

Local and Personal

The children of the city and older students are enjoying the fall today the last day of the long vacation and tomorrow morning will find them vying their way eagerly to the various school buildings for the opening of the school year. Superintendent of Schools Hedrick again asks that the parents of all school children below the third grade write on a piece of paper the name, address, etc., of each pupil, and also their own names for the pupil to hand to the teacher of his or her room.

Wanted—Packers at once, Pine-nacle Packing Co. 165.
Good news to her many friends in Jacksonville and elsewhere Oregon is the return of Miss Mollie Brit to her home in Jacksonville, after having been a patient in a Portland hospital for some time. She arrived Saturday evening accompanied by her brother Emil.

The Sixth Street Super-Service Station has Myers high pressure washing and high pressure greasing machinery, which insures best service. 165.
Glen Bremer left here Sunday morning for Roseburg, where he expected to spend the holiday with an uncle, T. Holbarston.

Today was Labor day at the local packing plants, with practically every one running full force. Ida Wood and Florence Graves, piano teachers. High school credits given. 229 N. Oakdale. Phone 1042-W. 169

Tomorrow night, Tuesday, following the first show, Adrienne Steward's style show will be featured at the Criterion theater. In addition to approximately a dozen local girls, two professional models from San Francisco will be here to display the array of beautiful new fall and winter clothes. Costumes for all occasions, including sport, school room, office, afternoon and evening wear, will be displayed. Shows will be furnished by the bootery and all jewelry by Healy's.

At the corner of Sixth and Fifth streets the Sixth Street Super-Service Station is equipped to give the best in washing and greasing. 165.
Californians registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fleischman and M. B. and R. Crane of Los Angeles, Mrs. B. Griffith and Mrs. Donovan of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allen and C. L. Hill of Orange, R. H. Jr., and Miss Sarah Blanchard and J. M. Warner of Santa Paula, Mrs. R. E. Hackett of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Chatterton of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stiles of Marysville, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mullin, Jack Mullin and Miss Mary Groomer of San Rafael, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nelson of Chico, Delbert Buraker of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. John Towne of Burlingame and Mrs. V. B. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William White and Frank Tyson of San Francisco.

Thomas Reedy & Ins. Co., Room 12, Palm Block, Small secured loans and contracts discontinued. 1587.
Mrs. L. E. Knutson and daughters are visitors in Medford for a short time at the home of Mrs. Knutson's brother-in-law, Charles Knutson, while en route to their home in Mitchell, S. D., from a trip through southern California.

An important meeting of the board of directors of the Greater Medford club will be held Thursday afternoon, September 6, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the home of the president, Mrs. R. V. Williams, 1225 Reddy avenue. Members of the board are requested to call Mrs. Williams if they are going to attend the meeting. Her telephone number is 1350.

Because of today being a holiday the U. S. weather bureau issues no forecast for the weather tonight and tomorrow, but it is presumed that the temperature will be continued warm. Yesterday's maximum was 97.
Charles Lloyd, local auto salesman, when he appeared before Circuit Judge C. M. Thomas Saturday on a bad check charge, suffered the revocation of his parole from a year's sentence he received this spring on a similar charge. Lloyd will probably be taken to Salem this week or early next week to serve the sentence. Lloyd last spring pleaded guilty to forging several checks, which he made good, and was given a parole on his promise of good behavior.

The Medford Beauty Shop on North Central avenue is being completely renovated under the direction of Sam Peck, who is busy painting the interior. Mrs. Peck left Sunday morning for San Francisco where she will secure additional equipment and new features for the establishment. She expects to be gone at least a week.
Miss Fred Schenck arrived from Roseburg, Ore., Saturday, to be ready for the opening of the city schools tomorrow. Miss Schneider will teach in the Roosevelt school and will reside at the home of Luke Ryan on East Jackson street.

Miss Yvonne DeVanney, who left for Toledo, Ore., several weeks ago after having been graduated this summer from the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland, will teach this year at Mitchell in east Oregon. Miss DeVanney's father, who was formerly a local attorney, is now cashier of the Toledo bank.

