Vote Communist? Why? We Suggest Two Movies. Wealth Via the Shotgun. Up Go the Stocks.

(Copyright, 1928, by Star Co.) On a building in Union Square, New York, a gigantic sign reads "Vote Communists." "For the party of class struggle." "For the workers against the bosses."

That does not attract, as it would have done, when New York's garment workers were almost starving in sweat shops, when street car drivers made $42 a month, when bread lines were long at 2 o'clock every morning, waiting hours in bitter cold for a piece of dry bread and a cup of coffee.

Times have changed. The struggle today is not of workers against bosses, but a struggle of the worker to become a boss.

As for the word "communist," ask the gentleman that owns one to give you a half interest in his automobile, in his house and lot, his savings bank account.

Those are things that millions of workers own today, and few or none owned forty years ago.

To make your appeal succeed, make it sound reasonable. That applies even to communists, usually sincere.

Rosamond Pinchot, daughter of the able radical Amos Pinchot, is out for Governor Smith.

Helen Wills, California wonder and world champion, is for Hoover.

William Fox, owner of "movietone," the talking motion picture, should invite each of these young ladies to talk five minutes for her candidate on the screen in every theatre in the United States.

Miss Pinchot might appear in her costume as the nun in "The Miracle." Helen Wills in tennis costume.

District Attorney Monaghan, of Philadelphia, says that leaders of Philadelphia's bootleg ring, using fictitious names, have deposited $10,000,000 in banks and trust companies in 12 months.

Fortunes can be made in many directions in this country. The saved-off shotgun, automatic and portable machine gun of the rum runner, can be as profitable as the stock ticker.

Sixty different stocks went to new high prices yesterday, somebody bought nearly 4,000,000 shares in five hours.

Even usurious interest rates, encouraged by the federal reserve, seem unable to check the conviction that this country has securities worth owning.

By the way, you haven't seen the beginning of high prices yet. But don't gamble.

W. J. Bryan would rub his eyes, giving a good imitation of Rip Van Winkle, after his long sleep, if he could see our rich men rushing to the democratic party.

The latest is Uzal M. McCarter, president of the Fidelity Union trust company of Newark. Mr. McCarter, brother of Thomas McCarter, head of New Jersey's public service corporation, has millions of his own and manages tens of millions for others. He is not only "not afraid of the democratic candidate," he is for him. He was a republican in other campaigns.

MR. HOOVER SEES SELF IN "TALKY"

Attends Private Showing With Son—Cheering News Received From New York—Mr. Smith Back in Albany, Silent On Campaign Plans.

By James L. West Associated Press Staff Writer. WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover took time out today from his campaign work to see himself in the act of delivering a political speech and to hear his own voice, as recorded in the talking movies.

Leaving his headquarters early in the day with his son, Allan, and his secretary, George Akerson, date drove to a downtown theater for a private showing of both his notification ceremonies at Palo Alto, Calif., and his appearance before the people of his native state, under a "big top" at West Branch, Iowa.

Returning to his headquarters he attacked an accumulation of business so as to clear his desk before the arrival of F. M. Prince of Hoover, a friend of the late George Harvey, who was the only caller on his list for the day.

With William H. Hill, chairman of the Hoover-Curtis campaign committee in New York, and H. Edmond Machold, chairman of the empire state republican committee, the nominee yesterday went deeper into the New York situation. Machold, who recently was selected to succeed the late George K. Morris, said he told Hoover New York state could be counted upon to go republican despite the claims of John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee.

Asked about the effect of the prohibition issue in New York state, Machold said that unquestionably this issue would loom larger in New York City than in any other section of the country. However, he expects the up-state dry vote to counteract the down-state wet vote.

Hoover also received further assurance about Minnesota from Representative Walter F. Newton, of that state. These supplemented those given to the nominee during his visit last week to Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The terrific heat in which Washington has sweltered during the week, since the return here of Hoover from California has caused him some discomfort, but he has stood the strain of long hours of work rather well. He is happy to be in his new headquarters, where he has ample working space, and also room to see visitors, and for his somewhat enlarged office force to function with the minimum of effort.

He plans to keep on the job over Saturday, but will take a rest Sunday and probably also on Monday. It is stated that not only will he make no address on labor day, but that he will issue no statement to the voters.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 31.—(AP)—What Governor Smith will do next to further his cause for the presidency still was a debatable question today, as the democratic nominee returned to his desk at the capital.

The first week of his travels since taking over the party leadership August 22, was a matter of record and yet no inkling has come from him, although there have been several unofficial reports, concerning the territory he intends to invade, and just when he will start on his campaign jaunt.

Printed accounts, varying as to sections of the country he will strike first have drawn no comment from the governor. He has three tentative itineraries before him, and until he has determined which one he believes best dovetails with his ideas on campaign strategy, he will keep mum on the subject.

From now until labor day and possibly for a few days thereafter he plans to give his attention principally to matters of state concern and to rest up for the trying days ahead.

Looking back over the ground covered in New Jersey and New York since leaving Albany, Aug. 23, the democratic nominee today had chalked up five speeches, three of which were in the open air, although he is known to be averse to outdoor oratory, because of the danger of overtaking the voice and of finding it practically useless in the vital fight of the campaign.

