

REGULAR MEET OF COMMUNITY CLUB, TALENT, WED.

TALENT, Aug. 29.—The Talent Community club will hold their regular meeting at the club room next Wednesday, Sept. 5th.

The Talent Rebekah club will meet at the country home of Mrs. Ella Patterson and Mrs. Will Ferns next Friday afternoon, Sept. 7th.

Mrs. Estelle Poill visited over the week end last week at the home of Prof. and Mrs. L. P. Miller and family.

T. G. Fincher and family arrived last week from Gridley, Calif. They moved into the old Lacey hotel last Saturday and will locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hibbard and daughter Margaret returned home Sunday after spending a week's vacation at Crescent City.

Arnold Coleman, formerly of Jacksonville, who has spent the past three years in Oakland, Cal., visited at the home of his cousin Mrs. Bill Childers and family Sunday afternoon.

Jeff Bell returned home Sunday after spending the week end at the home of C. Curry at Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. E. G. Tibbets and daughter Maxine arrived last Thursday from Yoncalla and were guests at the L. P. Miller home.

Mrs. Elmer Kincaid was a business visitor in Medford Tuesday afternoon.

E. E. Cook arrived Saturday afternoon from Klamath Falls and spent the week end at his home in Talent.

Mable Jones, who is very ill at her home there, Mrs. Jones is a former resident of Jacksonville.

Mrs. A. Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schueckling, cousins of Miss Iside McCully, and Miss Margie Cooper, all of Salem, visited Miss McCully Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pernoll and son Junior and Miss Eva Couch from Applegate were in our city Friday.

Mrs. George Maxwell was calling in Medford Saturday at the home of Miss Billis and Mrs. Grant Nelson.

Miss Emily McElroon, who is at Pendleton, Ore., is quite ill with hay fever.

Mrs. Lee Port from the Star ranger station was in our city Monday.

Mrs. E. N. Pomeroy and daughter, Arlene of Alturas, Cal., who have been visiting at the home of her parents here for the past week, started on her return trip Saturday.

Sylvester Millard and wife of Klamath Falls brought their ten-year-old twin daughters to the Rogue river sanitarium Sunday and had their tonsils removed.

W. D. Roberts of the Jackson Street grocery store, of Medford, was a visitor at the W. H. Bunel home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dunnington and Sylvester Millard and wife visited Sunday at the home of Chester Martin and wife.

T. E. Dunnington, accompanied by Buster White, went to Pinehurst Sunday to meet his wife and son Tommy, who have been in Klamath Falls for the past week.

Mrs. Ella Rawling Eades of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and daughter Geraldine of Central Point called on Miss Iside McCully Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. A. Childers and daughter Maxine returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson and Mrs. E. S. Severance of this city spent Saturday and Sunday on Huckleberry mountain.

John Zeannant and Ernest Olson attended the moving pictures at the Craterian theater in Medford Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nichols and children of Reeds port, Ore., were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larson and daughter moved Monday to Yreka, Cal., where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Austen Rosinger of Ashland was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter Russell, Thursday.

W. A. Childers and daughter, Maxine, returned Sunday from the J. S. Weeks orchard near Prospect, where Mrs. Childers was sorting peaches.

Mrs. Fred Butcher and children accompanied Mr. Butcher Sunday evening back to his work at Owen-Oregon Lumber company camp No. 1, above Butte Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wilson were most pleasantly surprised last week upon the arrival of the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mayer of San Francisco.

William H. Beggs, former resident of Jacksonville, passed away at Baker, Ore., August 22, following an illness of more than three years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cook were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tryer Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Petri and son Elton spent Sunday at Chiloquin.

Advertisement for Crisco featuring an illustration of a frying pan and the text 'fries without smoke or unpleasant odor' and 'CRISCO'.

Advertisement for Johnson's Market with the headline 'JOHNSON'S MARKET' and 'EVERYTHING TO EAT'.

Advertisement for Johnson's Market with the headline 'Another Big Savings For Our Customers' and 'From now on our Saturday Specials will not be listed in this space.'

Advertisement for People's Market and Johnson's Market with the headline 'RELIABLE CASH GROCERY' and 'QUALITY MEATS'.

Advertisement for Mac's Lunch with the headline 'Special Home Cooked Saturday Lunch' and 'Mac's Lunch'.

Advertisement for MAMMY SPERRY'S KITCHEN with the headline 'Tune in on MAMMY SPERRY'S KITCHEN' and 'Tuesday and Friday Mornings'.

Advertisement for JACKSONVILLE with the headline 'JACKSONVILLE'.

Advertisement for EAGLE POINT with the headline 'EAGLE POINT'.

Advertisement for radio stations including KFI Los Angeles, KGW Portland, KGO Oakland, KOMO Seattle, KPO San Francisco, and KHQ Spokane.