The condition of M. F. Rowen of Klamath Falls, who suffered serious injuries over a week ago when his large sedan left the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway and rolled down a steep grade, was reported as better today at the Community hospital, where he is a patient. For a time, little hope was held for his recovery, but his dangerous condition is now believed to be over.

Miss Geneva Hart of this city will leave this week for Paisley, near Lakeview, to begin school teaching duties there this week. Miss Hart was a graduate this year of the Southern Oregon Normal school.

Mrs. M. R. Parker of Butte Falls is a visitor in the city registered at the Hotel Medford, who arrived yesterday.

Chauncey Florey, United States commissioner and local real estate dealer, who underwent an operation for cancer of the Sacred Heart hospital several weeks ago, is showing continued improvement and was moved to his home on North Riverside avenue over a week or ten days ago.

Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano and harmony. Accredited teacher. Haight Music Studio, 218 Liberty Bldg. Phone 72. 165.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Thur Schoenberg of Los Angeles were guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Marshall on West Tenth street.

Wanted—Packers at once, Pine-nacle Packing Co. 165.
Good news to her many friends in Jacksonville and elsewhere Oregon is the return of Miss Mollie Brit to her home in Jacksonville, after having been a patient in a Portland hospital for some time. She arrived Saturday evening accompanied by her brother Emil.

The Sixth Street Super-Service Station has Myers high pressure washing and high pressure greasing machinery, which insures best service. 165.
Glen Bremer left here Sunday morning for Roseburg, where he expected to spend the holiday with an uncle, T. Holbarston.

Today was Labor day at the local packing plants, with practically every one running full force. Ida Wood and Florence Graves, piano teachers. High school credits given. 229 N. Oakdale. Phone 1042-W. 169

Tomorrow night, Tuesday, following the first show, Adrienne Steward's style show will be featured at the Criterion theater. In addition to approximately a dozen local girls, two professional models from San Francisco will be here to display the array of beautiful new fall and winter clothes. Costumes for all occasions, including sport, school room, office, afternoon and evening wear, will be displayed. Shows will be furnished by the bootery and all jewelry by Healy's.

At the corner of Sixth and Fifth streets the Sixth Street Super-Service Station is equipped to give the best in washing and greasing. 165.
Californians registered at local hotels include Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fleischman and M. B. and R. Crane of Los Angeles, Mrs. B. Griffith and Mrs. Donovan of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allen and C. L. Hill of Orange, R. H. Jr., and Miss Sarah Blanchard and J. M. Warner of Santa Paula, Mrs. R. E. Hackett of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Chatterton of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stiles of Marysville, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mullin, Jack Mullin and Miss Mary Groomer of San Rafael, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Nelson of Chico, Delbert Buraker of Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. John Towne of Burlingame and Mrs. V. B. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William White and Frank Tyson of San Francisco.

Thomas Reedy & Ins. Co., Room 12, Palm Block, Small secured loans and contracts discontinued. 1587.
Mrs. L. E. Knutson and daughters are visitors in Medford for a short time at the home of Mrs. Knutson's brother-in-law, Charles Knutson, while en route to their home in Mitchell, S. D., from a trip through southern California.

An important meeting of the board of directors of the Greater Medford club will be held Thursday afternoon, September 6, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the home of the president, Mrs. R. V. Williams, 1225 Reddy avenue. Members of the board are requested to call Mrs. Williams if they are going to attend the meeting. Her telephone number is 1350.

Because of today being a holiday the U. S. weather bureau issues no forecast for the weather tonight and tomorrow, but it is presumed that the temperature will be continued warm. Yesterday's maximum was 97.
Charles Lloyd, local auto salesman, when he appeared before Circuit Judge C. M. Thomas Saturday on a bad check charge, suffered the revocation of his parole from a year's sentence he received this spring on a similar charge. Lloyd will probably be taken to Salem this week or early next week to serve the sentence. Lloyd last spring pleaded guilty to forging several checks, which he made good, and was given a parole on his promise of good behavior.