MICKIE WALKER'S RIGHT PUTS EMANUEL TO SLEEP

Light-heavyweight championship aspirations of Armand Emanuel, lawyer-fighter of San Francisco were floored when he went down in the seventh round under the impact of Middleweight Champion Mickie Walker's short, right jab. The thoroughness of the knockout is shown in the above flashlight of Emanuel's stretched-out form, taken during the referee's count. Below, the third round, 'voical of Emanuel's style of lone-stance scarring.

HEARST CABLES HINT NEW LINE MRS. WEBER HIT OPPOSITION TO IN VALLEY BY G.O.P., W.C.T.U. AL AND TIGER ESPEE DICKER AND PREACHERS

Publisher Will Support Hoover and Scores Tammany and Nicholas Butler—Declares Prohibition 'False Issue.' Move to Purchase Coast Line Under Way, With Extension From Eureka, Calif., North Into Oregon Reported. Lady Politician of State Says Al Is Damp, But Honest, and Scores Politics in Pulpit—Warns Against 'Pious Gossips'

NE WYORK, Aug. 31.—(AP)—William Randolph Hearst, newspaper publisher in a cable from Paris today declared for Herbert Hoover of his home state of California for president.

Hearst's pronouncement was in reply to a cable query from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle: "Whom will you support for president and what issues will determine the election?"

In 800 words Hearst stated his opposition to the prohibition stand of Governor Smith whom he labeled as a Tammany candidate. "Apparently the democratic party is endeavoring to make its opposition to prohibition the dominant issue of the campaign," he asserted, adding that in his opinion it was a "false issue."

If the people do want a change in prohibition, Hearst said, he thought it would be in the direction of "genuine temperance." "That means they will not want it modified by Tammany Hall which, as everybody knows, has always been hand in glove with the liquor interests and has always in the past supported the saloon and been supported by the saloon," he added.

The real issue, he declared, is the "people's wealth and welfare, their material and spiritual benefits," which, he believes, the republican party is best equipped to guarantee.

As for Tammany, he asserted, "the history of Tammany under Tweed and Croker and Murphy and in fact the Tammany scandals in New York today established the fact beyond contradiction that the people of the United States do not want Tammany in control of the nation. It is bad enough to have Tammany in control of New York. It would be a calamity to have it in control of the United States."

He referred to Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler as "one erstwhile" presidential candidate who "has aligned himself with Tammany Hall and the liquor interests because he does not like Mr. Hoover's attitude on the liquor question."

PARIS, Aug. 31.—(AP)—International complications were thought possible today due to the arrest of General Cesare Rossi, exiled former fascist leader, on what was termed a "sentimental journey" just over the Italian border from Switzerland.

Some Swiss dispatches questioned the regularity of the capture of the man who with Mussolini and two other organized the famous march on Rome, and later fled from Italy. It is reported that Rossi was seized at Campione, where it is said no Italian visa is necessary for a visit, and was taken to the jail at San Donato.

There are various versions as to how Rossi was "snatched" across the border. Some say a woman fascist agent lured him there.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Portland Pacific railroad officials here today said they have, as yet, no information relative to plans of the Southern Pacific to acquire full control of the Northwestern Pacific by taking over the Santa Fe road's interest. The statement was made in answer to a query following a San Francisco report that negotiations were under way between the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe for sale of the latter's one-half interest in the Northwestern Pacific.

The San Francisco Dispatch quoted E. H. Maggard, president of the Northwestern Pacific, as announcing that negotiations were under way. He was said to have declared that, if the deal went through, it would mean the extension of the Northwestern Pacific into new territory.

Maggard was quoted as intimating that the long-cherished dream of Eureka, Calif., would be realized and that the railroad would be extended from Eureka to connect with the Southern Pacific's California-Oregon line somewhere in the vicinity of Medford or Grants Pass.

The San Francisco Dispatch quoted an interview with Paul Shoup, executive vice-president of the Southern Pacific. Shoup was said to have declared: "Any statement concerning the Northwestern Pacific must come from Maggard, who is president of that company."

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 31.—(AP)—H. H. Pomero, deputy state fire marshal, announced today that information charging Martin Mikkelson with arson will be filed at Oregon City today. An investigation followed the burning of Mikkelson's home near Sandy. Mikkelson was found by neighbors who rushed to the scene when flames burst from the home. The man was found tied to a fence about 300 yards from the burning building and told a story of having been attacked by two men.

Following his discharge from a hospital, where he was taken, after he had been found in an allegedly weakened condition, Mikkelson declined to discuss the case or to give additional details of the asserted attack.

Pomero said he discovered the man carried $1500 insurance on the place.

SEA YIELDS A RELIC OF LOST PLANE

Wheel Washed Up On Iceland Shores Thought Clue to Fate of St. Raphael, Bearing Princess Across Atlantic—Tire Firm Identifies Wreckage.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—(AP)—The Paladium tire manufacturing company has identified the markings on an airplane wheel found off the coast of Iceland as being one of their products and suggests that the wheel may have belonged to the Fokker airplane in which Princess Lowenstein-Wertheim, Captain Leslie Hamilton and Colonel P. E. Mischin disappeared just a year ago while on a trans-Atlantic flight to Canada.

