PHOTO OF FAIRY PRESENTING GIRL WITH A FLOWER

LONDON, Sept. 10.—(AP)—A number of people can see fairies, but "are ashamed to say so because of the foolish incredulity with which their observations would be greeted," Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, novelist, believes.

Addressing the congress of the international spiritualists' association he asserted also that fairies can be photographed and displayed a photograph purporting to show a fairy presenting a flower to a little girl. He also showed pictures of wood elves dancing and bathing in a woodland pool, and a girl playing with a gnome, who danced in rhythm to her hand-clapping.

Sir Arthur further recounted that he had been in spiritualist contact with the novelist, Joseph Conrad. "He asked me to do something for him," he said. "It seemed as if his spirit was uneasy and he wanted to link up with the world once more."

Sir Arthur also claimed to have received a long message from Earl Haig three days after the field marshal's death and said: "I asked his relatives, whom the message concerned, whether they would like to see the message but they did not reply. Earl Haig was a spiritualist and I cannot help feeling very much for him, in the circumstances."

FAILING MEMORY HITS SHIEK WHO SHOT HUSBAND

THE DALLIES, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Discovered in a bank house with the wife of the man he seriously wounded, Mancel Nance, 25, was in jail here today charged with assault to commit murder with a dangerous weapon. He was found late last night with Mrs. Archie McPherson, wife of the man Nance shot in an altercation Saturday.

First reports indicated that McPherson had been killed, but physicians found he was suffering only from a serious shoulder wound. When Nance was arrested he was carrying a loaded automatic pistol and an extra magazine of shells. McPherson and his wife separated several months ago. On Saturday McPherson was visiting his wife and their children when Nance arrived. He had been badly beaten earlier in the afternoon by two men with whom he disputed a right of way on the Ashwood road.

Apparently without provocation, Nance began firing the automatic. Eight or nine shots were fired, one of them wounding McPherson. Nance and Mrs. McPherson then left the house and were found together later.

Nance told police he had no recollection of the shooting. The last thing he remembered, he said, was being beaten by the two auto drivers.

YANKEES TRIM "A'S" TWICE AS 85,265 WATCH

Largest Crowd in Baseball History Attends Crucial Series — Cubs Gain On Cardinals in National League Race.

By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The New York Yankees have been sternly tested, and certainly not found wanting.

While the biggest crowd in baseball history looked on, the world's champions, fighting desperately for every advantage, ripped two victories from Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics yesterday, and bounced back into the American league lead.

Nearly 86,000 persons packed the Yankee stadium. Most of them came to see their one-time favorites. They remained intent to go wild while the Yankees tore into their pennant rivals and downed them by score of 7 to 0, and 7 to 3.

George Pipgras, young right-hander, who seems to rise to the heights in a crisis and Bob Meusel, the somewhat nonchalant left fielder, were the Yankee heroes of the day.

Pipgras gave the A's no chance in the opener, scattering nine hits in such a manner that the A's could not fashion a single run out of their collection.

Meusel won the second game, when he clouted a home run into the left field seats with the bases filled in the eighth.

It was a stunning reverse for the Mackmen. They came to the Yankee fair expecting to confront the pale shadow of a once mighty baseball club. They recruited instead, with a giant, rejoicing in his strength.

For the day at least, the Athletics were overmatched. Against the heads up baseball champions played the A's would make no progress. The double defeat sent the Yankees back into the lead with a game and a half to spare and a record of 15 victories over the Athletics in the twenty games the two teams have played thus far.

To New York fanatics, the double bill was as good as a world's series. Two hundred thousand sought to get into the stadium, and 85,265 succeeded.

Meanwhile the National league race was tightening up. The Cardinals, bowing to Pittsburgh again, 8 to 7, saw the Chicago Cubs, who beat Cincinnati 2 to 0, draw to within two and a half games of them and that's not far enough away to please Bill McKechnie.

The Pirates sank the league leaders by scoring five runs in the eighth inning. Guy Bush allowed the Reds only two hits in the Cubs' triumph before 42,000 persons.

The New York Giants suffered another rude shock to their pennant ambitions when Dazzy Vance and the Brooklyn Dodgers, beat them, 3 to 2.

The Chicago White Sox, beating Cleveland, 16 to 1, reached the

PORTLAND DROPS SUNDAY GAMES

By the Associated Press.

Seattle took five of the nine-game series but Portland moved into sixth place. Seattle won both games Sunday 7 to 6 and 6 to 5. After Portland had tied the score in the eighth inning of the first game Seattle put over the winning count in the eleventh. The Indians tied the count in the eighth inning of the nightcap and won in the ninth.

Stupid playing and a pair of errors by the Seals gave the Stars the opened of a double header 13 to 7. Opening the seventh with San Francisco five runs ahead, Hollywood massed six counts on a series of weak hits and continued in the eighth by scoring five more. The Seals scored 19 safeties off May and Moudy. San Francisco scored three runs in the eighth of the afternoon tilt and halted a Hollywood threat in the last to win 10 to 8.

Pete Duglia won in the morning game 2 to 1 over Sacramento. He allowed seven hits. Oakland used two of its three hits to score twice in the second. The Senators scored heavily and won 5 to 4. Hoffman accounted for two Senators runs in the final stanza with his homer.

The Missions took its sixth and seventh straight and Los Angeles dropped to seventh place in the league. The Angels lost 8 to 1 and 7 to 2. Ike Boone got two homers and a double in the opener.

TRAGEDY NO BAR TO ENTHUSIASM OF MILAN RACE FANS

MILAN, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Twenty-one deaths have resulted from an accident in an automobile race here Sunday. While speeding at 120 miles an hour a competitor for the track championship of Europe plunged into the grandstand killing himself and 18 others. Twenty-six spectators including an American, were injured. Two of these died later.

Despite the accident, the race continued, a Frenchman, Chiron, driving a Bugatti car to victory at the average speed of 140 miles an hour.

As the driver Materassi sped into the straightaway in front of the grandstand at the Monza automobile on his eighteenth circuit he attempted to pass another competitor, Foresti.

The front of Materassi's car grazed the speeding automobile ahead and overturned. Materassi's automobile plunged across the barrier and a ditch separating the track from the stands. It plowed into the midst of the crowd, killing eighteen spectators and the driver.

There was a momentary flurry and then the spectators resumed their seats as the race continued.

LABORITE DENIES HE WAS CAPTIVE

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 10.—(AP)—William J. Lyons, president of the Newark Building Trades Council, today denied reports he had been betrayed to a gang of Detroit racketeers, who imprisoned him in a small room of a New York apartment house, seized his body with hot irons and otherwise tortured him, seeking $100,000 ransom.

The stories, which had their origin among friends of Lyons, were circulated when he had not been around his usual places and after John Bell, bartender and former friend of Lyons, had been attacked and severely beaten.

"These reports are absolute falsehoods," Lyons said. "I have been overworked and needed a rest and went to a secluded spot to get it."

CATHOLIC SCHOOL SUBSIDY DENIED

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 10.—(AP)—R. Reuter dispatch from Sydney, New South Wales, say that Premier Bruce, in replying today to a deputation representing the whole Catholic laity of Australia, declined to agree to the principle that secular education of children in Roman Catholic schools should be recognized by the granting of a federal subsidy.

The Australian Catholics ask that their contribution to the cost of national education be returned to Catholic schools in the form of a subsidy inasmuch as Catholic children are educated in their own schools.
