

PEACHES SLOW AS SHIPMENTS GROW; GRAPES SELL FAST

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Trading on local wholesale produce markets was fairly active this morning, although conditions of the weather tended to restrict demand for some classes of products.

Oregon yellow danvers onions were beginning to arrive in good quantity and demand was active around $2.75 per hundredweight. Growers are receiving $2.00 and bags for marketable stock, it is reported.

Peaches were moving slowly this morning, and were slightly cheaper than in the close Saturday. Supplies from Yakima and The Dalles were liberal, going to the trade at 50¢ to 75¢ per box, depending on size and quality. A few late Crawford were arriving from The Dalles and Hood River orchards, but supplies were light and dealers were asking around 90¢ per box.

Bartlett peaches continued to make up the bulk of offerings in that division, selling from $1.50 to $2.50 per box for wrapped and packed offerings. D'Anjous were in moderate supply and sold mostly at $1.50 to $1.75 per box.

Included in the Kennebec car was a small lot of cantaloupes, which cleaned up almost as quickly as unloaded at $2.50 for standard boxes and $1.00 for flat crates. Outside of these few, the market was practically barren of cantaloupes. Ice cream melons were in fairly liberal supply at 1 1/2¢ to 2¢ per pound.

Availability of local lettuce is daily becoming better, it is reported. And demand this morning was good, at $1.25 per crate dry pack. Grapes were in heavy supply and were moving well at steady prices.

Pickling onions sold mostly at 4¢ per pound except in large quantities, on which prices were as low as 3 1/2¢. Pickling cucumbers were also in large supply and went all the way from 3 to 6¢ per pound. Green peppers were in good supply at 5¢ per pound.

Butter and egg prices opened firm at Saturday's close with receipts country dressed meats and poultry were steady at the opening this morning. All classes were fairly well cleaned up, except heavy and common veal, which was drabgy. Prices were unchanged.

REID, MURDOCH TO OPERATE CANNERY IN SALEM SECTOR

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Announcement was made here today that Reid, Murdoch & Company of Chicago, big wholesale grocery house, is invading the west for the first time with its manufacturing line and has taken a lease for a year on the Pacific Canning & Packing company's plant in West Salem, with an option to purchase at the end of the year. In the meantime it agrees to install $10,000 worth of improvements on the building and machinery during the year which will convert the plant into a cannery. The option is not exercised. The leasing company required the cannery company to purchase two acres of ground adjoining the plant to be assured of ground to make expansions in event the option is exercised.

The company will operate here the first year around cannery in the Northwest expecting to use the plant for jam manufacturing during the winter months. It was announced it would pack Elvora burg and Marshall strawberries, red and black raspberries, blackberries, prunes, pears, loganberries, gooseberries, cherries and in addition onions, beets, meats of various kinds, as well as probably some additional vegetable lines and pickles. The plant was decided on as the basis of the company's first manufacturing operations in the west after personal visits here by H. W. Armstrong, president, and S. P. Stevens, vice-president of the company. The company operates 10 canneries in the east and has 12 branch wholesale grocery plants.

THE CAUSE OF EDUCATION IS UPPERMOST

At this time and the principal industry is house-hunting on the part of those with youngsters ready for admission to the High School or to the various subordinate grades. To get quickly located, during the period when every home fitted for the purpose has been secured by the transient fruit workers now in Medford, is a serious problem. Under these circumstances we recommend a lovely

East Front Four-Room House on Street Being Paved Centrally located, lawn and shrubbery growing, good garage with woodshed connected, and the house not only well furnished, but well kept, and all for $2500 on extremely good terms, only $500 down, and balance like rent.
