"THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE"

For the After School Lunch

The after school lunch is now accepted as a necessity by all dieticians. With the after-fatigue from the strain of study nothing so restores the vitality of the child as the after-school lunch, and no lunch is so nourishing as good bread and butter, and the best bread in the world was the kind mother made. That's the kind you get here. We bake exactly as mother baked, leaving out the alum-bearing commercial substitutes that have crept into commercial bakings, and that is what accounts for that different flavor — is why we are selling over 1800 loaves every day, with the demand steadily increasing. When you give the children that after-school sandwich, be sure the bread is the kind you would bake for them.