The firm sold two such wheels on Aug. 12, 1927, and says that wheels of this type were used on the St. Raphael, which left Upton, England, on Aug. 31, 1927.

The St. Raphael left Upton, Eng., Aug. 31, 1927, on a trans-Atlantic flight to Ottawa, Canada. It was only while the plane was being prepared to take off that the princess, who financed the flight, suddenly announced that she would make the journey.

An unofficial message received at the British air ministry that night said that the plane was "going strong." The message was thought to have come from a steamship, but the position was not given.

At Harbor Grace, N. F., all preparations were made to receive the plane, but no definite word was obtained and as time went on without the plane putting in an appearance anywhere, hope was gradually given up for its safety.

From reports in Ireland, it was definitely known that the plane had passed over the Irish Free State and that it was at least 100 miles out to sea. From that time on it disappeared from view and its fate became a mystery just as many other trans-Atlantic attempts.

KLAMATH FALLS MAKES BID FOR ELKS CONVENTION

ASTORIA, Ore., Aug. 31.—(AP)—With the two most important items of business—the election of officers and the selection of next year's convention city, set for late this afternoon, the Oregon state Elks, in annual convention here, will complete their business sessions and devote their time solely to the gala events to be held tonight and tomorrow.

Committee appointments were announced yesterday by Connie J. Grab of Baker, state president. Politics held the spotlight today, with several cities expecting to put up a candidate for president.

Klamath Falls was leading today as contender for the host in 1929, with the possibility that Salem may put in a stronger bid.

A golf tournament on the Astoria Country club links, trap shooting matches, boat rides to sea and other events were on today's program.

Scheduled for tonight was a band concert and a walking beauty contest. A six-mile bathing race, boat races on the Columbia and a parade will be held tomorrow. More than 1200 delegates had arrived today.

AMERICAN WALKER WINS IN HANDY FASHION

Bobby Jones Sets Pace for Victory By Win Over English Champion—Evans and MacKenzie in Ruck.

CHICAGO GOLF CLUB, CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—America today won the right to keep the Walker cup which the British have tried vainly for nine years to lift. In addition to the four points won in the foursomes, the Americans today won four singles matches and clinched the cup, with the prospect that they would win two more and lose not more than two out of the total 12 points at stake for the four foursomes and the eight singles matches.

The only Americans in the ruck were Chick Evans, who was five down to T. A. Torrance at the 25th hole, and Roland MacKenzie, one down to G. N. C. Martin at the 23rd hole.

Captain Bobby Jones set the pace to victory with a slashing defeat of the British champion, T. P. Perkins, 13 and 12, while Frances Ouimet took Major C. O. Hazlet into camp, 8 and 7, and Watts Gunn came along with a 11 to 10 victory over E. H. Barnard. Then Jess Steator, who had faltered and been down or only a hole or two in the lead, sailed home ahead of W. L. Hope, 5 and 4.

George Von Elm finally clinched a victory over William Tweedell by taking the 34th hole after being three down at the end of the morning round, and won 3 and 2, to increase the American points to nine.

CHICAGO GOLF CLUB, CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Bobby Jones set a fast pace today in the single matches for the Walker cup with the British team and, scoring 36-31-79, defeated a water penny. Jones took a lead of 11 up over T. P. Perkins, British champion.

None of the other matches were so one-sided, and in some of the eight contests the Britons took a lead but not big enough but what it could be overcome in the afternoon, while some were wiped out before the morning round ended.

Jones, after missing a five-foot putt for a par on the first hole, got five pars and two birdies before he flubbed a shot from the rough on the ninth hole to the pond and took six, while his opponent, being wholly off the game that won him the British title, got only three perfect holes and took 42 strokes to the turn.

Counting home Bobby scored every hole perfectly except for a birdie 4 on the 527 yard 16th, while the Briton could not get his score and took 42 for an 184.

The large gallery that followed this match at the van of the others was pleased with the fine golf of the American titleholder but got no thrill from the one-sided contest.

Dr. William Tweedell, captain of the British team, had better success than Perkins, scoring a good 73 and gaining a lead of 3 up over George Von Elm, who took 41 for the second nine to total 77.

Francis Ouimet did not do so well as Jones but he came within a stroke of par 79 and got a lead of six up on Major C. O. Hazlet who took ten more strokes than the Boston star.

Jimmie Johnston, by winning the 18th hole with a birdie, quit for the intermission one up on Eugene Storey who had the lead nearly all the way. Johnston used 41 strokes to the turn and was 2 down. He went 3 down with a 4 on the baby tenth but then scored seven straight pars and topped them off with a 3 on the 424 yard 18th. This gave him a total of 76 to Storey's 77.

Death Toll of the Automobile

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Clifford Engle, 9 year old son of Roy Engle, 916 Peacock Lane, Portland, was probably fatally injured this morning when a heavy truck passed over him in the busy business district.

He was taken to the county hospital in the police ambulance, accompanied by his father who was visiting with a relative in a store on the street at the time of the accident.
