

FLIGHT TO AID MUTE RESULTS IN DEATH FOR TRIO

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 8.—(AP) An airplane trip undertaken in an effort to improve the condition of Luke Blotta, six year old mute, cost the lives of three persons when their machine plunged from a 2000 foot altitude into a swamp near Randall field airport, Agawam, a suburb of this city.

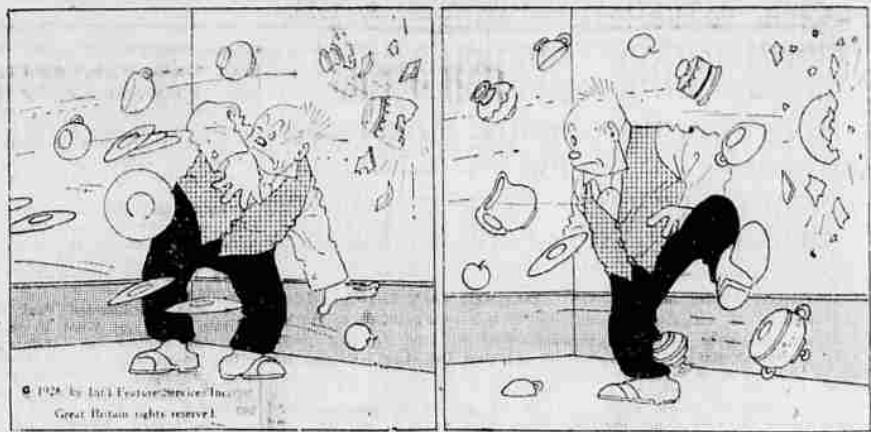

The accident, which occurred late yesterday, was witnessed by hundreds of persons. Those killed were the boy, Charles Potholm, 25, of Hartford, Conn., pilot employed by the Massachusetts Airways corporation, owner of the plane, and Abraham H. Mazer, 21, of this city, a passenger.

Potholm presumably attempted a loop contrary to instructions received before leaving the ground. The pilot had been told to avoid stunts although the boy's father, Joseph Blotta, had asked that some be employed in the belief that they might help restore the child's vocal powers. The elder Blotta says the tragedy.

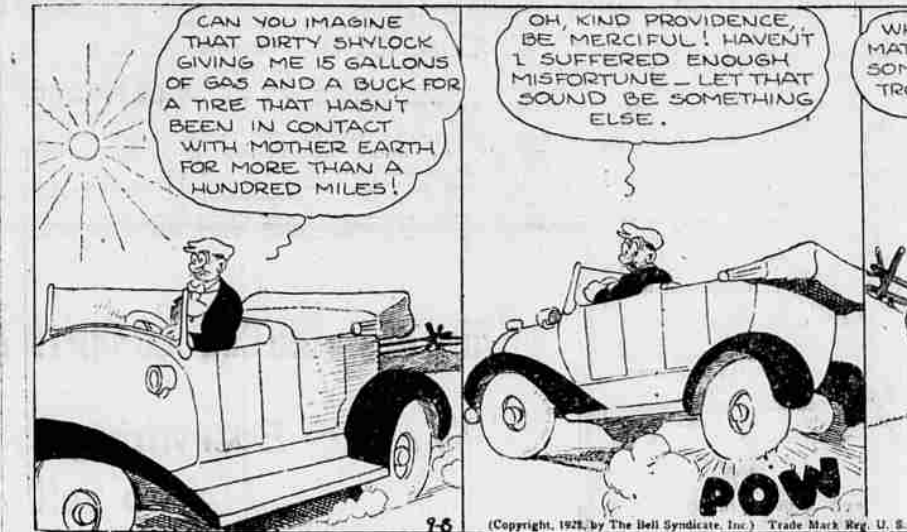

As the plane started to level out after the loop, the left wing suddenly broke away and a second later there was an explosion. As the ship plunged to earth the right wing collapsed and the plane fell vertically.

All three victims were found wrapped in their seats.

THE NEBBS—In The Gloaming

the market an irregular appearance much of the time.

Trading facilities were again swamped with the influx of orders, the ticker falling 20 minutes behind the market at the end of the first hour with no chance of catching up before the close. Customers' rooms of brokerage houses were crowded and telegraph wires congested with orders, confirmations and market gossip.

Assignment shares gave a most impressive demonstration of growth strength. Warner Brothers A and common stock advanced $8 and $6 respectively to new highs at $120 and $123.50. Fox Film was bid up $5 to a new top at $114.50 on merger rumors. Keith-Albee and Stanley company of America also made new tops.

Extreme irregularity characterized the late trading. Sharp reverses took place in Curtiss, Case Trucking, Midland Steel Products preferred and Wright Aeronautical all of which sold $4 to $9 a share below yesterday's final figures. On the other hand, Commercial Solvents rallied nearly $10 a share to a new peak at $201.50 and Peoples Gas climbed $6.50 to a new top at $134.50.

The stock ticker did not stop running until 37 minutes after the market closed.
