

An evening of music, action, drama, interest, excitement, novelties, and good fun. Every one in the two counties is invited and should be there. Secure tickets early at Scout Headquarters or through a Boy Scout.

Hear the Elks Band, famous for its good music — The local Junior Drum Corps—The 25-piece Cottage Grove Scouts Drum Corps and several other outside Boys groups are to cooperate to make this one grand show.

Everyone Is Invited

TO ATTEND THE FIRST ANNUAL

BOY SCOUT JAMBOREE

Medford Armory, Friday, August 31

Stunts, Pageant, Music, Court of Honor, Merit Badge Exhibits

On Friday evening the scouts will present a review of their year's activity to the people of Medford and southern Oregon. This review will be in the form of a great Boy Scout Jamboree, the first of regular, annual jamborees, and William Lee Bricker, Scout Executive, the members of Grater Lake Council and the scout masters and scout themselves are extending a cordial invitation to everyone to attend and see the strides they have made in Scouting during the past twelve months.
