

Local and Personal

The stores, banks and most all other places of business closed this noon, and the majority of the population was at the fairgrounds enjoying Medford day there, hence the business section of the city was very quiet this afternoon. The public schools of the city and county will be closed all day tomorrow because of its being School Day at the county fair.

The Thrift Shop has a special sale on all winter goods, including men's, women's and children's clothing. A very nice assortment of ladies' hats, 50 cents to 75 cents. Children's school clothes, a few second hand books and new black and blue underwear. Come in and look over our bargains and you will be surprised how cheaply you can fit out the whole family. Anyone having clothes to give, call 454 or deliver over Woolworth's store.

The condition of County Judge J. W. Hartzel, who was stricken with illness last Saturday and has been confined to his apartments in the Hotel Medford ever since, has improved today, and he was able to shave himself this forenoon. However, he is still quite indisposed and it may be some time yet before he is able to attend to his official duties.

Heavy tourist travel for this year is a thing of the past, according to Laid Garlock of the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau. He said today that tourist travel has decreased one-third from its summertime amount and indicated that it will have increased to one-half before the end of the month. The majority of the summertime pleasure tourists have returned to their homes, leaving only California and Washington motorists to pass through southern Oregon.

Gene Simpson of Corvallis, superintendent of the three state game farms in Oregon, is in Medford during the county fair, having brought a truck load of China, Golden and other pheasants, several varieties of quail, wild ducks, grouse and turkeys for exhibition at the fair. The birds are on display in special coops near the poultry house and yesterday and today were attracting much attention.

There is no need to get up in the cold this winter. Have the furnace fire started by an expert. State monthly salary in first letter. Write, "Fire," Mail Tribune. 175*

The heavy showers of last Tuesday having removed the main fire hazards, Fire Chief Roy Elliott announced yesterday that permission will no longer be necessary to burn trash, or rubbish or grass. However, he advises extreme caution in building such fires and warns the builders to start them at a safe distance from buildings. A ban had been in effect all summer against the issuance of permits as it is believed to have been of much aid in keeping Medford's fire loss to a good low minimum during the dry months.

Again the guard rail at the sharp curve in the Pacific highway at the Meridian corner north of this city, probably prevented a serious auto accident Tuesday night or early Wednesday. One section of the rail was knocked flat by the impact of some automobile, which otherwise would have probably gone over the four or five-foot bank. It was at this time that two men were killed several years ago when their car failed to make the turn.

Rabbit Banquet Thursday Evening.

The members and friends of the Rabbit Breeders' associations, local and state, will meet at 6:30 p. m. on Thursday of this week, at the Jackson (Terminal) Hotel, for their annual banquet. At the close of the feast, a part of which will consist of rabbit meat, Judge Lewis J. Griffin of Colorado Springs, and Katherine Hayes of Portland will deliver their addresses. This meeting takes the place of the meeting which was announced for Thursday evening at the Rabbit pavilion at the fairgrounds.

All who are interested in the rabbit business in any way, are invited to be present at this banquet, and enjoy the feast of reason and flow of soul to follow. The very reasonable price of 75 cents has been placed on each plate, and matters of large interest to the industry will be presented by the speakers and in the general discussion afterward. 174*

10,000 New Fall Suits

Purchased by the C. J. Breier Co. Chain Stores Going on Sale for Ten Days Starting

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15th

AND CONTINUING ALL NEXT WEEK

The C. J. Breier Co. made a spot cash bid for these Suits bought for our customers. We bought them far below their real value and are selling them the same way, making it a

Quality-Giving Money-Saving

OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU

$19.75

Since our regular $19.75 line of Suits has become the standard of value in the West, what must these Suits that were not made to sell at $19.75, but were made to sell from $30 to $40 be worth at this low price!

We have placed these new high-priced Suits in our regular $19.75 line during this sale and we urge every man that has even the most remote idea of purchasing a suit, to seriously consider doing so at this time.

Our $19.75 line of Suits won such enthusiastic approval. That's why we bought 10,000 of these fine suits and priced them at only $19.75. They will take care of fall needs now. Whatever is correct in style, you may be sure of finding in Breier's New Fall Suits.

Breier introduces a new line of Men's Suits

$24.75

We take this occasion to make mention at this time of our high class line of Men's Suits, in addition to our now far-famed $19.75 suit line. These suits have a custom tailored look; these suits are made from fabrics of the finest weave and are all virgin wool. Styles that suit the easy-to-fit and the hard-to-fit.

High grade worsteds and pure wools in grays, browns and tans. Collegiate clothes in twists, with bright rayon stripes.

$3.98

Here's a saving of about $2.00 to $3.00 on pants in this group. Heavy all-wool work pants in gray mixtures. Some twists and flannels, all-wool novelties, all-wool worsteds, dark colors. Priced at $3.98.

Another carload of men's pants arrives just in time for this big occasion. Another one of those wonderful BREIER scoops—a whole carload pulled in! Another opportunity to SAVE. A big manufacturer heard of the success of our last pants event. He learned of our numerous retail outlets and made us a price concession on a carload of quality pants. We felt justified in buying this additional carload.

Hundreds of men in almost every town and city in the northwest bought pants from C. J. Breier Co. during our big pants event in July, when we bought two carloads of men's pants. Ask any one of these men about the values. AND THEN REMEMBER THAT WE BOUGHT THIS ADDITIONAL CARLOAD.

Pants for Men and Young Men

$1.98

This low price group carries cotton cords, moleskins, wool mixtures, flannels, dress novelties, fancies and high grade work pants. Priced at $1.98.

$2.98

In this group you will find twists in brown and tan mixtures; worsteds in mostly dark browns and gray. Some flannels in light shades of gray and blonde; some with rayon colored stripes. Priced at $2.98.