The Medford Beauty Shop on North Central avenue is being completely renovated under the direction of Sam Peck, who is busy painting the interior. Mrs. Peck left Sunday morning for San Francisco where she will secure additional equipment and new features for the establishment. She expects to be gone at least a week.
Miss Fred Schenck arrived from Roseburg, Ore., Saturday, to be ready for the opening of the city schools tomorrow. Miss Schneider will teach in the Roosevelt school and will reside at the home of Luke Ryan on East Jackson street.

Miss Yvonne DeVanney, who left for Toledo, Ore., several weeks ago after having been graduated this summer from the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland, will teach this year at Mitchell in east Oregon. Miss DeVanney's father, who was formerly a local attorney, is now cashier of the Toledo bank.

The condition of M. F. Rowen of Klamath Falls, who suffered serious injuries over a week ago when his large sedan left the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway and rolled down a steep grade, was reported as better today at the Community hospital, where he is a patient. For a time, little hope was held for his recovery, but his dangerous condition is now believed to be over.

Miss Geneva Hart of this city will leave this week for Paisley, near Lakeview, to begin school teaching duties there this week. Miss Hart was a graduate this year of the Southern Oregon Normal school.

Mrs. M. R. Parker of Butte Falls is a visitor in the city registered at the Hotel Medford, who arrived yesterday.

Among the hotel guests in Medford from the state of Washington are A. C. Robn of Walla Walla, Me. and Mrs. William Dufree of Olympia, Mrs. Emma Hottle of Centralia and Mrs. R. B. Montague, Dr. and Mrs. Nell and son, E. A. Whitman and L. E. Sorroy of Seattle.

Miss Betty Bolz left early Saturday morning for Grass Valley, Ore., where she will begin school teaching this week. Miss Bolz, a resident of Phoenix, was graduated this year from the Southern Oregon Normal school.

The Misses Josephine Harner, Mildred Barber, Madge Mitchell and Marie Mitchell of Ashland were visitors in Medford yesterday while en route to visit friends in the Table Rock district.

James G. Cahill, alias Ted Lewis and William Griffith, will be taken before Chauncey Florey, United States commissioner, tomorrow on a car theft charge, following his arrest in Ashland last week for stealing an automobile in Sacramento, Cal. Cahill will probably be taken tomorrow afternoon or late next day to Portland by Deputy United States Marshal C. C. Wells, via Klamath Falls, where the officer will take another prisoner in custody on a federal charge.

A heater screen pitcher over 100 years old is on display at the Chamber of Commerce, through the courtesy of Mrs. A. L. Mee of Appleton. The pitcher, because of its unusual design, is attracting considerable attention from passers-by.

"I ain't got no friends and no love, and I'm on the road doin' my best to earn a livin' by sellin' peanuts," was a portion of a hard luck story told by an old itinerant hawker who arrived in Medford today and "set upshop" on Front street, after having obtained permission from the police department. "Every muscle in my old body hurts," he continued, "and if I'm not able to sell my peanuts here, I guess I'll just have to move on somewhere else. I ain't got any particular destination. Anywhere will do, I guess."

Jack Crowden and Jack O'Brien, who were sentenced to the state penitentiary at Salem to four years each for burglary, were taken yesterday to Salem by Sheriff Ralph Jennings and Deputy Oscar Dunford, who also had in custody H. McQuire, charged with forgery.

George Roberts, manager of the Crater Lake state service, is ill at the Crater Lake lodge.
Mrs. M. Ottoman and daughter Ruth returned today from Portland where they spent the past few days.

Eddie Gusk will leave here this evening for his home in New York City, after spending the summer months visiting Mrs. A. E. Troyer today.

A minor auto collision took place yesterday on the Crater Lake highway three miles north of Medford when machines driven by John Ellis and R. Beophy, respectively, collided, according to a report filed at the police station, where a report of a collision yesterday near Gold Hill was also on file. This crash took place between a truck driven by Art Duncan of the Eads Transfer company and a car driven by Harold Downs of this city, causing some damage to the latter machine.

