AMERICAN OLYMPIC ATHLETES RETURN HOME

terles; Dumovich and Lombardi; Ruether and Spruz.

Los Angeles ran wild and subdued the late league leading Senators, 6 to 1. Kallo left the Sacramento mound in the first after the Angels had scored four times. The Senators' only run came in the first on a pair of doubles. Batteries: Peters and Warren; Kallo, Gould, Bonnelly and Severeid.

GIANTS WALLOPED TWICE BY BOSTON; FLAG RACE CLOSER

By Herbert Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer

It's a dog fight for runner up position in the National league. A small blanket would suffice to cover the Giants, Cubs, Reds and Pirates who are battling fiercely to catch the St. Louis Cardinals before Bill McKechnie gets his crew too far away.

Six percentage points—or half a game—divide the Giants, present occupants of second place, from the Reds and the Pirates who are tied for fourth position. The Cubs, according to one way of reckoning, are all even with the Giants, having won four more games and lost four more than the Clan McGraw, but they rank no higher than third in percentage.

It took some heavy losing and winning by the five contenders yesterday to bring about the situation.

The Cardinals, apparently all through with the slump that cost them first place for a few days not so long ago, stretched their lead to five and a half games by downing the Cubs for the second straight day. The Giants ran into disaster where they least expected it for they were defeated twice by the seventh place Boston Braves at the polo grounds. The Pirates further jumbled up the standings by taking both ends of a double bill with the practically helpless Phils, and thus moved up to tie the idle Reds.

Behind some canny pitching by Clarence Mitchell, the Cards had no trouble registering a 9 to 0 victory over the Cubs.

Rogers Hornsby seemed to take great delight in the Braves double defeat of the Giants, 3 to 2 and 7 to 5. He got six hits, three of them doubles, during the day, drove in two runs and scored four himself.

The Pirates crushed the Phils, 9 to 2 and 14 to 9. Carmen Hill gave up only four hits in the first game while Joe Dawson received credit for the second when Burleigh Grimes was knocked out of the box in the second inning.

In the American league, the Philadelphia Athletics regained the ground they lost on Monday by taking both ends of a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox. Lefty Grove hung up his twelfth straight victory in the opener, 1 to 0.

Blitz Miller's single in the eleventh scored Mule Haas with the run that gave the A's the night-cap, 4 to 3. The double victory placed the A's again three games back of the New York Yankees who were idle as far as league play was concerned.

A six run rally in the third gave the Detroit Tigers an 8 to 4 decision over the Cleveland Indians in the opening game of the series.

The St. Louis Browns called for two runs in the eleventh inning to turn back the Boston Red Sox 8 to 6.

PORTLAND SCORES A DECISIVE WIN

(By the Associated Press)

It was a great day for the boys in the lower division and the three first place clubs fell in defeat after more or less consistent winning series. Hollywood, after two weeks on the road winning 12 of the 14 games, lost to Portland 10 to 6 in a game featured by five homers. Heath, Bassler and Ostentberg of the Stars got four-base clouts and Knight and Sigarons of the Renegades also registered in the home run list. Portland scored eight in the sixth to clinch victory. Batteries: Knight and Whitney; Shellenback, Murphy and Essler.

Seattle downed the Bells 12 to 9 in a game of wasted base hits. The tribe got 18 to 19 for the Bells but made most of its day and started correctly with a six run smash in the first. The Bells scored seven in the sixth and seventh but the threat fell short of victory. Batteries: Teachout, Graham and Ainsmith; Hollins, Hughes and Sypher, Brenzel.

Oakland played good ball behind Martin Dumovich who shut out the Seals, 3 to 0, allowing only four San Franciscans to reach first. Dutch Ruether was good but the Oaks lunched five hits in the fifth but score three times. Bat-

TUNNEY MAY PLAY GOLF WITH WALES; SEES A NOVELIST

LONDON, Aug. 29.—(AP)—Gene Tunney began a series of bouts with the heavyweights of literature today, inaugurating a new round of intellectual meetings by luncheon with Hugh Walpole, the novelist, at his London home.

Walpole had extended the invitation to the former champion shortly after the latter's arrival in London. It was a tete-a-tete and none of Tunney's friends went along.

The long-heralded meeting with Bernard Shaw will take place in the middle of September after the playwright has returned from his Italian vacation and Tunney is finished with his continental trip.

The former champion is still clinging to his status as a "private American citizen" and when Tunney suggested that he give five minutes daily at a specified time to seeing newspapermen, answered: "I don't see why I should. I am an ordinary private citizen."

This morning he discussed with Thornton Wilder, the novelist, their proposed walking tour on the continent which it has now been decided will be in the Tyrol. Another visitor was the Marquis of Clydesdale, young boxing enthusiast.

While no arrangements have yet been made for a golf match between Tunney and the Prince of Wales, members of the American group hope that a match may eventually be brought about through Sir Francis Cotteringham, amateur golfer who has a private links at
