State traffic officers are used to tagging cars for violations of the code, but for traffic officers to have their cars tagged for the same reason is less common. Yesterday F. F. Farmer of Medford, who stated that he was a state traffic officer, appeared before Police Judge Lem L. Gaghagen in answer to a tag accusing him of parking his car on Fifth street all night. He pleaded guilty, but was dismissed without a fine because he was not a resident here. Three other violators who were visitors were dismissed for traffic offenses.—Klamath News.

The public is cordially invited to see through the new Conger Funeral Parlor, located on West Main at Newtown street, Saturday. 161*

State Traffic Lieutenant and Mrs. O. O. Nichols left this forenoon for Lakeview to attend the annual roundup there. They were accompanied by State Traffic Captain Kenneth Bloom, and will probably be gone for a week.

The new Conger Mortuary will be open for public inspection at any hour Saturday. Finest funeral chapel between Portland and San Francisco. 161*

Mrs. Delbert M. Little and small child of Alameda, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mrs. H. D. Flarey. Mr. Little was formerly in charge of the U. S. weather station here. Among the hotel guests in Medford from the state of Washington are Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Williams, Miss R. Carlwell and Eugene Williams of Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Minkin of Spokane and Rachel Watson, Mrs. O. F. Anderson, Miss Helen Henry, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bowers and Frank Landton of Seattle.

This month, so far, 211 carloads of lime, rock, cement, logs and fruit have been shipped from the Gold Hill depot, setting a record for shipments from that town. Of this total, 124 cars of cement were shipped to Portland and other markets.

Misses Ernestine Frodenburg and Thelma Heard resumed duties yesterday in the Mail Tribune business office, following a vacation which was spent in Washington and Canada and upon which they were accompanied by Miss Itha Heard. The two young ladies are still thanking their good fortune in escaping drowning as passengers on the passenger airplane which fell into the ocean between Seattle and Victoria. They were passengers on the plane on the trip before it disappeared.
