crew doing the excavating was said to have numbered from five to seven men, mostly negroes.

George Blanton, acting vice-president of the bank, escaped with minor injuries, as did Forest Eskridge, cashier. Clarence Mull, assistant cashier, received a broken leg and arm and cuts about the head. His injuries were said by physicians to be serious.

Two other clerks were said to have been buried in the debris. The proprietor of the tailor shop was missing and was reported to have been buried in the ruins of his shop.

Four bank clerks were unaccounted for but it was thought possible that they were in the crowds about the scene. A physician climbed through dangerous overhanging walls to treat a woman bank clerk who was pinned under twisted steel and brick.

STUBBLE FIRE AT EUGENE COSTLY

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Fire which broke from a stubble burn on the Cloverleaf dairy ranch three miles east of here yesterday destroyed a barn and dairy equipment and spread across the road into an adjoining pasture where the flames spread to threaten neighboring farms and the outskirts of Springfield before it was checked.

The loss of the dairy, owned by V. Davis, was estimated at nearly $10,000. The barn was newly renovated and was full of hay and dairy feed as well as dairy equipment. Two silos also burned, one filled with ensilage.

Nearly one hundred volunteer fire fighters and the Springfield fire department checked the blaze in the pasture land while Eugene firemen protected the Davis home and buildings.

MRS. LEVINE SAYS NO SUIT PENDING

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(AP) Mrs. Charles A. Levine, wife of the first trans-Atlantic air passenger, regards as "absurd" rumors growing out of the sale of their home at public auction. "I have never thought of filing a suit of any kind against Mabel Boll," she said, "she is my very dear friend." The property at Rockaway, sold by the Levine corporation, brought $264,659. Mrs. Levine said there was no special significance to the sale.

For Inflamed Breathing Tubes

Try Dr. Blosser's Medical Cigarettes Next Time

Nasal catarrh is not only disagreeable and offensive, but it will lead to serious trouble.

That inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of the air passages of the head, nose and throat may spread to the point where it is incurable and a danger to life.

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes are composed of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries. The warm smoke vapor is inhaled into the affected air passages and will go where sprays, douches and salves cannot reach. They contain no tobacco or cubebs, and being harmless, are used by children, as well as adults.

If you suffer from any catarrhal trouble, plain nasal catarrh, catarrhal deafness, hay fever, asthma, bronchial irritations, or are subject to frequent colds, get from any druggist a convenient pocket-size package of Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes, and prove for yourself their pleasant, beneficial effects.

POLICE HUNT 'JOE' FOR RUM DEATH

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 28.—(AP) A man known only as "Joe" was being sought here today for questioning by police as the result of liquor party last night that ended in the death of Mrs. Hilda Johnson.

Police were called in when Gust Johnson, husband of the woman, failed to revive her. Johnson told officers that he and his wife, with "Joe" had been drinking. He left the place for a few minutes, he said, and when he returned, found the woman unconscious and Joe missing.

Physicians said the woman had probably died from acute alcoholism. Johnson is being held for a coroner's examination.

AUTO DEATHS IN JULY TOTAL 32

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 28.—(AP)—Fines totaling $4788.85 were paid as a result of traffic violations during July, says the monthly report of T. Raffety, chief of state traffic inspectors, and fees collected by the department totaled $6627.25. Nine stolen cars valued at $4300 were recovered.

Deaths resulting from traffic accidents during the month totaled 32, of which 28 were outside of Portland and four in Portland.

There were 418 cases of injury, 235 in Portland and 183 outside. The total number of accidents was 2513.

Vaudeville

A bright and cheery program of Association Vaudeville comes to Hunt's Criterian theatre tomorrow matinee and night. There are instrumental surprises, creative and original novelties, irresistible comedy and beautiful girls.

The Manila Four, a group of talented young men who are natives of the Philippine Islands, combine their ability and versatility in an orchestral presentation. Their instruments are the kind with which they are most familiar, namely, stringed instruments.

Chester "Rube" Nelson's impersonation of a bucolic character is as delightful as his keen wit and homely philosophy is amusing. Gertrude M Parish, his charming partner, possesses a wonderful voice.