Guests from Portland at Medford hotels include Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and children, Edna and Gabel, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ross, Virginia and LeLair West, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kallier, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Maringer, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Starr, Major William Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. August Fleming, L. S. V. West, A. M. Hoffman, C. R. Martin and E. B. Roth.

The Jackson county fair to be held here September 12, 13, 14 and 15, has been advertised up and down the highway during the past week by Paul McDonald who just returned to Medford Sunday after a motor trip in which he distributed hundreds of posters and much information about the big event.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McCulloch, of Roseburg, visited friends in this city today. They have just completed a vacation trip to Bandon, Crescent City and other points along the coast and report that they encountered extremely cold weather and much fog along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spay, of Oakland, Cal., arrived here this morning to spend several days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis.
Miss Nan Rawls of Savannah, Ga., stopped here this morning en route to her home after spending the past week at Rogue River as the guest of Mrs. E. M. Pittman, formerly of Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McEadden of Los Angeles, visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Quesenberry. The McEaddens were en route to their home after a motor trip to Crater Lake.
Mrs. Floyd Cook returned to Medford this morning from Portland, where she went the end of the week to meet her son, Windsor Gale, of the U. S. Naval academy at Annapolis and who is returning home to spend an extended vacation before returning.

Miss Inez Leclere left here today for Topeka, Kansas, after visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Leclere, who came here recently from Kansas.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Melba O'Day, screen actress, has given her pounds of flesh in payment for a film career.
The actress was resting at a hospital today after an operation performed Thursday to remove several pounds of flesh from her hips and legs. The operation was kept secret until today when the actress recovered from the effects of two hours' stay under ether and the four incisions began healing.

JOHN COOLIDGE OFF TO FIND A JOB

SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Preparations for what may be John Coolidge's permanent separation from the home of his parents, east a shadow of gloom over the stunner white house today and accounted for most of the activity there, where bags and trunks were being packed for his journey east tonight.

Anticipating with great sorrow the departure of her son, on his way to find a job and to work out his own future, Mrs. Coolidge watched and helped in the packing of his baggage. As early as yesterday noon, at the church services at home, her eyes had gladdened with tears when she had told John Taylor, the blind preacher at the church, that after tomorrow her son would no longer be with her.

SEC. KELLOGG ENDS VISIT TO IRELAND

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Frank B. Kellogg, U. S. secretary of state, started his homeward voyage today. He boarded the U. S. S. Detroit at Alexandria basin here. The cruiser soon left for Cherbourg, France. There the secretary will board the Levathan tomorrow.

The honors paid to Secretary Kellogg on his arrival were repeated at the conclusion of his visit to Ireland. President Cosgrave and members of the entertainment committee were present to bid him farewell and a military guard with a band was drawn up to do honor to the nation's guest.

Classified advertising gets results

Daily Meteorological Report

September 3, 1928.
FORECASTS
Medford and vicinity: No forecast; holiday.
Oregon: No forecast; holiday.

LOCAL DATA

Temperature (obs.) 92 55
Highest (last 12 hrs.) 97 92
Lowest (last 12 hrs.) 51 51
Rel. humidity (p.m.) 17 21
Precipitation (in.) .00 .00
State of weather—Clear Clear
Lowest temperature this morning, 51 degrees.

CITY

CITY	High Temp.	Lowest Temp.	Weather
Baker City	60	92	Cld.
Bismarck	68	28	Clear
Bolsé	52	56	Clear
Denver	74	52	Cld.
Des Moines	74	59	Clear
El Paso	100	64	Clear
Helena	84	52	Clear
Los Angeles	86	62	Clear
Marshallfield	62	52	Clear
Phoenix	102	76	Clear
Portland	98	62	Clear
Red Bluff	98	62	Clear
Salt Lake City	84	58	Clear
Roseburg	88	58	Cld.
San Francisco	64	52	Cld.
Santa Fe	76	52	Clear
Seattle	74	59	Cld.
Spokane	94	56	Clear
Walla Walla	96	64	Clear
Winnipeg	40	40	Clear

C. A. COLE, Meteorologist.

Among Klamath Falls residents spending yesterday in Medford was A. E. Hartman and F. H. Reed.