That spirit of perpetual joy and freedom from dull care and worry is more than emphasized by "Mammy and Her Picks," who are true characters of the sunny south. Mammy renders several of those sweet and melodious spirituals, and her Picks execute a routine of stepping that is remarkable.

Roy Dove is an unusual type of juggler. Aided by the comely Coreen Cattle, he presents an act entitled "Bright Bits of Vaudeville."

Warner and Cole in "Follow Me" feature stepping and strutting, all of which is of an original stive. Their rapid cross-fire of witty sallies keeps an audience busy trying to follow either one of them.

PAIR JAILED FOR BAD INTENTIONS

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 28. (AP)—Russ Finn and Tom Allcott, residents of Highland, were brought here today by Sheriff Tom Kemp, charged not so much with manufacturing liquor as with preparing to do so. The raiding officers said they found a 50-gallon still which had never been used. A quantity of mash, said to have been ready for the first operation of the plant, was seized.

Wheel of Chance At The Rialto

Put down another dramatic bulls-eye for Richard Barthelmess!

The star has added another histrionic classic to his recent "The Patent Leather Kid" and "The Noose," in "The Wheel of Chance" the film version of Fannie Hurst's short story, "Roulette," which opened to enthusiastic acclaim yesterday at the Rialto theatre.

Barthelmess enacts a dual role, each one a clear-cut character delineation worthy of being placed alongside his finest portrayals. The contrasting study of the two roles, that of twin brothers, presents a startling new phase of the acting ability of Barthelmess.

The story of "The Wheel of Chance" relates the dramatic adventures of twin brothers, separated in childhood by a trick of fate, and meeting again twenty years later in one of the most dramatically conceived scenes in the history of the motion picture. To tell more than this would be to take away the thrills and enjoyment in witnessing the picture.

Colleen Moore In Lilac Time

Hunt's Criterian theatre has booked one of the biggest productions of the year as the second Greater Movie Season special, starting Thursday.

Adapted from the celebrated stage play by Jane Cowl and Jane Murfin, "Lilac Time" is the story of a little French girl who grows from childhood to young womanhood under the shadow of the world war. She lives with her grandparents in a village near the allied front through which day by day troops pass on their way to the front. She jokes with them and she sorrows with them.

All of the drama, the pathos of a girl caught in the maelstrom of the great conflict, is said to be admirably depicted by Miss Moore, who, as Jeannine, reaches dramatic heights that far outshine any role of her career. Gary Cooper handles the chief supporting role.

Two good acts of "Talkies" are on the same program.

Notice of Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution on foreclosure duly issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Jackson, to me directed and dated on the 27th day of July, 1928, in a certain action therein, wherein J. D. French, as Plaintiff, recovered judgment against Pleasant Creek Mining Corporation, a Nevada corporation, the Defendant, for the sum of Six Hundred Twenty-one and 77-100 ($621.77) Dollars, with interest from May 30, 1928, at 6%, with costs and disbursements taxed at Eighteen and no-100 ($18.00) Dollars, and $4.80 costs of recording liens, and the further sum of Two Hundred and no-100 ($200.00) Dollars, as attorney's fees, which judgment was enrolled and docketed in the Clerk's office of said Court in said County on the 27th day of July, 1928.

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to the terms of the said execution, I will on the 29th day of September, 1928, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., at the front door of the Courthouse in the City of Medford, in Jackson County, Oregon, offer for sale and will sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder, to satisfy said judgment, together with the costs of this sale, subject to redemption as provided by law, all of the right, title and interest that the said defendant Pleasant Creek Mining Corporation, a Nevada corporation, had on the 30th day of May, 1928, or now have in and to the following described property, situated in the County of Jackson, State of Oregon, to-wit:

Those certain mining claims situate in Jackson County, Oregon, and described as follows: The Good Hope, Sonora, Liberty, Modoc, Alturas, Everett, Detroit, Pittsburg, Doctor, Boulevard, Central, Pontiac, Avalon, Greenville, Meldrum, and Cass; a more particular description of each of said mining claims being set forth and contained in that certain deed from John C. Haynes, Trustee, to Pleasant Creek Mining Corporation, of record at pages 428 to 438 inclusive of Volume 161, Deed Records of Jackson County, Oregon.

Dated this 28th day of August, 1928.

RALPH G. JENNINGS,
Sheriff of Jackson County, Oregon.