Obituary

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Collier will be held from the Peet funeral home, Tuesday, September 4, at 2 p. m., Rev. Nelson officiating. Burial in Phoenix.

HILFITY.—Fred Hilphy passed away at the Sacred Heart hospital September 2, 1928, aged 36 years. Mrs. Hilphy was born in California July 19, 1892, and lived in that state until four years ago when the family moved to Jackson county and settled at Trail.

Mrs. Hilphy is survived by her husband, Clyde Hilphy, five daughters and one son—Rosalyn, Ethel, Elsie, Alma and Evaline and Lewis, also her mother, Mrs. Louise Barbery of Nicholas, Cal., one brother, John E. Barbery, and two sisters, Mrs. R. K. Haas of Weingler, Cal., and Mrs. J. H. Engover of Nicholas, Cal.

Funeral services will be held at the Peet funeral home Wednesday, September 5, at 10:30 a. m., Rev. Eaton officiating. Interment in Jacksonville cemetery.

Anderson Pictures Attract Attention

A number of the recent photographs which have been appearing in the Mail Tribune, have been made by the Anderson Studio.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Medford Pharmacy
Heath's Drug Store
Strang's Drug Store

PHONE 51

Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM

PASTEURIZED - SAFE - PURE
PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

Flags wanted at the Mail Tribune office. Must be clean.

A CONSOLATION

It's a consolation to know that when death occurs you can call a mortician who will treat you exactly as he would expect to be treated if the situation were reversed.

Conger Funeral Parlors

RELIABLE—REASONABLE
Office of County Coroner

M. H. S. SCHOOL BINDERS AND SCHOOL SUPPLIES

The new M. H. S. Binders are here—brown, black, black and red, and the black and red Flexible Binders from 35c to $1.00. THEMES PAPER, the best grade we have ever stocked for the money.

FOUNTAIN PENS
WATERMAN, CONKLIN and PARKER
Automatic Lead Pencils from 10c to $4.00

Office Stationery & Supply Co.

"Your Office Boy"
Across from Rialto Theater
FREE BOOK COVERS

REICHSTEIN AND DEUEL

WOOD

ALL KINDS OF DRY WOOD
OAK-LAUREL-FIR
Summer COAL Prices

MEDFORD FUEL CO.

1118 North Central
Tel. 631

Do You Carry a "Spare" ?

A growing Savings account is a "spare" in the fullest sense of the word. It is always ready for emergency—but more than that—money in the bank spells

O-P-P-O-R-T-U-N-I-T-Y

Open Your Account Today!

THE JACKSON COUNTY BANK

ESTABLISHED 1888
MEDFORD, OREGON
Commercial - Savings - Safe Deposit
MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

FASHION REVUE

LAST TIMES TONIGHT
Pola Negri
In her first sound picture
"The Loves of An Actress"

TOMORROW
— ONLY —
HUNT'S CRATERIAN
CENTRAL JURY OF MAIN

Presented by
Adrienne Steward
A STYLE EXTRAVAGANZA
PROFESSIONAL MODELS — DISPLAYING FALL AND WINTER APPAREL

SHOES
Through courtesy of THE BOOTERY

JEWELRY
Through courtesy of BROPHYS

On The Screen
Norma Jeanner
IN THE ACTRESS

QUALITY SEEDS

FOR FALL PLANTING

Vetch, Gray Oats, Rye, Cheat, Alfalfa, Clovers, Grasses, etc.

GET OUR PRICES—SEE OUR STOCKS!
Plant in the dust, plant early, be ready for the first fall rains

Monarch Seed & Feed Co.

Your Seedmen—Since 1910

This is a Great Country
and the home of a Great Product, Fluhner's Milk Bread.